They met in 1928 Frida Kahlo was then 21 years old and Diego Rivera was twice her age He was already an international reference she only aspired to become one An intense artistic creation along with pain and suffering was generated by this tormented union in particular for Frida On both continents America and Europe these committed artists proclaimed their freedom and left behind them the traces of their exceptional talent In this book Gerry Souter brings together both biographies and underlines with passion the link which existed between the two greatest Mexican artists of the 20th century finding herself surrounded by a close knit group of friends Her personal life was turbulent as she frequently left her relationship with Diego to one side whilst she cultivated her own bisexual relationships Despite this Frida and Diego managed to save their frayed relationship The story and the paintings that Frida left us display a courageous account of a woman constantly on a search of self discovery
