French Romantics:

The French Romantics' Knowledge of English Literature (1820-1848) Eric Partridge, 1924 Dante and the French Romantics Michael Pitwood, 1985 French Romantic Travel Writing Christopher W. Thompson, 2012 A pioneering overview of the travel books produced by fourteen French Romantic writers including Chateaubriand Stendhal Hugo Nerval Sandrime Dumas and Tristan whose journeys ranged from Peru to Russia and from North America to North Africa and the Near East The Passions of the French Romantics Francis Henry Gribble, 1910 The Rise and Fall of the French Romantic Drama Frederick William Marsden Draper, 1923 Popular French Romanticism James Smith Allen, 1981-01-01 Focusing on the Paris book world of this period Allen reveals how the rise of a new popular literature jolly chansonniers the roman feuilletons or serial novels melodramas gothic and sentimental novels dramatic nationalistic histories by such authors as Dumas Sand Lamennais Ancelot Desnoyer and de Kock coincided with remarkable developments in the production distribution and consumption of books Allen's research ranges from a survey of the then popular romantic titles and authors and the trade catalogs of booksellers and lending libraries to the police records of their activities diaries and journals of working people and military conscript records and ministerial literacy statistics The result is a remarkable picture of the exchange between elite and popular culture the interaction between ideas and their material reality and the relationship between the literature and the history of France in the romantic period The Taming of Romanticism Virgil Nemoianu, 1984 Looking at a broad spectrum of writers English French German Italian Russian and other East Europeans Virgil Nemoianu offers here a coherent characterization of the period 1815-1848 This he calls the era of the domestication of romanticism The explosive visionary core of romanticism is seen to give way after the defeat of Napoleon to an expanded and softer version reflecting middle class values This later form of romanticism is characterized by moralizing efforts to reform society a sentimental yearning for the tranquility of home and hearth and persistent faith in the individual alongside a new skepticism shattered ideals and consequent irony Expanding the application of the term Biedermeier which has been useful in describing this period in German literature Nemoianu provides a new framework for understanding these years in a wider European context Loss in French Romantic Art, Literature, and Politics Jonathan P. Ribner, 2021-09-30 An interdisciplinary examination of nineteenth century French art pertaining to religion exile and the nation's demise as a world power this study concerns the consequences for visual culture of a series of national crises from the assault on Catholicism and the flight of migrants during the Revolution of 1789 to the collapse of the Empire and the dashing of hope raised by the Revolution of 1830 The central claim is that imaginative response to these politically charged experiences of loss constitutes a major shaping force in French Romantic art and that pursuit of this theme in light of parallel developments in literature and political debate reveals a pattern of disenchantment transmuted into cultural capital Focusing on imagery that spoke to loss through visual and verbal idioms particular to France in the aftermath of the Revolution and Empire the book illuminates canonical works by major figures such as Eugène Delacroix, Théodore Chassériau and Camille Corot as well as long forgotten images freighted with significance for nineteenth century viewers. A study in national bereavement, an urgent theme in the present moment, the book provides a new lens through which to view the coincidence of imagination and strife at the heart of French Romanticism. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, French literature, French history, French politics and religious studies. Romantic Poetry

Angela Esterhammer, 2002-01-01. Romantic Poetry encompasses twenty-seven new essays by prominent scholars on the influences and interrelations among Romantic movements throughout Europe and the Americas. It provides an expansive overview of eighteenth and nineteenth century poetry in the European languages. The essays take account of interrelated currents in American, Argentinian, Brazilian, Bulgarian, Canadian, Caribbean, Chilean, Colombian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Mexican, Norwegian, Peruvian, Polish, Romanian, Russian, Serbian, Slovak, Spanish, Swedish, and Uruguayan literature. Contributors adopt different models for comparative study, tracing a theme or motif through several literatures, developing innovative models of transnational influence, studying the role of Romantic poetry in socio-political developments, or focusing on an issue that appears most prominently in one national literature yet is illuminated by the international context. This collaborative volume provides an invaluable resource for students of comparative literature and Romanticism. SPECIAL OFFER: 30% discount for a complete set (order 5 vols). The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration. The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures, in reaction to Romanticism, have redefined themselves into Modernism. A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series' total contents. Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution, and by combining cross-cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams. Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large, fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera, and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age Walking and the French Romantics Christopher W. Thompson, 2003 Walking and the French Romantics explores for the first time the relationship between walking and Romanticism in France It maps this relationship as theme and practice no social history of pedestrian tours in nineteenth century France having been written In this connection the legacy of Rousseau and Senancour proves stronger than has been recognized in spite of the pull of Paris and its legendary urban flaneurs The author brings out the role of painters and of figures like Nodier Didier and Dumas in encouraging writers to go or imagine themselves on the road and shows how and why pedestrian touring became popular with authors in the late 1830s He discusses the impact of this fashion on major Romantic writers such as Nerval Sand and Hugo Finally he describes how walking lost its particular cultural connection with Romanticism in the 1840s Spanish Painting and the French Romantics Ilse Hempel Lipschutz, 1972 French Romantics on Progress: Human and Literary Elwood Hartman, 1968 Days with the French Romantics in the Paris of 1830 Philip Carr, 1932 Historical Dictionary of Romantic Art and Architecture Allison Lee Palmer, 2019-07-26 Romanticism is multifaceted and a wide range of nostalgic emotional and exotic concerns were expressed in such styles and movements as the Gothic Revival Classical Revival Orientalism and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood Some movements were regional and subject specific such as the Hudson River School of landscape painting in the United States and the German Nazarene movement which focused primarily on religious art in Rome The movements range across Western Europe and include the United States This dictionary will provide a fuller historical context for Romanticism and enable the reader to identify major trends and explore artists of the period This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Romantic Art and Architecture contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on major artists of the romantic era as well as entries on related art movements styles aesthetic philosophies and philosophers This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Romantic art Walt Whitman Among the French Betsy Erkkila, 2014-07-14 As the first full treatment of Walt Whitman's French sources and his later impact on French writers this book revises our image of the poet and challenges many critical assumptions Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Romanticism, Rhetoric and the Search for the Sublime, 2nd Edition Craig R. Smith, 2023-01-23 Relying on the author's established expertise in rhetoric and political communication this book re contextualizes Romantic rhetorical theory from the late 18th and early 19th centuries to provide a foundation for a Neo Romantic rhetorical theory for our own time In the process it uses a unique methodology to correct misconceptions about the rhetorical theories of many writers Using a dialectical approach the early chapters trace Romanticism through its opposition to the industrial revolution and the Enlightenment back through Humanism and its opposition to Scholasticism to its roots in St Augustine's writing These chapters include a revisionist analysis of the church's treatment of Galileo in the course of showing how difficult it was for scientific study to be accepted in Scholastic circles The study goes on to argue that Jean Jacques Rousseau David Hume and Edmund Burke were bridge figures to the Romantic Era This move throws new light on exemplary painters composers writers and orators of the Romantic Era who are examined in chapters eight and nine Chapter ten focuses on Percy Bysshe Shelley and his development of the rhetorical poem and thereby provides a new genre in the Romantic catalogue Chapter Eleven turns to the Romantic rhetorical theories of Hugh Blair and Thomas De Quincey to empower those seeking to save the environment The concluding chapter then synthesizes their theories with relevant contemporary rhetorical theories thereby constructing a Neo Romantic theory for our own time In the process the book links the Romantics love of nature to the current environmental crisis The French Romantics Georg Brandes, 1966
