Guide To Russian References Volume 1:

Guide to Russian Reference Books: Vol.1: General Bibliographies and Reference Books Karol Maichel, Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public A Researcher's Guide to Sources on Soviet Social History in the 1930s Sheila Fitzpatrick, Lynne Viola, 2016-07-22 The Stalin era has been less accessible to researchers than either the preceding decade or the postwar era The basic problem is that during the Stalin years censorship restricted the collection and dissemination of information and introduced bias and distortion into the statistics that were published while in the post Stalin years access to archives and libraries remained tightly controlled Thus it is not surprising that one of the main manifestations of glasnost has been the effort to open up records of the 1930s In this volume Western and Soviet specialists detail the untapped potential of sources on this period of Soviet social history and also the hidden traps that abound The full range of sources is covered from memoirs to official documents from city directories to computerized data bases Guide to Russian Reference Books Karol Maichel, 1962 Archives in Russia: A Directory and Bibliographic Guide to Holdings in Moscow and St. Petersburg Patricia Kennedy Grimsted, Patricia Kennedy Grimstead, 2016-04-01 This is a comprehensive directory and bibliographic guide to Russian archives and manuscript repositories in the capital cities of Moscow and St Petersburg It is an essential resource for any researcher interested in Russian sources for topics in diplomatic military and church history art dance film literature science ethnography and geography The first part lists general bibliographies of relevant reference literature directories bibliographic works and specialized subject related sources In the following sections of the directory archival listings are grouped in institutional categories Coverage includes federal ministerial agency presidential local university Academy of Sciences organizational library and museum holdings Individual entries include the name of the repository in Russian and English basic information on location staffing institutional history holdings access and finding aids More comprehensive and up to date than the 1997 Russian Version this edition includes Web site information dozens of additional repositories several hundred more bibliographical entries coverage of reorganization issues four indexes and a glossary A History of Russia Volume 1 Walter G. The Russian Revolution and Civil War 1917-1921 Jonathan Smele, 2006-04-15 The Russian Revolution and Civil War in the years 1917 to 1921 is one of the most widely studied periods in history It is also somewhat inevitably one that has generated a huge flow of literature in the decades that have passed since the events themselves However until now historians of the revolution have had no dedicated bibliography of the period and little claim to bibliographical control over the literature The Russian Revolution and Civil War 1917-1921 offers for the first time a comprehensive bibliographical guide to this crucial and fascinating period of history The Bibliography focuses on the key years of 1917 to 1921 starting with the February Revolution of 1917 and concluding with the 10th Party Congress of March 1921 and covers all the key events of the intervening years As such it identifies these crucial years as something more than simply the creation of a communist state

Natural Processes and Human Impacts Sergey M. Govorushko, 2011-10-13 This highly topical book comes at a time when the two way relationship between humankind and the environment is moving inexorably to the top of the agenda It covers both sides of this delicate balancing act explaining how various natural processes influence humanity including its economic activities and engineering structures while also illuminating the ways in which human activity puts pressure on the natural environment Chapters analyze a varied selection of phenomena that directly affect people's lives from geological processes such as earthquakes and tsunamis to cosmic events such as magnetic storms The author moves on to consider the effect we have on nature ranging from the impact of heavy industry to the environmental consequences of sport and recreational pastimes Complete with maps photographs and detailed case studies this book provides a comprehensive overview of the biggest issue we face as a species the way we relate to the natural world around us This book includes more than 100 maps showing the global distribution of different natural processes human activities and more than 450 photographs from many countries and all oceans It will provide a valuable resource for both graduate students and researchers in many fields of knowledge Sergey Govorushko is a chief research scholar at the Pacific Geographical Institute Russian Academy of Sciences He is also Professor at the Far Eastern Federal University Vladivostok Sergey Govorushko received his PhD from the Institute of Geography Russian Academy of Sciences His research activities focus on the interaction between humanity and the environment including the impact of nature on humanity the impact of humanity on the environment and assessment of the interaction environmental impact assessment environmental audit etc He has authored eight and co authored seven monographs
