Labour Regimes And Liberalization:

Labour Regimes and Liberalization Björn Beckman, L. M. Sachikonye, 2001 This collection of essays investigates how structural adjustment and economic liberalisation have impacted upon labour regimes e.g. trade unions and upon state and civil society relations and processes of democratisation The studies resulted from a conference hosted by the Institute of Development Studies University of Zimbabwe in co operation with the Department of Political Science University of Stockholm Cases and responses of the seven African countries in attendance Egypt Ghana Nigeria Senegal South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe are documented Examples include liberalisation and the case of Senegalese industrial relations trade unions and capacity building in the Nigerian textile industry the labour exodus in a liberalising South Africa and authoritarianism and trade unions in Egypt

Labor Against the Regime Nadine Abdalla, 2025-02-17 How do worker movements emerge and evolve under authoritarian regimes What enables labor activists to overcome constraints and win concessions and what leads to demobilization Nadine Abdalla provides an inside look at two of Egypt's most significant worker protest movements in the years preceding the 2011 Arab uprisings Through a fine grained analysis of the labor movement at the Misr Spinning and Weaving Company in Al Mahalla Al Kubra and the State Employees Movement of the Real Estate Tax Collectors Labor Against the Regime reveals the pivotal role played by activist leaders in shaping a movement's trajectory Drawing on extensive fieldwork interviews and primary sources Abdalla traces how these movements overcame daunting odds to first take shape achieve socio economic demands and ultimately challenge the Mubarak regime's corporatist control over labor relations The book explores how activist leaders' personal backgrounds careers and embeddedness within movements conditioned their choices ultimately steering protests down different pathways of contestation and institutionalization As one of the first book length studies to comparatively analyze Egypt's labor activism before and after the Arab Spring Labor Against the Regime provides vital insights into the changing relationship between workers social movements and the pre uprising political order

Globalization and the Dilemmas of the State in the South F. Adams, S. Gupta, K. Mengisteab, Timothy M. Shaw, 1999-06-23 Globalization poses a formidable dilemma for the third world state While there are compelling external pressures to liberalize domestic economies market oriented reforms threaten the economic well being of various societal groups Popular resistance to these reforms has been strong throughout the developing world This volume examines the political strategies employed by third world governments to maintain programs in the face of domestic opposition

The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan, Patrick Ukata, 2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria's very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria's socio political evolution and experience by covering broad range of political issues and historical eras The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history political institutions civil society economic and social policy identity and insecurity and Nigeria in a globalized world By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa's most populous country The chapters are interdisciplinary introducing readers to classic debates and key research on Nigeria as well as new methodologies new data and a compelling corpus of research questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa

People Power in an Era of Global Crisis Barry K. Gills, Kevin Gray, 2013-10-31 A quarter of a century has now passed since the historic popular uprising that led to the overthrow of the Ferdinand Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines The mass movement known as the People Power Revolution was not only pivotal to the democratic transition within the Philippines but it also became an inspiration for subsequent mass movements leading to further democratic transitions throughout the Third World and in the former Communist bloc in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union However the neoliberal economic policies subsequently pursued by newly democratic governments throughout the Third World led all but the most celebratory observers to note the constrained and limited nature of these formal political transitions This volume poses the question of the extent to which people power has been able to play an active role resisting neoliberalism and deepen substantive democracy and social justice Through a series of case studies of the regions and individual countries of Asia Africa Latin America and Eastern Europe the contributions in the volume provide a new set of original and in depth critical assessments of the nature of the longer term impact of the democratic transitions commencing in the 1980s and continuing until the present and questioning their impact and potential influence on human dignity freedom justice and self determination and thus opening new avenues of enquiry into the future of democracy This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

The State of Food and Agriculture 1996 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1996

Developmental Pathways to Poverty Reduction Y. Bangura, 2015-06-17 This book looks at developmental pathways to poverty reduction that emphasize employment centred structural change social policies that both protect citizens and contribute to economic development and types of politics that support economic transformation and participation of the poor in growth processes

Labour Regime Change in the Twenty-First Century Tom Brass, 2011-09-09 The object is to assess the validity in the light of current economic development of the epistemology structuring different historical interpretations linking capitalism unfreedom and primitive accumulation Conventional wisdom is that regarding the incompatibility between capitalism and unfreedom an unbroken continuity links Marxism to Adam Smith Malthus Mill and Max Weber Challenging this it is argued Marxism accepts that where class struggle is global capitalist producers employ workers who are unfree The reasons are traced to the conceptualization by Smith of labour as value by Hegel of labour as property and by Marx of labour power as commodity that can be bought sold From this stems the free unfree distinction informing the process of becoming being remaining and acting as a proletariat

Institutions, Innovation and Growth Jean-Philippe Touffut,2003-01-01 The first book in this important new series under the general editorship of Nobel Laureate Robert Solow Institutions Innovation and Growth assembles a stellar cast of international contributors Leading economists join the debate on innovation and economic growth focussing on a broad spectrum of issues ranging from labour markets to corporate governance Growth paths within the OECD are also assessed with particular emphasis on contrasts between US and European models The book seeks to identify those institutional factors taking into account different national trajectories which might serve to promote economic growth in Europe

Zimbabwe@40 Lloyd Sachikonye,David Kaulemu,2021-05-17 Zimbabwe 40 is a celebration of the country s four decades of independence and statehood Forty years is a relatively short period in a nation s life but it is a formative period what lessons can be learnt from the successes and failures challenges and opportunities of the last 40 years What should be avoided in the next 40 Lloyd Sachikonye and David Kaulemu have assembled a distinguished team of scholars to address these questions and the book focuses on issues that characterise the country's development trajectory: the linkage between values and institutions, defects in its democracy, the curse of mineral and agricultural endowment, the impact of migration and the social exclusion of women and young people. The book is written from a depth of commitment to a just, peaceful and prosperous Zimbabwe and represents a work in progress reflecting the continuing research, evaluation and dialogue that each of the authors is engaged in and signalling the nature and direction of future such work. As the editors conclude: 'None of the chapters are pessimistic nor are they negative about the country. They are realistic about the gravity of the historical moment the nation faces and the high moral, political and economic mountains we must climb before we can see the Promised Land. Yet they are full of hope; they are convinced that we have not come to the end of history.' Trade Unions and the Coming of Democracy in Africa J. Kraus, 2007-12-09. In this book, top scholars look at the efficacy of trade union and worker protest in overthrowing authoritarian governments in Africa. The analytical introduction and case studies from major African countries argue that unions were often the most important single social force in the democratization process. Two Countries One Dream Rok Ajulu, 2009. Migration and Agriculture Alessandra Corrado, Carlos de Castro, Domenico Perrotta, 2016-07-28. In recent years, Mediterranean agriculture has experienced important transformations which have led to new forms of labour and production and in particular to a surge in the recruitment of migrant labour. The Mediterranean Basin represents a very interesting arena that is able to illustrate labour conditions and mobility, the competition among different farming models and the consequences in terms of the proletarianization process, food crisis and diet changes. Migration and Agriculture brings together international contributors from across several disciplines to describe and analyse labour conditions and international migrations in relation to agri-food restructuring processes. This unique collection of articles connects migration issues with the proletarianization process and agrarian transitions that have affected Southern European as well as some Middle Eastern and Northern African countries in different ways. The chapters present case studies from a range of territories in the Mediterranean Basin, offering empirical data and theoretical analysis in order to grasp the complexity of the processes that are occurring. This book offers a uniquely comprehensive overview of migrations, territories and agro-food production in this key region and will be an indispensable resource to scholars in migration studies, rural sociology, social geography and the political economy of agriculture. Regime Change in Turkey Errol Babacan, Melehat Kutun, Ezgi Pinar, Zafer Yilmaz, 2021-03-23. Turkey's new presidential regime, promoted and shaped by the Justice and Development Party (AKP), has become a global template for rising authoritarianism. Its violence intensifies the exigency for critical analysis. By focusing on neoliberal authoritarian, hegemonic and Islamist aspects, this book sheds light on long-term dynamics that resulted in the regime transformation. It presents a comprehensive study at a time when rising authoritarianism challenges liberal democracies on a global scale. Reaching from critical political economy and state theory to media, gender and cultural studies, this volume covers a range of studies that transcend disciplinary boundaries. These essays challenge the narrative of an authoritarian turn that splits the AKP era into democratic and authoritarian periods Hence recent transformation is analyzed in a broad historical framework which is sensitive to both continuities and shifts Studies that explore moments of resistance and relate the political development in Turkey to rising authoritarianism and the crisis driven trajectory of neoliberalism on a global scale are included in this effort Since the advancement of neoliberal policies in conjunction with the religious project that is pushed forward by the AKP suggests that the ongoing transformation may well advance into a more totalitarian regime this book strives to inform struggles that are trying to resist and reverse this development By reviewing the dynamics and impacts of recent authoritarian developments it calls on critical scholars to further seek out potentials and dynamics of opposition in the current authoritarian era

Labor Income Share in Asia Gary Fields, Saumik Paul, 2019-08-09 This is the first study that puts together a comprehensive and in depth analysis of the drivers of the labor income share across a number of countries in Asia This book provides an insightful companion to the study of labor income shares that plays a vital role in understanding the relationship between national income and personal income and the relationship between wage inequality and wealth inequality The timing of the book is ideal as the ongoing debate over a global decline in the labor income share is far from settled To this extent evidence from the Asian countries is mixed The labor income share in some Asian countries has been rising since the 1990s The purpose of this edited volume is to gain more insights on the potential drivers of the Asian experience The first half of the book pays attention to the measurement problems related to the earnings of self employed and workers in the informal sector Then it puts together country case studies examining a wide range of factors driving the labor income share in Asia
