French Parnassian Poets:

The French Parnassian Poets Robert Thomas Denomme, 1972 Robert T Denomme who has written extensively on French literature here offers a companion volume to his Nineteenth Century French Romantic Poets previously published in this series Once again working within an historical philosophical and aesthetic context he provides a wealth of critical insights for the general reader as well as the specialist His first chapter surveys the evolution of poetic expression in France and succeeding chapters study the major poets Théophile Gautier Théodore de Banville Leconte de Lisle and José Maria de Heredia Incisive and concise the book provides a good general introduction to and a long overdue reassessment of French Parnassianism

Six French Poets of the Nineteenth Century E. H. Blackmore, A. M. Blackmore, 2000 Poetry will no longer keep in time with action it will be ahead of it Arthur Rimbaud The active and colourful lives of the poets of nineteenth century France are reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of their works At once sacred and profane passionate and satirical these remarkable and innovative poems explore the complexities of human emotion and ponder the great questions of religion and art They form as rich a body of work as any one age and language has ever produced This unique anthology includes generous selections from the six nineteenth century French poets most often read in the English speaking world today Lamartine Hugo Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Mallarmé Modern translations are printed opposite the original French verse and the edition contains over a thousand lines of poetry never previously translated into English

An Anthology of French Romantic and Parnassian Poetry Adam Gillon, 1982

The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori, 1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer's awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers Parnassus in France Aaron Schaffer,1929 Song Carol Kimball,2006-12

Patterns of evolution in nineteenth-century French poetry Rosemary Lloyd, Lawrence J. Watson,1990 This book comprises a collection of papers given at the international colloquium Le Parnasse Preparations et Prolongements held at Cambridge University in September 1988 under the presidency of Claude Pichois A History of French Literature Charles Henry Conrad Wright,1925 Historical Dictionary of France Gino Raymond,2008-10-23 From the construction of Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower to the Fall of the Bastille and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen to Napol on Bonaparte s defeat at Waterloo to Albert Camus L Etranger and the existentialism of Jean Paul Sartre France has been a part of some of the greatest and most memorable events in human history Author Gino Raymond relates the history of these events in the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of France Through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on kings politicians authors architects composers artists and philosophers a thorough history of France is presented Leaving Parnassus Seth Whidden,2007-01-01 Leaving Parnassus The Lyric Subject in Verlaine and Rimbaud considers how the crisis of the lyric subject in the middle of the nineteenth century in France is a direct response to the aesthetic principles of Parnassian poetry which dominated the second half of the century much more than critics often think The poets considered here rebel against the strict confines of traditional and contemporary poetry and attempt to create radically new discursive practices Specifically the close readings of poems apply recent studies of subjectivity in poetry and focus on the works of Paul Verlaine and Arthur Rimbaud to see how each subverts the dominant tradition of French poetry in a unique way Whereas previous studies considered isolated aspects of each poet s lyric subject Leaving Parnassus shows that the situation of the lyric is a source of subversion throughout the poets entire work and as such it is crucial to our full understanding of their respective innovations The Interconnections between Victorian Writers, Artists and Places Kumiko Tanabe,2019-09-13 This volume deals with the various direct and indirect connections between literary figures artists and locations during the Victorian era It also addresses influential figures from before and after this period such as William Blake Sir Joshua Reynolds and Mother Teresa as well as the connection between Britain and America in certain contexts In establishing such relationships this volume therefore covers a wide range of writers and painters such as Charles Dickens Arthur Conan Doyle Thomas Hardy William Morris D G Rossetti J E Millais

Herman Melville J M W Turner G M Hopkins William Butterfield W H Ainsworth and Sir Edward Coley Burne Jones while also including cultural topics related to both Victorian society and the eras which preceded it The Penguin Book of French Poetry, 2005-02-24 This collection illuminates the uniquely fascinating era between 1820 and 1950 in French poetry a time in which diverse aesthetic ideas conflicted and converged as poetic forms evolved at an astonishing pace It includes generous selections from all the established giants among them Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Breton as well as works from a wide variety of less well known poets such as Claudel and Cendrars whose innovations proved vital to the progress of poetry in France The significant literary schools of the time are also represented in sections focusing on such movements as Romanticism Symbolism Cubism and Surrealism Eloquent and inspirational this rich and exhilarating anthology reveals an era of exceptional vitality Bulletin, 1922 Iran and French Orientalism Julia Caterina Hartley, 2023-12-28 New translations of Persian literature into French the invention of the Aryan myth increased travel between France and Iran and the unveiling of artefacts from ancient Susa at the Louvre Museum are among the factors that radically altered France's perception of Iran during the long nineteenth century And this is reflected in the literary culture of the period In an ambitious study spanning poetry historiography fiction travel writing ballet opera and marionette theatre Julia Hartley reveals the unique place that Iran held in the French literary imagination between 1829 and 1912 Iran's history and culture remained a constant source of inspiration across different generations and artistic movements from the Oriental poems of Victor Hugo to those of Anna de Noailles and Thophile Gautier's strategic citation of Persian poetry to his daughter Judith Gautier's full blown rewriting of a Persian epic Writing about Iran could also serve to articulate new visions of world history and religion as was the case in the intellectual debates that took place between Michelet Renan and Al Afghani Alternatively joyous as in Flicien David's opera Lalla Roukh and ominous as in Massenet's Le Mage Iran elicited a multiplicity of treatments This is most obvious in the travelogues of Flandin Gobineau Loti Jane Dieulafoy and Marthe Bibesco which describe the same cities and cultural practices in altogether different ways Under these writers pens Iran emerges as both an Oriental other and an alter ego its culture elevated above that of all other Muslim nations At times this led French writers to critique notions of European superiority But at others they appropriated Iran as proto European through racist narratives that reinforced Orientalist stereotypes Drawing on theories of Orientalism and cultural difference this book navigates both sides of this fascinating and complex literary history It is the first major study on the subject Stories and Poems/Cuentos y Poesías Rubén Darío, 2012-04-18 Rich selection of works by Nicaraguan writer Rubén Darío the high priest of the modernismo school of literature features poems and stories from Azul Blue Prosas profanas Worldly Hymns and others Library of the World's Best Literature: Dictionary of authors, 1898 Warner's Dictionary of Authors Ancient and Modern Charles Dudley Warner, 1902 Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern: Dictionary of authors Charles Dudley Warner, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Lucia Isabella Gilbert Runkle, George Henry Warner, 1897
