John Hoover Art And Life:

John Hoover Julie Decker, 2002 John Hoover Art and Life featuring colour reproductions of works from museums and private collections all over the world is a retrospective look at the life and career of one of Alaska's most significant artists John Hoover grew up in Cordova Alaska in an era when it was an international city and one of the richest ports in the West Born in 1919 to a Dutch father and Aleut Russian mother Hoover has worked as a fisherman taxi driver drummer and sailor and throughout he has been an artist The ancient Indians Eskimos and Aleuts and the spirits that guided them still guide Hoover today It is their stories as well as his own that he brings alive in his cedar carvings Now in his eighties Hoover continues to create small and large scale sculptures in cedar and bronze He was one of the first to successfully bridge the gap between traditional and contemporary art and he has spent a lifetime mastering his craft breaking new ground and reviving ancient cultures In each of his roles as Aleut artist musician fisherman and storyteller he has striven to exemplify dedication perseverance and perfection Contemporary Art of Alaska Julie Decker, 2002 The author's Project demonstrating excellence combines the three fields of contemporary art history criticism and management and is derived from two projects called Found assembled in Alaska and John Hoover art life Found assembled in Alaska concerns an exhibition of found object art made in Alaska and an accompanying catalog publication The contemporary artists were interviewed and biographical profiles were developed The project John Hoover art life involved development of a publication and traveling exhibition for John Hoover an acclaimed Alaska Native artist whose work in cedar carving is based on Aleut and Indian myths Alaska History Marvin W. Falk, 2006-03-30 Marvin W Falk offers a systemic and select listing of just over 3 000 publications on the history of Alaska published from the 18th century to early 2004 Early explorations were conducted by nationals from several nations and the results were published in Russian German French Spanish and English Many of these foreign language accounts have been published in translation and are included in the bibliography This bibliography covers a wide span of Alaskan history including historical literature from Discovery in 1741 The Russian period ending in 1867 The U S territorial period ending with statehood in 1959 The oil boom The Blind Man and the Loon Craig Mishler, 2013-05-01 The story of the Blind Man and the Loon is a living Native folktale about a blind man who is betrayed by his mother or wife but whose vision is magically restored by a kind loon Variations of this tale are told by Native storytellers all across Alaska arctic Canada Greenland the Northwest Coast and even into the Great Basin and the Great Plains As the story has traveled through cultures and ecosystems over many centuries individual storytellers have added cultural and local ecological details to the tale creating countless variations In The Blind Man and the Loon The Story of a Tale folklorist Craig Mishler goes back to 1827 tracing the story's emergence across Greenland and North America in manuscripts books and in the visual arts and other media such as film music and dance theater Examining and comparing the story's variants and permutations across cultures in detail Mishler brings the individual storyteller into his analysis of how the tale changed over time considering how storytellers and the oral tradition function within various societies Two maps unequivocally demonstrate the routes the story has traveled The result is a masterful compilation and analysis of Native oral traditions that sheds light on how folktales spread and are adapted by widely diverse cultures John Steuart Curry's Hoover and the Flood Charles C.

Eldredge,2007 In 1940 John Steuart Curry painted a scene of Herbert Hoover directing relief efforts after the Mississippi River flood of 1927 as part of a series of paintings depicting modern American history commissioned by Life magazine In this in depth case Modern North Julie Decker,2010-03-31 The Geographic Region Around the North Pole is a Raw and Exotic

Area of Untouched Nature and Inescapable Beauty Building in this extremely cold climate requires an advanced degree of ingenuity and resolve Ecological conditions including high winds snowdrifts and permafrost combined with periods of little sunlight present seemingly impossible logistical hurdles for architects Vernacular buildings have emerged but like most indigenous structures they do little more than simply enclose and protect Recent years have witnessed an explosion of exceptional new architecture and a new definition of a Northern building one that is both extraordinarily responsive to place and aesthetically provocative In Modern North Architecture on the Frozen Edge author Julie Decker presents thirty four of the most compelling and far ranging possibilities of contemporary architecture in the North These buildings located in northern Canada Scandinavia and Alaska are united in the way they embrace extreme conditions and provide visual stimulation in places that sometimes offer little more than a whitescape The book contains innovative structures by both established and up and coming architects including David Chipperfield Architects Studio Granda and Shim Sutcliffe Architects as well as essays by Brian Carter Juhani Pallasmaa Edwin Crittenden and Lisa Rochon that place the projects in the context of a new architectural response to the North BOOK JACKET Alaska Native Art Susan W. Fair,2006 The rich artistic traditions of Alaska Natives are the subject of this landmark volume which examines the work of the premier Alaska artists of the twentieth century Ranging across the state from the islands of the Bering Sea to the interior forests Alaska Native Art provides a living context for beadwork and ivory carving basketry and skin sewing Examples of work from Tlingit Aleutian Islanders Pacific Eskimo Athabaskan Yupik and Inupiaq artists make this volume the most comprehensive study of Alaskan art ever published Alaska Native Art examines the concept of tradition in the modern world Alaska Native Art is a volume to treasure a tribute to the incredible vision of Alaska s artists and to the enduring traditions of all of Alaska s Native peoples Quonset Hut Julie Decker,Chris Chiei,2005-10-06 An unexpected architectural phenomenon something like a halved tin can turned on its side swept across the American landscape after World War II the Quonset hut Originally designed during the war for use as makeshift housing for soldiers and their families around the world the seemingly ubiquitous Quonset hut housed a rapidly expanding nation in the 1940s and 1950s both at work and at play From recording studios a Quonset was responsible for the birth of the Nashville sound To the 1948 congressional campaign headquarters of Gerald Ford to an endless variety of incarnations including bars movie theaters classrooms supermarkets restaurants and houses of worship the Quonset hut was the shape of a nation in need of affordable easy to build shelter Quonset Hut Metal Living for a Modern Age is a fascinating look at a surprising architectural sensation and offers a refreshing revealing and untold story of a true American icon American Craft ,2003 American Indian Art Magazine ,2003

Framing the Audience Isadora Helfgott,2015-10-15 Framing the Audience explores the cultural politics of the Great Depression and World War II through the prism of art appreciation Isadora Helfgott interrogates the ideological and political motivations for breaking down barriers between fine art and popular culture She charts the impact that changes in art appreciation had on the broader political social cultural and artistic landscape Framing the Audience argues that efforts to expand the social basis of art became intertwined with and helped shape broader debates about national identity and the future of American political economy Helfgott chronicles artists efforts to influence the conditions of artistic production and display She highlights the influence of the Federal Art Project the impact of the Museum of Modern Art as an institutional home for modernism in America and as an organizer of traveling exhibitions and the efforts by LIFE and Fortune magazines to integrate art education into their visual record of modern life In doing so Helfgott makes critical observations about the changing relationship between art and the American public

John Steuart Curry Patricia A. Junker,1998 John Steuart Curry Inventing the Middle West is the first comprehensive study in more than fifty years of this member of the great triumvirate of American Regionalists Thomas Hart Benton Curry and Grant Wood It revives the reputation of one of the most important and controversial artists of the first half of the twentieth century whose paintings of farm life in his native Kansas including baptisms and tornados of the circus of American history and of the American scene in general were dramatically eclipsed by the ascendancy of abstract art and the New York School at midcentury 68 colour 114 b w illustrations Book Review Index ,2004 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation

Collision Pete Gershon,2018-09-10 Winner 2019 Ron Tyler Award for Best Illustrated Book sponsored by the Texas State Historical Association TSHA In this expansive and vigorous survey of the Houston art scene of the 1970s and 1980s author Pete Gershon describes the city s emergence as a locus for the arts fueled by a boom in oil prices and by the arrival of several catalyzing figures including museum director James Harithas and sculptor James Surls Harithas was a fierce champion for Texan artists during his tenure as the director of the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston CAM He put Texas artists on the map but his renegade style proved too confrontational for the museum s benefactors and after four years he wore out his welcome After Harithas s departure from the CAM the chainsaw wielding Surls established the Lawndale Annex as a largely unsupervised outpost of the University of Houston art department Inside this dirty cavernous warehouse a new generation of Houston artists discovered their identities and began to flourish Both the CAM and the Lawndale Annex set the scene for the emergence of small downtown artist run spaces including Studio One the Center for Art and Performance Midtown Arts Center and DiverseWorks Finally in 1985 the Museum of Fine Arts presented Fresh Paint The Houston School a nationally publicized survey of work by Houston painters The exhibition capped an era of intensive artistic development and suggested that the city was about to be recognized along with New York and Los Angeles as a major center for art making activity Drawing upon primary archival materials contemporary newspaper and magazine accounts and over sixty interviews with significant figures Gershon presents a narrative that preserves and interweaves the stories and insights of those who transformed the Houston art scene into the vibrant community that it is today
