The Wonder-story Books: They were brave and bold, 1962 Skade and the Enchanted Snow Joan Holub, Suzanne Williams, 2020-03-10. From the authors of the Goddess Girls series comes the fourth book in a series steeped in Norse mythology, magic, adventure, and friendship. Skade, the goddess of skiing, is known as one of the best athletes and a top student at Asgard Academy. But lately, she's felt like she's been in a slump. When three giants appear and offer to mend the rift between the worlds by organizing a ski competition, Skade feels like this is her big chance to prove herself again. After all, the powerful Odin will be choosing the Asgard team based on ability, attitude, and academics. But much to Skade's embarrassment, Odin is less than impressed with her and names her as an alternate instead of part of the main team. Aside from Skade's frustrations, something seems fishy about the whole competition. After one of Skade's classmates has a strange nightmare about it, they start to wonder if the games are one big cover-up for something more sinister. And when the Asgard team finds themselves on thin ice, it's up to Skade to overcome a big fear, save her friend, and show everyone what she's made of.

Ritual Embodiment in Modern Western Magic Damon Zacharias Lycourinos, 2017-11-15 In the Western world magic has often functioned as an umbrella term for various religious beliefs and ritual practices that seek to influence events by harnessing supernatural power The definition of these myriad occult and esoteric traditions have however usually come from those that are opposed to its practice notably authorities in religious legal and intellectual spheres This book seeks to provide a new perspective directly from the practitioners of modern Western magic by exploring how a distinctive mode of embodiment and consciousness can produce a transition from an ordinary to a magical worldview Starting with an introduction to the study of magic in the Western academy the book then presents the author's own participant observation of five ethnographic case studies of modern Western magic The focus of these ethnographic case studies is directed towards ideas and methods the informants employ to self legitimise and self represent as magicians It concludes by discussing the phenomenological implications and issues around embodiment that are inherent to the contemporary practice of magic This is a unique insight into the lived experience of practitioners of modern magic As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of the Occult and New Religious Movements as well as Religious Studies academics examining issues around the embodiment and the anthropology of religion     Of Gods, Heroes, and Myths , 1997     Casts of Fire, Casts of Love NEMO
