John O'Hara

Selected Short Stories of John O'Hara John O'Hara, 2007-12-18 John O'Hara's fiction wrote Lionel Trilling is preeminent for its social verisimilitude. Made famous by his bestselling novels including Butterfield 8 and Appointment in Samarra, O'Hara 1905-1970 also wrote some of the finest short fiction of the twentieth century. First published by the Modern Library in 1956, Selected Short Stories of John O'Hara displays the author's skills as a keen social observer, a refreshingly frank storyteller, and a writer with a brilliant ear for dialogue. The stories in this volume, writes Louis Begley in his new Introduction, show the wide range of O'Hara's interests and an ability to treat with a virtuoso's ease characters and situations from any place on America's geographic and social spectrum. From the Trade Paperback edition. Selected Letters of John O'Hara John O'Hara, 1978. "An Artist is His Own Fault" John O'Hara, 1977. This important gathering of previously uncollected and unpublished material enlarges the assessment of O'Hara as a craftsman and a conscious literary artist. O'Hara's preoccupation with the craft of writing is superbly revealed in the series of lectures he gave on the American novel at Rider College in Trenton, N.J. These hitherto unpublished lectures contain major critical statements about the techniques of fiction writing. O'Hara had intended to publish these lectures because of their importance but he never did. Today they are of particular value in illuminating the thought of this eminent author because O'Hara developed them in close reference to his own work and because they were written in 1959 and 1961 when he was at the peak of his writing career. The 38 other pieces include the never-published foreword O'Hara wrote for The Selected Stories of John O'Hara. There are also three pieces on F. Scott Fitzgerald which reveal much about Fitzgerald and his writings. Other reviews and interviews show the high regard O'Hara had for his fellow writers Faulkner, Hemingway, and Thornton Wilder. Like all good writing about writing, the material stimulates the reader to read or reread Appointment in Samarra, Rage to Live, Ten North Frederick, From the Terrace, Butterfield 8, and the collected short stories of this superb storyteller. The Genteel John O'Hara Pamela Carol MacArthur, 2009. The writer John O'Hara 1905-1970 came from Pottsville in Pennsylvania. He put his home town and the surrounding vicinity under a microscope to produce an account of The Anthracite Region that rivals Edith Wharton's descriptions of New York and Sinclair Lewis's anatomy of Sauk Centre. With the discerning eye of a local resident, O'Hara recreated this coal-rich region and its people so well that his novelettes, novellas, novels, plays, and short stories give a true record of his Pennsylvania Protectorate in the latter part of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth century. In order to reveal the ethnographical, geographical, and historical authenticity of the O'Hara Canon, this book examines his writings in the context of Pottsville and the borough of Tamaqua, as well as the nearby towns and villages. The author also investigates both O'Hara's genteel upbringing and his gangster stratum. The book explores the many dimensions of O'Hara's life from the time of his birth until his escape to New York City in 1928. New sources such as unpublished letters and interviews with O'Hara's family, friends, and enemies provide important insights into O'Hara as well as into Pottsville and the surrounding region John O'Hara's Anthracite Region Pamela MacArthur,1999 John Henry O Hara the American author from Pottsville Schuylkill County Pennsylvania was so engrossed by the coal rich Anthracite Region that he wrote about it in his professional work and personal correspondence for most of his life The history geography and society of the area particularly within a thirty mile radius of Pottsville were put under a microscope throughout O Hara s career John O Hara s Anthracite Region covers the exciting period from the 1880s to 1945 in the coal region of Pennsylvania John Henry O Hara investigated studied and recorded the most intimate aspects of the upper class of his Pennsylvania Protectorate from his first novel Appointment in Samarra onwards From the Aristocrats escape to Eagles Mere Sullivan County to the amusement parks such as Tumbling Run and Marlin Park in the Anthracite Region O Hara captured every detail of the upper class s way of life The social enclaves such as The Out Door Club The Pottsville Club and The Schuylkill Country Club did not escape O Hara s pen in such novels as Ten North Frederick and The Lockwood Concern These places the people and their fashionable attire automobiles houses and schools are all captured within this unique photographic layout of O Hara s work that wonderfully re creates the history of this region John O'Hara: a Checklist Matthew Joseph Bruccoli,John O'Hara,1972 The O'Hara Concern Matthew J.
