Ethnic Entrepreneurship Structure And Process:

Ethnic Entrepreneurship Curt H. Stiles, Craig S. Galbraith, 2003-12-04 Fourth in the series International Research in the Business Disciplines the papers in this volume provide a survey of the nature and scope of entrepreneurship within ethnic groups The contributors address the role of ethnic entrepreneurship in shaping the structure of modern economies

Immigrant Entrepreneurship, Religion, and Ethnicity Clara Margaça, Andreas Walmsley, Helena Knörr, 2025-06-20 International migration is a growing phenomenon in the 21st century and is increasingly seen as a high priority public policy issue by many governments politicians and the broader public throughout the world Its importance to economic prosperity human development and safety and security ensures that it will remain a top priority for the foreseeable future This book highlights the importance of ensuring that we remain focused on the successes of migration as well as the challenges At the end of the 20th century more importance was given to immigrant and ethnic minority entrepreneurship due to its positive impact on local economic growth and overall economic development in the hosting nations In the 21st century the imperative of the United Nations 2030 agenda involves a deeper understanding of the complex challenges for the achievement of sustainable goals One of these challenges is to understand how migrant entrepreneurs may or may not identify with their ethnic community therefore dissociating themselves from their ethnic group In this sense religion and ethnicity are differentiating factors between social groups and the relationships allow preserving their culture and establishing relationships and integration in the community at all levels This edited volume brings together impactful contributions that will interest multidisciplinary academic areas and aims to contribute to the enhancement of scientific knowledge on the intersection of entrepreneurship migration ethnicity and religion a gap in the existing literature that has the potential to provide a deeper understanding of factors that influence migrant populations contribution to socio economic development in their communities This book will be an invaluable resource to researchers and scholars in the fields of immigration immigrant entrepreneurship entrepreneurial culture and economic development

The Routledge Companion to Business in Africa Sonny Nwankwo, Kevin Ibeh, 2014-07-25 Although the world's poorest inhabited continent Africa has recently shown signs of being a source of economic growth in the coming decades with increased foreign investment notably from China and huge growth in GDP from a number of African states In contrast to the heaving weight of books focusing on business opportunities in Asia Eastern Europe and Latin America Africa has been poorly served by academic publishing This compendium of scholarship offers cutting edge knowledge relating to business in Africa The objectives of this collection include To shed new light on the socio cultural and historical underpinnings of business practice in Africa and their implications for promoting entrepreneurship and business behaviour in the region To consider the important constraints on business activities in Africa and the emerging best practice for redressing their real and potential impacts To facilitate a better understanding of contemporary business practice in Africa through the application of relevant theories and models including emergent ones The Routledge Companion to Business in Africa is a comprehensive reference resource that provides the perfect platform for embarking on research and study into Africa from the business perspective Navigating Multiculturalism Dawn Zinga,2021-04-16 This provocative volume explores multiculturalism from different disciplinary perspectives as well as examining the associated issues from the perspectives of various countries It considers how multiculturalism has been defined and the various meanings that the term holds while also focusing on the realities faced in different societal contexts The authors address difficult and at times divisive questions about race ethnicity and identity This collection challenges readers to examine their own perceptions of multiculturalism and to consider how the perspectives in this volume can inform their thinking By examining the issues from different perspectives the authors have encouraged individuals to consider how to navigate multiculturalism and negotiate change Handbook of Research on Entrepreneurial Success and its Impact on Regional Development Carvalho, Luísa,2015-11-24 Minorities in Entrepreneurship Glenice J. Wood,M. J. Davidson,Sandra L. Fielden,2012-01-01 In their powerful presentation of Minorities in Entrepreneurship the authors go beyond the traditional definitions of entrepreneurship to enhance our understanding of minority groups whether they be younger older women ethnic immigrant LGB disabled or indigenous The book provides a new perspective on the driving forces in becoming a business owner and the push and pull factors within and across groups Enhanced by in depth case studies of members in each group the study is a valuable contribution to the understanding of all venture owners a rich reference source for scholars and a worthwhile book of readings for students in the fields of entrepreneurship and gender and diversity Dorothy Perrin Moore The Citadel in Charleston South Carolina US There are books on minorities and there are books on entrepreneurship but there are no books combining the two and amongst a wide range of minorities in society This truly is a novel and innovative work and should be essential reading for all interested this topic Cary L Cooper CBE Lancaster University Management School UK Although there is an expanding body of literature on the characteristics aspirations motivations challenges and barriers of mainstream entrepreneurs relatively little is known about whether these findings can be applied to the entrepreneurial activities of minority groups This book addresses this short fall and presents an international review of the characteristics motivations and obstacles of eight minority groups younger older women ethnic immigrant lesbian gay and bisexual disabled and indigenous entrepreneurs The expert contributors discover enormous variability between these minority groups such as in the motivators that either pushed or pulled individuals into an entrepreneurial venture as well as diverse attitudes toward success some groups wanted to achieve financial security others wanted to enhance their sense of self worth or to change existing social and economic circumstances However some striking similarities were noted initial disadvantage often created a powerful impetus to starting up a business venture and accessing finance was extremely difficult for many Including comparative cross cultural data and case studies on the various minority groups reviewed both post graduate students and undergraduate students studying entrepreneurship will find this book an invaluable resource In addition it will also be of interest to policy makers governments and all those who wish to comprehend the nature of small business ownership for a wide range of minority business owners

Immigration and Entrepreneurship in the Americas Clara Margaça,Andreas Walmsley,Helena Knörr,2025-06-20

Migration in the Americas continues unabated Seeking to improve understanding of the complexity of this phenomenon this book presents different approaches that are at the root of an immigrant entrepreneur s decision making and the implementation of entrepreneurial activity in North and South America The cases presented provide a knowledge base upon which policymakers government agencies and the like can draw providing a basis for comparison for other countries regarding how and why immigrants decide to become entrepreneurs the challenges they face and the contributions they make In this sense the book presents an overview of immigrant entrepreneurship in the Americas The studies presented include the cultural ethnic and religious backgrounds behind the reasons for starting a business in the host community as well as the factors that influence the choice of business area Furthermore it explores how this type of entrepreneur contributes to local and sustainable and economic development and will deepen the understanding of immigrants triggers for emigrating and for engaging in entrepreneurship in the host society Based on the studies presented it will offer guidelines regarding policies to support immigrant entrepreneurs as well as to outline future research avenues This book will be an invaluable resource to researchers and scholars in the fields of immigration immigrant entrepreneurship entrepreneurial culture and economic development Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Business Clusters Panos G.

Piperopoulos,2016-04-29 In Entrepreneurship Innovation and Business Clusters Panos Piperopoulos provides a comprehensive introduction to what entrepreneurship is all about how and why entrepreneurs innovate and how innovation systems operate Small and medium enterprises SMEs constitute the backbone of most economies so the author examines their characteristics and the crucial role played by the owners and entrepreneurs who innovate to ensure the survival and continued growth of their firms He also includes the particular phenomena that arise where the entrepreneurs are either female or from ethnic groups or where the context is that of a developing region or country The importance of co operative strategic alliances and networks between firms is discussed along with how these strengthen SMEs competitiveness The concept of open innovation has been proposed as a new paradigm for the management of innovation and the author presents a hypothetical model for enhancing the competitiveness and performance of SMEs by properly utilizing employees creative potential emotional intelligence tacit knowledge and innovative ideas The contemporary model of business clusters involving partnerships with competitors agents universities research centres and local regional and national governments is discussed The ways means and methods through which SMEs competitiveness and innovation can be enhanced within business clusters is illustrated by cases that identify four types of SMEs that behave differently and play different roles in the networks and clusters of which they form a part but all of whose performance and competitiveness is a function of their position and role in the wider scheme of things Entrepreneurship and Religion Léo-Paul Dana, 2010-01-01 I wish this book had been around when I tried to teach about entrepreneurship in its social context life would have been much easier with these informed sources Alistair R Anderson Aberdeen Business School UK This rich and detailed book makes a very timely contribution to extending our understanding of entrepreneurship in its social context Using selected examples the respected contributors show how the values developed in religious beliefs and practices shape entrepreneurship For too long the entrepreneur has been characterized as an isolated economically driven individual thus ignoring how enterprise and entrepreneurs are products of their society their culture and their religion This innovative book discusses both entrepreneurship and religion as well as indicating how the synthesis of beliefs and practices combine in entrepreneurial endeavours It provides a conceptually useful way of framing the individualistic entrepreneur in his or her social and cultural context demonstrating how entrepreneurial agency operates within and through a variety of religious contexts Illustrated with original photographs this captivating book will be warmly welcomed by students and researchers with interests in entrepreneurship sociology religion and cultural studies Government policy makers in immigration will also find this book an invaluable read Global Migration, Entrepreneurship and Society Natalia Vershinina, Peter Rodgers, Mirela

Xheneti, Jan Brzozowski, Paul Lassalle, 2021-08-16 Global Migration Entrepreneurship and Society seeks to develop a much needed theoretical and policy related set of writings that can cast light on the workings and complexities of processes of global migration entrepreneurship and societal integration The Palgrave Handbook of Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Entrepreneurship Romeo V. Turcan, Norman M. Fraser, 2018-08-24 Departing from the traditional approach of surveying current and future trends and developments this unique Handbook brings phenomena theories and concepts from multiple disciplines together to advance entrepreneurship With original contributions from authors who are experts in their fields the collection offers state of the art insights into generating new areas for research new theories and concepts and new questions for policy debates all aimed at advancing entrepreneurship Divided into four sections and covering perspectives such as neuroscience theology organisational behavior and education The Palgrave Handbook of Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Entrepreneurship is a rich source of information for researchers educators entrepreneurs leaders and managers Intersectionality and Ethnic Entrepreneurship Zulema Valdez, Mary Romero, 2018-10-18

Intersectionality and Ethnic Entrepreneurship brings together a group of eminent and up and coming young scholars who apply an intersectional perspective to the study of ethnic entrepreneurship Against the traditional approach's emphasis on ethnicity and its primacy which tends to conflate ethnicity with other social groupings i.e. social class considers their effect as an additive or secondary consequence only i.e. gender or ignores their influence altogether i.e. race the studies in this volume recognize that multiple dimensions of identity intermix to condition entrepreneurial outcomes Starting with the premise that systems of oppression and privilege specifically capitalism patriarchy and white supremacy are endemic to the American social structure the works in this volume recognize that these interlocking systems of inequality condition the life chances of entrepreneurs from diverse social locations differently even among members of the same ethnic group This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Open for Business Migrant Entrepreneurship in OECD Countries OECD,2010-11-29 Taking a cross country perspective this publication sheds light on migrant entrepreneurship discussing policy options to foster the development and success of migrant businesses Transnational and Immigrant Entrepreneurship in a Globalized World Barbara Anne Carmichael,Israel Drori,Benson Honig,2010-01-01 Transnational and Immigrant Entrepreneurship in a Globalized World brings together leading international scholars from a cross disciplinary basis to examine the economic social regulatory technological and theoretical issues related to the impact of transnational entrepreneurs on business and economic development Entrepreneurship in Context Marco van Gelderen,Enno Masurel,2012-03-15 Much research in entrepreneurship presents results as if they are universally and timelessly valid Entrepreneurship in Context takes the opposite tack it studies entrepreneurship as a context bound phenomenon For entrepreneurship the importance of context goes beyond gaining understanding and avoiding mistakes The reciprocal influence exercised by the entrepreneurial venture and its corresponding context is at the very heart of the entrepreneur as an agent of change The book addresses context in a narrow sense i e a person s life situation and local situational characteristics It also deals with wider contexts such as social industry cultural ethnic sustainability related institutional and historical contexts The book studies the interconnectedness of all these various sub contexts It zooms in on the actions that entrepreneurs take to involve engage and influence their context and shows the changing and dynamic nature of context It provides lessons for entrepreneurs about which contextual elements should be prioritized engaged and sought out Entrepreneurship and Family Business Jerome A. Katz,G. Thomas Lumpkin,Alex Stewart,2010-06-23 Deals with the issue of entrepreneurship and family business This title considers the issues problems contexts or processes that make a family firm more entrepreneurial It covers topics such as the emergence and growth of family businesses and the use of entrepreneurial policies practices and strategies by family firms The International Dimension of Entrepreneurial Decision-Making Andrea Caputo,Massimiliano M. Pellegrini,Marina Dabić,Léo-Paul Dana,2022-01-03 This book focuses on understanding the international behaviours of SMEs entrepreneurial ventures and entrepreneurs The collection of contributions gathered in the book highlights the importance of cultures contexts and behaviours that pertain to the international entrepreneurship arena The respective chapters address topics such as entrepreneurial cognition international entrepreneurial ecosystems innovation international market entry decisions family SMEs international human resources management cross cultural and indigenous entrepreneurship social capital and sustainability in international markets All contributions are based on the latest empirical and theoretical research and provide key findings and concrete recommendations for scholars entrepreneurs organizations and policy makers The Oxford Handbook of Diversity in

Organizations Regine Bendl, Inge Bleijenbergh, Elina Henttonen, Albert J. Mills, 2015 Description of the foundations of organizing and managing diversities and multidisciplinary intersectional and critical analyses on key issues Indigenous People and Economic Development Katia Iankova, Azizul Hassan, Rachel L'Abbe, 2016-03-22 Indigenous peoples are an intrinsic part of countries like Australia New Zealand Canada Finland USA India Russia and almost all parts of South America and Africa A considerable amount of research has been done during the twentieth century mainly by anthropologists sociologists and linguists in order to describe and document their traditional life style for the protection and safeguarding of their established knowledge skills languages and beliefs These communities are engaging and adapting rapidly to the changing circumstances partly caused by post modernisation and the process of globalization These have led them to aspire to better living standards as well as preserving their uniqueness approaches to environment close proximity to social structures and communities For at least the last two decades patterns of increased economic activity by indigenous peoples in many countries have been viewed to be significantly on the rise Indigenous People and Economic Development reveals some of the characteristics of this economic activity coloured by the unique regard and philosophy of life that indigenous people around the world have The successes difficulties and obstacles to economic development their solutions and innovative practices in business all of these elements based on research findings are discussed in this book and offer an inside view of the dynamics of the indigenous societies which are evolving in a globalised and highly interconnected contemporary world Public Policy and Ethnicity Roger Openshaw, 2006-10-10 Has ethnicity become institutionalized as a political category Drawing on international studies including New Zealand the book shows that this process of public policymaking creates artificial divisions that can become permanent and detrimental as well as being at odds with the social fluidity of modern societies Preface by Jonathan Friedman
