Eucharistic Way:

Eucharist: A Guide for the Perplexed Ralph N. McMichael, 2010-08-19 An exploration of the complexities perplexities raised by asking what is the Eucharist

A Eucharistic Vision and the Spirituality of St Francis of Assisi Mark Turnham Elvins, 2007 Devotion to the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood lies at the heart of the spirituality of St Francis and his vision was to inspire the Church's development over the succeeding centuries Writing in this Franciscan tradition Br Mark offers his own insights on the Eucharist and St Francis insights that were first shared at an annual retreat of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal This book provides a unique series of meditations for Eucharistic devotion Although each is a separate reflection on the Eucharist in the life of the Church there is an implied centrality of the Sacrament in the life of any Catholic wishing to deepen the life of prayer In this St Francis can be our model and our guide as one of the original pioneers of extra Eucharistic devotion Just as in the thirteenth century his example helped to renew the life of the Church confronted by many crises so in our own day the Church hedged about with conflict and compromise and with declining vocations is seeing a revival of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament as perhaps the first sign of renewal He writes about spirituality as a lived experience of God shared by all whether they know it or not Mark Elvin's book will hopefully deepen our awareness of God's presence in both the Eucharist and the world Rt Rev Patrick O Donoghue Bishop of Lancaster Br Mark Fr Mark Elvins is a Capuchin friar Born in 1939 at Whitstable Br Mark took an MA at London University and a graduate diploma in spirituality at Dublin He is the author of Cardinals and Heraldry and of three other books published by Gracewing Catholic Trivia Gospel Chivalry and Towards a People's Liturgy

The Eucharistic Faith Ralph McMichael, 2019-09-30 Theology began with the appearances of the risen Jesus That is theology began when persons were confronted with a presence that could only be realized by the act of God In The Eucharistic Faith the first of a significant new systematic theology of the Eucharist Ralph N McMichael weaves liturgy and theology together to understand the ways in which theology and Christian faith are at heart about the receiving of the gift of Jesus life in Communion

The Eucharistic Spirit Florian M. P. Simatupang, 2025-03-27 What sort of experience of grace does the Holy Spirit give Pentecostals when they celebrate the Eucharist This book aims to answer that question by investigating Holy Communion through a Pentecostal spirituality framework and process known as search encounter transformation Doing so enriches the theology and spirituality of Pentecostalism and broadens its understanding of the journey of salvation The author argues that the invocation of the Spirit in the Eucharist the epiclesis grants the church a pneumatological imagination enabling it to properly remember the anamnesis the work of Christ The outcome of remembering will be to see the Eucharist as a meal of solidarity and justice a meal that manages the hunger of the world a meal that offers healing a meal for missional nourishment a meal reorienting eschatology by providing a preview of the restoration of all things apokatastasis in the wedding supper of the Lamb Ultimately this book encourages Pentecostals to desire a weekly celebration of the Eucharist in order to become truly Pentecostal

More Than

Communion Scott MacDougall, 2015-05-21 The dominant contemporary model for ecclesiology theological views of the church itself is the ecclesiology of communion MacDougall argues that communion ecclesiologies are often marked by a problematic theological imagination of the future eschatology He argues further that as a result our ways of practising and being the church are not as robust as they might otherwise be Re imagining the church in the light of God's promised future then becomes a critical conceptual and practical task MacDougall presents a detailed exploration of what communion ecclesiologies are and some of the problems they raise He offers two case studies of such theologies by examining how distinguished theologians John Zizioulas and John Milbank understand the church and the future how these combine in their work and the conceptual and practical implications of their perspectives He then offers an alternative theological view and demonstrates the effects that such a shift would have In doing so MacDougall offers a proposal for recovering the more to communion and to ecclesiology to help us imagine a church that is not beyond the world as in Zizioulas or over against the world as in Milbank but in and for the world in love and service This concept is worked out in conversation with systematic theologians such as Jürgen Moltmann Wolfhart Pannenberg and Johannes Baptist Metz and by engaging with a theology of Christian practices currently being developed by practical theologians such as Dorothy C Bass Craig Dykstra and those associated with their ongoing project The potential for the church to become an agent of discipleship love and service can best be realised when the church anticipates God's promised perfection in the full communion between God and humanity among human beings within human persons and between humanity and the rest of creation The Orthodox Way Kallistos (Bishop of Diokleia), 1979 First published in 1979 The Eucharistic Vision of Laudato Si Lucas Briola, 2022-12-28 No other encyclical has generated as much conversation both Catholic and non Catholic as Laudato si Often forgotten in these conversations is the theological heart and eucharistic vision of the encyclical and its integral ecology Even the title of Laudato si Praised be signals the centrality of right praise in caring for our common home Using Bernard Lonergan's theology of history this book unearths the doxological eucharistic vision that shapes the encyclical's integral presentation of social and ecological conversion It offers the first book length study that recovers the eucharistic nature of Laudato si In drawing out the eucharistic vision of Laudato si the book accomplishes several feats for the reader It roots the eucharistic dimensions of the encyclical in the writings of Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI showing how Pope Francis develops their thought in notable ways It introduces Bernard Lonergan's theology of history showing how his framework can capture the eucharistic contours of caring for our common home so too in light of Laudato si does the book expand his theology of history to incorporate both ecological concern and the doxological eucharistic essence of the church The book assembles a liturgically shaped systematic account of the church's social mission It joins poles otherwise sundered in a polarized church and world between worship and justice between concerns for human life and concerns for the natural world Realizing the eucharistic vision of Laudato si promises much for our contemporary moment Pope Francis recently observed that the integral ecology of Laudato si holds the key for the world's recovery from the COVID 19 pandemic The U S Catholic Bishops recently launched a Eucharistic Revival that aims to rekindle eucharistic devotion and praxis The Eucharistic Vision of Laudato Si Praise Conversion and Integral Ecology supplies a timely study that helps fulfill these intertwined calls

God-Walk Frederick Herzog, 2008-07-01 Challenging and disturbing and ultimately healing Robert McAfee Brown author of Liberation Theology An Introductory Guide Frederick Herzog was Professor at the Duke University Divinity School He served on numerous commissions of the World Council of Churches and the United Church of Christ In the spring of 1970 he wrote the first North American article on liberation theology and in 1972 his Liberation Theology was published a study of the Fourth Gospel described by Robert McAfee Brown as a pioneer North American work In Justice Church Herzog continues his pioneering work with a North American methodology of liberation theology The Eucharist, Poetics, and

Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton Shaun Ross, 2023-03-22 The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton explains the astonishing centrality of the eucharist to poets with a variety of denominational affiliations writing on a range of subjects across an extended period in literary history Whether they are praying thinking about politics lamenting unrequited love or telling fart jokes late medieval and early modern English poets return again and again to the eucharist as a way of working out literary problems Tracing this connection from the fourteenth through the seventeenth century this book shows how controversies surrounding the nature of signification in the sacrament informed understandings of poetry Connecting medieval to early modern England it presents a history of eucharistic poetics as it appears in the work of seven key poets the Pearl poet Chaucer Robert Southwell John Donne George Herbert Richard Crashaw and John Milton Reassessing this range of poetic voices The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization overturns an oft repeated argument that early modern poetry's fascination with the eucharist resulted from the Protestant rejection of transubstantiation and its supposedly enchanted worldview Instead of this tired secularization story it fleshes out a more capacious conception of eucharistic presence showing that what interested poets about the eucharist was its insistence that the mechanics of representation are always entangled with the self's relation to the body and to others The book thus forwards a new historical account of eucharistic poetics placing this literary phenomenon within a longstanding negotiation between embodiment and disembodiment in Western religious and cultural history Building a Eucharistic Pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea Hyoung Seop Shin, 2013-04-29 Based on the critical conversations between education liturgy sociology and theology this book suggests an alternative eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea by reforming eucharistic and curricular practices with attention to students specific local contexts This process includes the formulation of the definition of the new eucharistic pedagogy the reconceptualization of concepts regarding the eucharistic pedagogy and five steps as pedagogical strategies for a new eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea including pedagogical guidelines for teachers and students This book will open the door for further educational and liturgical discussions of the work of contextualization in churches around the world Even though this study investigates a contextual pedagogy limited to the PCK this task needs attention and study in a larger context beyond the PCK The gospel is the worldwide truth that cannot be limited to a certain culture but becomes incarnated into each local culture Therefore this kind of contextual investigation between the gospel and culture will not be optional but imperative to all churches A Companion to Anglican Eucharistic Theology Brian Douglas,2012 Anglican eucharistic theology varies between the different philosophical assumptions of realism and nominalism This book presents case studies from the 20th Century to the Present and avoids the hermeneutic idealism of particular church parties by critically examining the Anglican eucharistic tradition

The Eucharist, Our Sanctification Raniero Cantalamessa,1993 The Eucharist should not be limited to the congregation that gathers to hear the word of God and proclaim its faith It is first of all the active presence of the sacrifice of Christ who gathers us together and lets us partake of his divine life through his body and blood in Communion Christians are always hoping to find helpful ways to contemplate the eucharistic mystery in all its fullness and this set of meditations by Father Raniero Cantalamessa presented by him in the presence of Pope John Paul II is written in a simple and warm style and nourished by Scripture and the teachings of the Church Fathers from both the East and the West These meditations answer the needs of all who hope to experience the radiant and radiating Eucharist that shines into their hearts and into the life of the Church Liturgical Theology Revisited Stephen Edmondson,2015-06-24 Something happens at the eucharistic table When Jesus story meets Jesus presence Jesus happens there and the hungry are fed Christians beliefs that they believe and what they believe are formed by Jesus happening This book explores the theology inscribed on communities through their encounter with Jesus at the table It begins with the theology of radical grace embodied in the invitation of everyone baptized or not to the table and it addresses from this vantage the whole of the Christian life the truth of Jesus the work of the Spirit the significance of baptism and the integrity and mission of the church Models of the Eucharist Kevin W. Irwin,2005 Explores in a clear manner how the liturgy of the Eucharist contains a wealth of theology and spirituality about the Eucharist itself and the way it shapes our view of the Christian life In-Between God Stephen Pickard,2011-12-28 In Between God explores three important areas for contemporary Christianity theology community and discipleship Part One inquires into the rhythms of faith as it interacts with themes of uncertainty and doubt the nature of theological discourse the task of systematic theology evangelism and the various ways in which theology is done Part Two discusses the importance of place in relation to the church and themes of innovation undecideability and new forms of monastic community Part Three addresses themes in discipleship simplicity mysticism the passions and pilgrimage A red thread connecting these essays is the character of the triune God who is the energy and life in between all things Evangelicals on the Canterbury Trail Robert E. Webber,Lester Ruth,2013-01-01 Why do so many evangelicals flock to liturgical traditions today Robert Webber first explored the question in this thoughtful and engaging classic in 1989 now evangelical scholar and pastor Lester Ruth updates the conversation Much remains of Webber s beloved original text including his discussion of Anglicanism s six great gifts mystery and awe Christ centered worship sacramental reality historical identity participation in catholic traditions and holistic spirituality Ruth adds fresh stories from evangelicals who have followed Webber s footsteps on the Canterbury trail along with new essays that highlight the diversity of Anglican expressions today Whose Sacrifice is the Eucharist? Stephen B Sours,2024-07-26 This book explores what Catholics and Methodists believe about eucharistic sacrifice Eucharistic sacrifice refers to the offering that Christ and his church make in the celebration of the Lord s Supper It is therefore both a Christian doctrine and a church practice The sacrificial dimension of the sacrament comes both from Christ s sacrifice on the cross and from his self offering at the Last Supper in which Christ gives himself to the Father on behalf of his people This is my body which is given for you Luke 22 19 The eucharist is a sacrificial meal because in the bread and cup Christians are united to the body and blood of Christ that was sacrificed for them on the cross Moreover the resurrected Lord is really present with his people in the eucharist and while his historic crucifixion is an event in the past Jesus salvation continues and his grace is given to his people in the sacrament for this is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins Matthew 26 28 Catholics and Methodists believe that Jesus instructs his followers to repeat his words and actions from the Last Supper in their celebration of the eucharist but a long running assumption is that Catholics and Methodists following the historic Reformation schism are deeply divided over eucharistic sacrifice This book challenges that assumption by analyzing what these churches teach on eucharistic sacrifice from historical sacramental liturgical and ecumenical perspectives Key figures like Thomas Aquinas and John Wesley help define eucharistic sacrifice in each tradition Subsequently authoritative texts such as ecclesial statements eucharistic prayers and hymns further specify what Catholics and Methodists believe they are doing when they offer the eucharist to God Sours argues that far from being divided Catholics and Methodists have much in common regarding this controversial doctrine Eating Beauty Ann W. Astell,2006 Ann W Astell explores the ambiguity of the phrase eating beauty The phrase evokes the destruction of beauty the devouring mouth of the grave the mouth of hell On Earth as in Heaven Bartholomew I (Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople),2012 As this new volume of his writings reveals His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has continually proclaimed the primacy of spiritual values in determining environmental ethics and action For him the predicament we face is not primarily ecological but in fact spiritual The ultimate aim is to see all things in God and God in all things The Eucharistic Prayer at Sunday Mass Richard E. McCarron,2008-04-28 Down in the valley God asked the prophet Ezekiel a mighty question Mortal can these dry bones live Ezekiel 37 3 Today this question is being posed once more to those who are charged with the preparation and celebration of the Sunday liturgy the assembly that celebrates the ministers from within that assembly who prepare and serve and those ordained as priests or bishops who preside We have a come a long way since the early days of the conciliar reform of the liturgy Assemblies respond and sing the word is proclaimed with dignity and reverence careful attention is given to environment and season and all come to the communion table Many assemblies strive to realize fully week after week the vision of the Council that the eucharistic liturgy be seen heard felt and smelt as the summit toward which the activity of the church is directed the source from which all its power flows This is critical work if we are utterly convinced that the preeminent manifestation of the church is present in the full active participation of all God's holy people in these liturgical celebrations But many still know liturgical assemblies that are but shadows of who they are called to be and celebrations are slivers of what they could be Many stand at the brink of the valley and behold dry bones And when we come to the eucharistic prayer named the central prayer of the Sunday liturgy we behold very dry bones indeed The question is put forth Can these dry bones live We have come to realize that liturgy is something people do something people live The eucharistic prayer is more than its words It is a way of praying and living What lies in the ritual book must be enfolded when we gather We come together and breathe life into our rituals and their words We can do this because we have first been sealed in the Spirit the one who aids us in our weakness to pray that the very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words Romans 8:26 from Chapter 1
