About Face Christopher L. Flanders, 2011-03-07 For Thais face is a fact writes Flanders However whether in theology evangelism or issues involving sin salvation or atonement Thai Christians and missionaries alike seem either uninterested in or possibly incapable of addressing issues related to face This glaring incongruity between the value of face for Thais and the lack of intentional engagement within the Thai Christian community is deeply troubling Surely such a lack of careful attention to face is a dangerous posture Uncritical views of face furtively attaching to the theology of the Thai church are potentially detrimental for its life and mission Such seems to be an unavoidable situation without proper attention to face Additionally to ignore face is to run the risk of missing valuable cultural resources implicit in the Thai experience of face for the critical task of authentic Thai theological reflection This lack of engagement with face raises critical issues with which we must wrestle How is it that such a central sociocultural issue has not been a more significant part of the Thai Christian vocabulary or experience How pervasive are these negative attitudes regarding face What lies behind them Might this lack of self conscious engagement with face have any relationship to the persistent Thai perception of Christianity as a foreign Western religion How should Christians understand this notion of face and how it relates to the ways we understand and proclaim the gospel

problems that face the Academy today Drawing from oral histories archival sources and his own experiences as a cadet and later a faculty member Betros describes and assesses how well West Point has accomplished its mission And while West Point is an impressive institution in many ways Betros does not hesitate to expose problems and challenge long held assumptions In a concluding chapter that is both subjective and interpretive the author offers his prescriptions for improving the institution focusing particularly on the areas of governance admissions and intercollegiate athletics Photographs tables charts and other graphics aid the clarity of the discussion and lend visual and historical interest Carved from Granite West Point since 1902 is the most authoritative history of the modern United States Military Academy written to date There will be lively debate over some of the observations made in this book but if they are followed the author asserts that the Academy will emerge stronger and better able to accomplish its vital mission in the new century and beyond Effective

Zanker,1994 Explores the moral choices and values Homer offers in his Iliad Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler,2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God Breaking the Thread of Life Robert Barry,2017-07-28 Suicide and how civilized people should respond to it is an increasingly controversial topic in modern society In Holland suicide is the third leading cause of death of people between the ages of fifteen and forty In the United States it is the second leading cause of death among older teenagers Laws prohibiting assisted suicide are being directly and boldly confronted by activists in the United States most notably Jack Kevorkian Meanwhile the American Civil Liberties Union has publicly declared suicide a fundamental human right that should be protected under the Constitution The Hemlock Society has introduced referenda in California Washington and Oregon to legalize suicide and assisted suicide The most vocal opposition to these initiatives has come from the Roman Catholic church Breaking the Thread of Life marshalls philosophical moral medical historical and theological arguments in support of the Roman Catholic position against suicide In a comprehensive study of the history of suicide Barry shows that Christian civilization was one of only a few early societies that was able to bring suicide under control He counters claims that Catholicism and the Bible endorse rational suicide Barry also analyzes arguments in support of the rationality of suicide and illuminates their biases inadequacies and dangers Barry presents the rationale for the Roman Catholic church s strong extensive and articulate opposition to efforts to gain legal and social endorsement of suicide and assisted suicide His book represents the most complete study of the classical Roman Catholic view of rational suicide to date and it will be of significant interest to philosophers theologians physicians and lawyers

Christian Couples Coping with Childlessness Auli Vahakangas,2009-06-01 Children are the focus of marriage in African cultures Marriage is considered full and functional only if the couple has children in many cultures preferably a boy Becoming a parent also contributes to one s full adulthood in the sense that childlessness blocks ascent towards full personal dignity as an adult person in the community As a result childlessness is often a major disaster for both of the spouses It has social economical and personal consequences quite often including divorce This book explores in depth how childlessness is perceived dealt with and coped with in two Christian communities in Machame on the slopes of Mt Kilimanjaro Childlessness is approached through narratives of the spouses concerned and the members of their communities Their stories reveal pain and courage brokenness and strength faithfulness and betrayal Christianity presents itself in an ambiguous light on one hand pressuring spouses to keep up facades supporting oppressive structures On the other hand Christian faith provides childless couples with personal hope in the afterlife that the African traditional culture offers only to those with children This study proves that childlessness is not only a personal but also a communal problem Childlessness and the fear of having no children contribute to family structures and sexual behavior In this way they have a considerable impact on the spread of HIV AIDS in Africa However this study reveals that the attitudes and practices towards marriage and children need not be petrified but rather that traditions can and do change
