John Register:

John Register Barnaby Conrad (III), 1989 Register. 1860/61- University of Oxford. Convocation, 1860 American Farmer, 1855 4th ser v 1 4 includes the Proceedings of the 1st 11th annual meetings 1848 58 of the Maryland State Agricultural Society Muster Rolls of the Soldiers of the War of 1812 North Carolina. Adjutant General's Department, Maurice S. Toler, 1976 This work is an exhaustive list of soldiers who were detached from the regular North Carolina Militia for service in the War of 1812 Arranged by company and by county regiment the book is in fact a complete muster roll of the state s 12 000 active wartime participants and it constitutes an important sourcebook in the literature of North Carolina genealogy The lists of which there are hundreds contain the names of both officers and men and are presented in two separate sections one covering the detachments of 1812 the other the detachments of 1814 It should be emphasized that the Clearfield edition of the Muster Rolls is the only edition with an index as it includes the complete name index to the 12 000 or so names listed in the volume that was compiled by Maurice S Toler of the North Carolina State Archives and prepared for publication by the Genealogical Publishing Company in 1976 John Register John Register, 1985 Biographical Register of Christ's College, 1505-1905, and of the Earlier Foundation, God's House, 1448-1505, 1910 Register of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Naval Reserve, 1949

Michigan. Leelanau county: historical and descriptive A. H Johnson, 2025-06-16 Reprint of the original first published in 1880 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Forms of Procedure in the Courts of Pennsylvania Persifor Frazer Smith, 1862 Criminal-Inquisitorial Trials in English Church Trials Henry Ansgar Kelly, 2023-09-22 After inquisitorial procedure was introduced at the Fourth Lateran Council in Rome in 1215 the same year as England's first Magna Carta virtually all court trials initiated by bishops and their subordinates were inquisitions That meant that accusers were no longer needed Rather the judges themselves leveled charges against persons when they were publicly suspected of specific offenses like fornication or witchcraft or simony Secret crimes were off limits including sins of thought like holding a heretical belief Defendants were allowed full defenses if they denied charges These canonical rules were systematically violated by heresy inquisitors in France and elsewhere especially by forcing self incrimination But in England due process was generally honored and the rights of defendants preserved though with notable exceptions In this book Henry Ansgar Kelly a noted forensic historian describes the reception and application of inquisition in England from the thirteenth century onwards and analyzes all levels of trial proceedings both minor and major from accusations of sexual offenses and cheating on tithes to matters of religious dissent He covers the trials of the Knights Templar early in the fourteenth century and the prosecutions of followers of John Wyclif at the end of the century He details how the alleged crimes of criminous clerics were handled and demonstrates that the judicial actions concerning Henry VIII's marriages were inquisitions in which the king himself and his queens were defendants Trials of Alice Kyteler Margery Kempe Eleanor Cobham and Anne Askew are explained as are the unjust trials condemning Bishop Reginald Pecock of error and heresy 1457 59 and Richard Hunne for defending English Bibles 1514 He deals with the trials of Lutheran dissidents at the time of Thomas More s chancellorship and trials of bishops under Edward VI and Queen Mary including those against Stephen Gardiner and Thomas Cranmer Under Queen Elizabeth Kelly shows there was a return to the letter of papal canon law which was not true of the papal curia In his conclusion he responds to the strictures of Sir John Baker against inquisitorial procedure and argues that it compares favorably to the common law trial by jury Register of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Naval Research and Marine Corps Reserve United States. Bureau of Naval Personnel,1951 Official Register of the United States ,1903 House Documents United States House of Representatives,1858 The History and Antiquities of the County Palatine of Durham: Chester Ward James Raine,1820 John Register John Register,1990 The Royal kalendar, or Complete and correct annual register [afterw.] The Royal kalendar and Court and city register. [2 eds.]. , Register of the Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Navy and Marine Corps United States.
