Etoro Social Structure:

Etoro Social Structure Raymond Case Kelly, 1977      Structure and Process in a Melanesian Society A.H. Carrier, J.G. Carrier, 2012-10-12 First Published in 1991 In the 1980s many anthropologists rejected the classic concern with the structure and logic of social organisation and embraced instead a concern with process with the fluidity of events and individual strategy Through its analysis of a Melanesian society and the ways it has changed in the twentieth century this book addresses the relationship between the classic structural approach and the more recent processual one The society analysed is Ponam located on a small island in Papua New Guinea The book describes Ponam kinship and ceremonial exchange and so compliments the authors analysis of Onam economic organisation in Wage Tarde and Exchange in Melanesia Like its companion volume this book locates Ponam in its broader social political and economic environment      The Social Construction of Communities Mark D. Varien, James M. Potter, 2008-08-15 The Social Construction of Communities examines formation of ancient communities in the Southwest focusing especially on the fundamental theoretical concepts of structure agency and identity construction      Mountain Papuans James F. Weiner, 1988 Studies the Daribi Foi and Etoro societies of the southern New Guinea Fringe Highlands      Quadripartite Structures Mark S. Mosko, 1985-06-30 This book was the first detailed comprehensive study of Bush Mekeo culture and society      Etoro Social Structure: a Study in Structural Contradiction Raymond Case Kelly, 1973      Warless Societies and the Origin of War Raymond Case Kelly, 2000 A concise study using archeological and ethnographic evidence to refute current theories about the origin of war      Oceanic Socialities and Cultural Forms Ingjerd Hoëm, Sidsel Roalkvam, 2003-02-01 In anthropology theoretical approaches attempting to come to terms with experiences of social interaction often inspired by phenomenology have come to the fore in opposition to the previously favored emphasis on symbolic and social structures These essays attempt a new kind of ethnographic description of social life that treats structure and practice as aspects of the same reality This is achieved through attention to indigenous conceptualizations of the way society itself is generated With Jonathan Friedman and Fredrik Barth providing overviews this series of innovative ethnographies highlights ways of forming social relations specific to Oceania as a cultural area exemplifying a new kind of comparative approach and making a major contribution to general social theory      The Versatility of Kinship Linda S Cordell, Stephen Beckerman, 2014-05-12 Studies in Anthropology The Versatility of Kinship focuses on the dynamics involved in the special class of interpersonal ties that bind individuals to others The selection first offers information on the variant usage in American kinship uses of kinship in Kwaio Solomon Islands and incest and kinship structure Discussions focus on incest categories in Cachama and Mamo childhood bonds and adult residence kinship with the dead kinship social identities and behavior and models of relatedness The text then explores the biological linguistic and cultural aspects of the Hopi Tewa system of mating in First Mesa Arizona and the Navajo exogamic rules and preferred marriages The publication ponders on the Kpelle negotiation of marriage and matrilateral ties and kinship and descent in the ethnic reassertion of the Eastern Creek Indians Topics include social and cultural history genealogy as social instrument crystallization of the Eastern Creek community Kpelle marriage and matrilineal ties ethnographic background and the negotiation of marriage and matrilineal ties The selection is a valuable reference for anthropologists sociologists and readers interested in the dynamics of kinship      Relative Values Sarah Franklin, Susan McKinnon, 2002-02-22 A collection of essays that redefine and transform the field of kinship      Ploughshare Village Stevan Harrell, 2014-11-01 This anthropological study of a workers village in North Taiwan makes an important contribution to the comparative literature on Chinese and Taiwanese social organization Based on fieldwork conducted in 1973 and 1978 the study is exceptional not only because of its excellent data but also because the village itself was unique Unlike villages previously studied and written about Ploughshare was neither an agricultural nor a fishing village but rather one whose inhabitants earned their living mostly from coal mining knitting and other non agrarian activities Culture and environmental context thus shaped social organization there differently than in other Taiwanese villages This ethnography links local data to surrounding socioeconomic spheres it shows the village s relationship to its region to Taiwan as a whole and to the international economy It also captures an important point in time as Taiwan was undergoing the economic miracle that brought it into the ranks of developed countries Stevan Harrell s new preface highlights changes not only in the village over the last several decades but also in the ways that anthropologists think about culture and Taiwan Ploughshare Village with its rich descriptions and analyses will be of value to anthropologists sociologists economists and China specialists

Campsteading Derek Brereton, 2017-09-25 The campstead is an American institution After the Civil War with neo colonialism environmentalism and arts and crafts on the rise some families sought rural locations for rustic camps There they raised their children in the summertime Around Squam Lake after some eight generations twenty one such camps remain in these families The Squam area thus becomes a natural place to study relationships of persons and places families and landscape and humans and the world Our present concerns for environmental stewardship open space protection and core values instead of consumerism make this a good time to revisit the simple American Campstead Rustic camping itself revisited aspects of the American frontier Just as the western frontier was disappearing some families resorted to remnants of the first frontier among mountains and lakes of the Northeast Through campsteads these families preserved elements of the frontier ethos Campsteads facilitate particular experiences involving nature and family Brereton investigates campstead experience and through it the nature of human experience generally This book is the first detailed account of campsteading the first application of critical realism in anthropology and the first anthropological use of John Dewey s evolutionary model of experience Building on Dewey the author further analyses experience into its levels orders and features      Ku Waru Francesca Merlan, Alan Rumsey, 1991-03-29 The highlanders of New Guinea are renowned for their elaborate systems of ceremonial exchange Although much has been written about them previous accounts have concentrated far less on the conduct of exchange events than on the structure of exchange systems This 1991 book deals centrally with the conduct of particular exchange events and shows through examination of them how larger social structures are reproduced and transformed As part of the emphasis on exchange as social action the book closely examines the oratory that plays a crucial part in the events Basing their study on original fieldwork carried out in the Nebilyer Valley Francesca Merlan and Alan Rumsey focus on an inter related set of large scale compensation payments which arose out of an episode of warfare This book furthers our understanding of the interaction between social structures and historical events and particularly of the crucial role of talk It will be of special interest to anthropologists and linguists Cultural Anthropology Jack David Eller, 2016-01-08 Cultural Anthropology Global Forces Local Lives presents all the key areas of cultural anthropology as well as providing original and nuanced coverage of current and cutting edge topics An exceptionally clear and readable introduction it helps students understand the application of anthropological concepts to the contemporary world and everyday life Thorough treatment is given throughout the text to issues such as globalization colonialism ethnicity nationalism neoliberalism and the state Changes for the third edition include a brand new chapter on medical anthropology and an updated range of cases studies with a fresh thematic focus on China The book contains a number of features to support student learning including A wealth of color images Definitions of key terms and further reading suggestions in the margins Summaries at the end of every chapter An extensive glossary bibliography and index Stains on My Name, War in My Veins Brackette F. Williams, 1991-04-12 Burdened with a heritage of both Spanish and British colonization and imperialism Guyana is today caught between its colonial past its efforts to achieve the consciousness of nationhood and the need of its diverse subgroups to maintain their own identity Stains on My Name War in My Veins chronicles the complex struggles of the citizens of Guyana to form a unified national culture against the pulls of ethnic religious and class identities Drawing on oral histories and a close study of daily life in rural Guyana Brackette E Williams examines how and why individuals and groups in their quest for recognition as a nation reproduce ethnic chauvinism racial stereotyping and religious bigotry By placing her ethnographic study in a broader historical context the author develops a theoretical understanding of the relations among various dimensions of personal identity in the process of nation building Like People You See in a Dream Edward L. Schieffelin, Robert Crittenden, 1991 This book is at once a detailed ethnographic and historical analysis of one of the final modern day experiences of first culture contact a classic example of historical geography and an extraordinary tale of exploration imperialist arrogance blood shed suffering courage and near disaster By the 1930 s the interior of the island of New Guinea protected from outside penetration over the centuries by its rugged mountains and unruly rivers remained one of the few places outsiders had never seen In early January of 1935 the Papuan colonial administration dispatched patrol officers including 40 Papuan carriers and police to explore the vast unknown country between the Strickland and Purari rivers The expedition moved inland along the river systems by steam launch and canoe until in mid February they abandoned their boats and proceeded on foot through the tropical forest and into the mountains Along the way the party encountered hitherto unsuspected populations peoples of six tribes numbering in the tens of thousands who had never before seen white men and who were still using Stone Age tools Catalog of Copyright Entries.

Announcements in the 1970s and 1980s of the death of kinship and descent as subjects of anthropological study were highly premature These subjects continue routinely to be encountered in the course of empirical ethnographic research and to be reported upon in ethnographies or they are ignored at the peril of ethnographers pathetically unprepared to deal with them Moreover considerable evidence has accumulated that systems of social relations built on relations of genealogical connection exhibit a remarkable degree of orderliness about which it is possible already to make a number of substantial empirical generalizations especially about the qualities of social relations within and between groups As the masters of the subject always stressed kinship and political and jural organization are closely interdependent structures In this wide ranging theoretical and comparative ethnographic study Harold Scheffler demonstrates that there is a simple reason why detection of this order has been too long delayed and has given rise to more destructive than to constructive debate in social anthropology

Reclaiming Sodom Jonathan Goldberg,2024-12-15 Within the Judeo Christian tradition Sodom and Gomorrah represent locales in which threats to national formation are couched in sexual terms The biblical narrative insists on a particular social invisibility for those sexual activities not blessed by the bonds of matrimony Reclaiming Sodom surveys a number of institutions that have had an interest in perpetuating these views the police the state the church and the law The collection ranges through biblical scholarship an investigation of the Founding Fathers beliefs the legal mobilization towards the category of sodomy in 18th and 19th century England and the US Supreme Court s 1986 Bowers vs Hardwick decision Analysis is provided of the ways in which the Judeo Christian tradition has shaped anthropological accounts of the same sex practices of non Western people as well as essays on how colonial gestures have marked lesbian identity in the Carribean and deformed narratives about the racial geography of AIDS Reclaiming Sodom explores alternatives to the force of the Sodomitic biblical narrative in Islamic non western and western traditions and discusses the ways in which sodomy calls into question normative definitions of sexuality and gender The collection pursues the pleasures and dangers of these alternatives and takes on Proust s refusal to imagine a social movement founded on the stigma of Sodom The collection examines the relations between sex gender identities and sexual acts in important and provocative ways and argues for the political use and usefulness of both Sodom and sodomy Reclaiming Sodom makes an important and controversial contribution to the literature on sexuality and gender as well as the nature of sex in our culture

Human Spirits: A Cultural Account of Trance in Mayotte Michael Lambek,1981-11-30 Based on intensive ethnographic fieldwork this book describes and interprets trance behaviour among the Malagasy speakers of Mayotte a small island in the Comoro Archipelago in the Indian Ocean off the coast of East Africa Professor Lambek describes how the people of Mayotte most often women enter into trances during which they believe their bodies are inhabited by spirits He then analyses the conventions for behaviour in trance and the process by which the individuals come to terms with the spirits in their midst The book presents thorough case studies of spirit possession over time providing one of the most detailed accounts of possession phenomena available for a single society The author argues that trance can best be understood as a social activity within a defined system of cultural meaning rather than as a psychological problem a simple deception or a means of manipulating others This book should be of particular interest to those concerned with the study of ritual symbols and non Western religious systems
