Peter Docherty, Tim White

Jock McFadyen Looking Out To Sea:

Jock McFadyen David Cohen, 2001 This is the first survey of the work of painter Jock McFadyen McFadyen describes himself as a realist and his intense paintings describe the urban backdrop Human figures used to be central to these works but having made pictures about London New York Berlin and Belfast the locations have in many ways become the subject In these monumental paintings the central characters of his early work are replaced by commercial buildings walkways vomitories and the natural landscape Although never part of any group or movement McFadyen sees his main precedent as the line of British realism which includes Sickert L S Lowry the so called School of London and younger contemporaries such as Richard Billingham He is close to the debate about painting and its relationship to contemporary art practice He is also interested in those who have parallel concerns in other media This book places the artist not simply within the recent history of British art but also within the wider context of realism in film the contemporary novel and music from Hogarth to Punk and beyond

Scottish Art in the 20th Century, 1890-2001 Duncan Macmillan, 2001 This new edition brings the story right up to date and includes a number of talented young artists who have emerged in the last few years It follows the success of the author's Scottish Art 1460 2000 which was awarded the Saltire Society Scotsman Prize for Scottish Book of the Year in 1990 and was described as definitive by Maria Vaizey in the Sunday Times Scottish Art in the 20th Century won a Scottish Arts Council Book Award when first published
