Guide To Sources For The History Of South Western Australia:

The A to Z of Australia James C. Docherty, 2010-04-01 The last continent to be claimed by Europeans Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere the British were not Australia s original populace. The first inhabitants of Australia the Aborigines are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60 000 years ago This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world's most successful immigrant nations. The A to Z of Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world Through a detailed chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets author James Docherty provides a much needed single volume reference on Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal tolerant democracy it is today Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen, James C. Docherty, 2014-12-05 Australia s development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U S invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Australian national bibliography ,1961 Never Again Andrea Gaynor, Peter Newman, Philip Jennings, 2018 Australia The lead up to the 2017 Western Australian state election saw a large and lively protest over the construction of stage 8 of the Roe Highway Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link Years of opposition to Roe 8 culminated in civil disobedience mass arrests and media theatrics as the bulldozers tore across Aboriginal heritage sites and through much loved bushland and wetland just weeks out from an election the government appeared likely to lose When Labor was swept to power in the biggest landslide victory ever delivered by Western Australian voters the Roe 8 contracts were cancelled However the planning systems that enabled Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link remain in place and in need of reform This book illuminates what was at stake in the conflict for Perth residents Aboriginal heritage and the environment It traces the history of Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link to show what needs to be done in order to ensure that Western Australian people and environments never again have such a damaging project thrust upon them It surveys the issues and makes recommendations across transport planning environment health and Aboriginal heritage policy areas It also captures the nature of the diverse and vigorous resistance to the project setting the struggle and its bittersweet victory in a wider context Subject Environmental Studies Australian Studies Aboriginal Studies Invisible Country Bill Bunbury, 2015 When Europeans first settled in Australia the land withheld many of its secrets from these new arrivals There were broad rivers wide plains and tall forests all of which to European eyes suggested promising sites for settlement However to many of the new settlers the First Australians the Aboriginal people were a puzzle They moved freely through the country they knew intimately What few settlers realized then was that the Aboriginal people and the land they lived in were indistinguishable Invisible Country describes the environmental changes that have occurred in southwestern Australia since European settlement through four case studies of the development of local rivers forests and coastal plains These stories compiled through extensive conversations with farmers ecologists traditional owners and others who rely on the land are book ended by an examination of the historical perspective in which these changes have occurred It is a reminder that the land owns the people not the other way around and this is the beginning of a conversation about understanding and caring for the land that all Australians are fortunate to live in Librarians ebook available Subject Australian Studies Environmental Studies History Dancing in Shadows Anna Haebich, 2018 Dancing in Shadows explores the power of Indigenous performance pitted against the forces of settler colonisation Historian Anna Haebich documents how the Nyungar people of Western Australia strategically and courageously adapted their rich performance culture to survive the catastrophe that engulfed them and continue to generously share their culture history and language in theatre In public corroborees they performed their sovereignty to the colonists and in community only gatherings they danced and sang to bring forth resilience and spiritual healing Pushed away by the colonists and denied their culture and lands they continued to live and perform in the shadows over the years in combinations of the old and the new including indigenised settler songs and dances Nyungar people survived and they now number around 40 000 people and constitute the largest Aboriginal nation in the Australian settler state The ancient family lineages live in city suburbs and country towns and they continue to perform to celebrate their ancestors and to strengthen community well being by being together Dancing in Shadows sheds light on the little known history of Nyungar performance Subject Theatre A Guide to Sources for the History of South Western Studies Sociology History Australian History Aboriginal Studies A Journey Travelled Murray Arnold, 2015 A Journey Travelled is a pivotal Australian story long overdue Australia .1993 for the telling how Aboriginal and European people interacted with each other following Britain's territorial invasion in 1826 as well as its ongoing presence for the next 100 years There has been a wealth of documentary and oral history available to researchers prepared to write from a local history perspective yet very few Australian historians have accepted this challenge What has been lacking until quite recently is the sense among historians and the general Australian public that the history of Aboriginal European relations not only for the first few years of contact but for a period of many decades is central to the nation's story This extraordinary situation persisted with very few exceptions until the intense cultural and political foment that occurred throughout the Western world during the 1960s inevitably impacted the history departments of Australian universities For the first time Australians were confronted by the reality of their past as the old reluctance to write about the history of Aboriginal European relations came to an abrupt end As a very readable history on a topic that is of relevance to all Australians A Journey Travelled examines the topic from the vantage point of the town of Albany and the wider Great Southern region of Western Australia bringing a unique story to life The book contains maps and images including early photos of Menang men and women as well as appendices regarding seasonal cycles land cleared for agriculture Western Australian tribal boundaries and more Subject History Aboriginal Studies Australian Studies European Studies Genealogist's Guide to Discovering Your Irish Ancestors Dwight A.
