

John SEBASTIAN TEACHES Blues Harmonica

A rock 'n' roll legend teaches you everything you need to play great blues harp on this unique CD lesson. John Sebastian starts at the beginning, carefully explaining the proper way to hold the instrument and make your first tones. After a brief excursion into cowboy music to demonstrate "out" or "straight" harp style, John gets into the nitty-gritty with detailed instruction in getting your first blues scales using the traditional "cross harp" technique.

In John's typically warm and relaxed way, he shows you how to get the best possible sounds out of the instrument, passing along tips on breathing, tonguing, note bending, vibrato, attack and other invaluable information. Before you know it you'll be playing a complete blues in G with an intro and turnaround. You'll learn how to bend notes half-steps and whole-steps, improvise lead lines, get the double note-bending "train" sound and play powerful rhythm back-up patterns. You'll even learn the great Sonny Terry's tour de force "Fox Chase" rhythm.

By the end of this lesson you'll be jamming with your friends in both major and minor keys, playing in both "waltz" and "straight" time, and understanding the chord theory behind some of the most widely used chord progressions in blues and rock music. You won't find a better introduction to blues harp playing anywhere!
