Entering the Stream Samuel Bercholz, Sherab Chödzin Kohn, 1994-01 The grandeur simplicity and freshness of the 2 500 year old tradition of Buddhism are reflected in this collection of writings intended as a primer for newcomers to the subject as well as a reference for those familiar with Buddhism The selections include The story of the Buddha s life A concise historical background Key writings of Theravada Mahayana Zen and Tibetan Buddhism Meditation instructions A Buddhist explanation of reincarnation Simple explanations of terms A pictorial survey of Buddhist art and architecture An

Introduction to the Buddha and His Teachings Samuel Bercholz, 1997 Thirty three original and accessible translations and commentaries drawn from the key writings of Buddhism with the aim of teaching the Buddhist tradition to Westerners

An Introduction to Buddhism Peter Harvey, 2013 Extensively revised and updated this book provides a comprehensive overview of the development of Buddhism in Asia and the West Experiencing Philosophy - Second Edition Anthony Falikowski, Susan Mills, 2022-11-22 Experiencing Philosophy begins with the assumption that philosophy is not merely something you know but also something you experience and participate in The book presents philosophical theories and ideas with reference to their practical relevance to the lives of student readers To this end a number of engaging features and inserts are provided Original Sources Numerous primary readings are included introducing students directly to the philosophical work of diverse thinkers ranging from Plato to Martin Luther King Jr Each reading is thoughtfully excerpted and is followed by reflective questions Philosopher Profiles Abstract ideas are connected to the lives of real historical figures through fascinating biographical profiles Take It Personally To illustrate how philosophy can be useful and relevant each chapter begins by placing the material in a personal context Know Thyself Diagnostics This book takes seriously as did Socrates the Delphic Oracle s dictum to know thyself Students are given self diagnostics to explore their own philosophical values ideals and beliefs Philosophers in Action Philosophy is something you do not just something you know Prompts are provided throughout the text inviting students to conduct thought experiments analyze concepts and discuss and debate controversial points Thinking about Your Thinking These metacognitive prompts require students to engage in higher order thinking not only about the presented readings and ideas but also with respect to their own values assumptions and beliefs Plus Built in study guides diagrams famous philosophical quotations comics feature boxes and more The Evangelical

Dictionary of World Religions H. Wayne House, 2019-02-19 With all of the different religions sects denominations and belief systems out there it can be difficult to separate the facts from mere opinion especially if one is relying solely on online sources which may or may not be vetted and which often have an ideological or political slant to them How can we truly understand if we cannot even be sure we are getting the facts straight In this comprehensive resource more than 75 evangelical scholars offer a thoroughly researched guide to Christianity other world religions and alternative religious views including entries on movements theological terms and major historical figures Perfect for pastors students and anyone who wants ready access to information on today's religious landscape      Yoga Journal, 1994-05 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping readers achieve the balance and well being they seek in their everyday lives With every issue Yoga Journal strives to inform and empower readers to make lifestyle choices that are healthy for their bodies and minds We are dedicated to providing in depth thoughtful editorial on topics such as yoga food nutrition fitness wellness travel and fashion and beauty      Meditation: The Complete Guide Patricia Monaghan, Eleanor G. Viereck, 2011-10-05 Uniquely comprehensive this one stop resource describes thirty ve distinct meditation practices detailing their historical background and contemporary use ways to begin and additional resources The what and why of meditation in general are discussed with emphasis on helping readers discover what particular type of meditators they are Disciplines grounded in Buddhism Tantrism Taoism Judaism and Islam are included as are contemplative prayer Quaker worship and indigenous traditions Drumming trance dancing yoga mindfulness labyrinth walking gardening and even needle crafts are explored in a spirit that invites and instructs novice devotee and healing professional alike How to choose an approach The authors ask questions that steer readers toward options that match their habits preferences and needs      Hooked! Stephanie Kaza, 2005-02-08 At one time or another most of us have experienced an all consuming desire for a material object a desire so strong that it seems like we couldn't possibly be happy without buying this thing Yet when we give in to this impulse we often find ourselves feeling frustrated and empty Advertisers of course aim to hook us in this way and from a global perspective our tendency to get hooked fuels the rampant over consumption that is having a devastating impact on the world's stability and on the environment According to the contributors to this unique anthology Buddhism can shed valuable light on our compulsions to consume Craving and attachment how they arise and how to free ourselves of them are central themes of Buddhist thought The writings in this volume most of which have never been previously published offer fresh perspectives and much needed correctives to our society's tendency to believe that having more will make us happier Hooked includes a range of writings on how to apply Buddhist thought and ethics to understand and combat the problem of over consumption as individuals and collectively Contributors include popular Western teachers Asian masters scholars and practitioners such as Pema Chodron on what is actually happening at the moment we're hooked and how to get beyond that Joseph Goldstein on how mindfulness training can help us stop wanting to want Bhikkhu Thubten Chodron on how consumer mentality influences spiritual practice Judith Simmer Brown on how cultivating spiritually based activism and compassionate action can help us address the negative effects of consumerism Rita Gross on how understanding moderation can curb overconsumption Santikaro Bhikkhu on practicing generosity in a consumer world      Buddhism Leslie Alldritt, Leslie D. Alldritt, 2009 Provides a history of the religion offering information on Buddhist foundations scriptures worldview worship holidays and some of its most famous practitioners      Come to the Quiet John Michael Talbot, 2002 A highly successful Christian recording artist and renowned thinker in the Catholic Church examines the rich tradition of meditation and contemplation deeply embedded within the center of Christianity providing strong exercises for unleashing the spiritual psychological and physical health benefits of meditation Original The Role of Revelation in the World's Religions Beverly Moon, 2014-01-10 The human reception of divine messages known as revelation has often played a central role in world religions This study explores how spirituality and the personal experience of the divine has been expressed and preserved in various religious traditions The phenomenon of revelation is explored and interpreted through examples from across the religious spectrum and six different types of revelation are posited visions and voices divination spirit journey spirit mediation mystical union and divine incarnation Cross-cultural Studies in Curriculum Claudia Eppert, Hongyu Wang, 2008 This volume broadens the horizon of educational research in North America by introducing a comprehensive dialogue between Eastern and Western philosophies and perspectives on the subject of curriculum theory and practice It is a very timely work in light of the progressively globalized nature of education and educational studies and the increasingly widespread attunement to Eastern educational theories in the West By introducing Eastern perspectives this book questions taken for granted thinking in Western educational thought about the foundations of teaching and learning curriculum theory educational policy and educational issues such as teaching for social justice service learning initiatives human rights and environmental education and the teaching of content area subjects It provides an important opportunity for scholars from different countries and different disciplines to establish a solid yet accessible foundation of East West inquiry that furthers the scope and depth of curriculum studies and to disseminate the insights from this book in the venues in which they work Researchers faculty and graduate students in the fields of curriculum theory curriculum and instruction educational foundations philosophy of education international comparative education and multicultural educational studies will welcome this book It is appropriate as a text for upper level courses in these areas Kuan-yin Chün-fang Yü, 2001-03-22 By far one of the most important objects of worship in the Buddhist traditions the bodhisattva Avalokitesvara is regarded as the embodiment of compassion He has been widely revered throughout the Buddhist countries of Asia since the early centuries of the Common Era While he was closely identified with the royalty in South and Southeast Asia and the Tibetans continue to this day to view the Dalai Lamas as his incarnations in China he became a she Kuan yin the Goddess of Mercy and has a very different history The causes and processes of this metamorphosis have perplexed Buddhist scholars for centuries In this groundbreaking comprehensive study Ch n fang Y discusses this dramatic transformation of the male Indian bodhisattva Avalokitesvara into the female Chinese Kuan yin from a relatively minor figure in the Buddha s retinue to a universal savior and one of the most popular deities in Chinese religion Focusing on the various media through which the feminine Kuan yin became constructed and domesticated in China Y thoroughly examines Buddhist scriptures miracle stories pilgrimages popular literature and monastic and local gazetteers as well as the changing iconography reflected in Kuan yin s images and artistic representations to determine the role this material played in this amazing transformation The book eloquently depicts the domestication of Kuan yin as a case study of the indigenization of Buddhism in China and illuminates the ways this beloved deity has affected the lives of all Chinese people down the ages      The Archetypal Imagination James Hollis, 2002-11-25 Also available in an open access full text edition at <http://oaktrust.library.tamu.edu/handle/1969/185764> What we wish to know and most desire remains unknowable and lies beyond our grasp With these words James Hollis leads readers to consider the nature of our human need for meaning in life and for connection to a world less limiting than our own In The Archetypal Imagination Hollis offers a lyrical Jungian appreciation of the archetypal imagination He argues that without the human mind's ability to form energy filled images that link us to worlds beyond our rational and emotional capacities we would have neither culture nor spirituality Drawing upon the work of poets and philosophers Hollis shows the importance of depth experience meaning and connection to an other world Just as humans have instincts for biological survival and social interaction we have instincts for spiritual connection as well Just as our physical and social needs seek satisfaction so the spiritual instincts of the human animal are expressed in images we form to evoke an emotional or spiritual response as in our dreams myths and religious traditions The author draws upon the work of the poet Rainer Maria Rilke's Duino Elegies to elucidate the archetypal imagination in literary forms To underscore the importance of incarnating depth experience he also examines a series of paintings by Nancy Witt With the power of the archetypal imagination available to all of us we are invited to summon courage to take on the world anew to relinquish outmoded identities and defenses and to risk a radical reimagining of the larger possibilities of the world and of the self      International Handbook of Holistic Education John P. Miller, Kelli Nigh, Marni J. Binder, Bruce Novak, Sam Crowell, 2018-09-14 Providing a comprehensive overview of holistic education's history conceptions practices and research this Handbook presents an up to date global picture of the field Organized in five sections the Handbook lays out the field's theoretical and historical foundations offers examples of holistic education in practice with regard to schools programs and pedagogies at all levels presents research methods used in holistic education outlines the growing effort among holistic educators to connect holistic teaching and learning with research practice and examines present trends and future areas of interest in program development inquiry and research This volume is a must have resource for researchers and practitioners and serves as an essential foundational text for courses in the field

Apologetics for a New Generation Sean McDowell, 2009-03-01 Many teenagers leave home for college but don't take their faith with them Popular writer and speaker Sean McDowell offers a solution for this problem a new way of approaching faith that addresses the questions the emerging generation is asking and that incorporates a radically humble and relational approach An impressive list of contributors including Dan Kimball They Like Jesus but Not the Church Brian Godawa Hollywood Worldviews and Josh McDowell show that today's apologetics must employ a clear connection with everyday life an invitation for people to express their doubts and wrestle with tough questions a culturally savvy understanding of the way secular people view Christians an engaging methodology that captures the imagination before engaging the mind a strong emphasis on the resurrection and how it changes everything This resource is imperative for leaders who are ready to engage a new generation with the claims of Christ Yoga Journal, 2000-09 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping readers achieve the balance and well being they seek in their everyday lives With every issue Yoga Journal strives to inform and empower readers to make lifestyle choices that are healthy for their bodies and minds We are dedicated to providing in depth thoughtful editorial on topics such as yoga food nutrition fitness wellness travel and fashion and beauty The Lady and the Peacock Peter Popham, 2023-09-22 Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Aung San Suu Kyi known to the world as an icon for democracy and nonviolent dissent in oppressed Burma and to her followers as simply The Lady has recently returned to international headlines Now this major new biography offers essential reading at a moment when Burma after decades of stagnation is once again in flux Suu Kyi's remarkable life begins with that of her father Aung San The architect of Burma's independence he was assassinated when she was only two Suu Kyi grew up in India where her mother served as ambassador studied at Oxford and worked for three years at the UN in New York In 1972 she married Michael Aris a British scholar They had two sons and for several years she lived as a self described housewife but she never forgot that she was the daughter of Burma's national hero In April 1988 Suu Kyi returned to Burma to nurse her sick mother Within six months she was leading the largest popular revolt in the country's history She was put under house arrest by the regime but her party won a landslide victory in the 1990 elections which the regime refused to recognize In 1991 still under arrest she received the Nobel Peace Prize Altogether she has spent over fifteen years in detention and narrowly escaped assassination twice Peter Popham distills five years of research including covert trips to Burma meetings with Suu Kyi and her friends and family and extracts from the unpublished diaries of her co campaigner and former confidante Ma Thanegi into this vivid portrait of Aung San Suu Kyi illuminating her public successes and private sorrows her intellect and enduring sense of humor her commitment to peaceful revolution and the extreme price she has paid for it Breathing with Luce Irigaray Lenart Skof, Emily A. Holmes, 2013-10-10 An innovative collection examining the implications of the Age of Breath a spiritual shift in human awareness to the needs of the other through breathing Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer Larry Van De Creek, 2013-10-23 Many people agree that prayer is a central feature of spiritual life But what is prayer Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer An Exchange Between Larry Dossey MD and Health Care Chaplains explores common questions and concerns about intercessory prayer or the act of praying for the benefit of others from several different points of view Chaplains priests ministers and clergy in the health care profession will learn how prayer is examined from sources other than traditional Christian views such as parapsychology From Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer you will learn what prayer means to some chaplains and to their ministry and how prayer can make drastic changes in the lives of your parishioners patients and their families Written by eight chaplains the articles in this text are in response to an essay by Larry Dossey a nationally known physician who speaks and writes about prayer The contributors to Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer discuss his points of view on intercessory prayer which are based on quantum physics You will learn if this area of physics can make a difference in how you practice your faith how you worship and what you think about or expect from prayer Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer examines several other topics related to prayer including discovering whether or not intercessory prayer is truly different from other methods of meditation exploring the relationship between intercessory prayer and meditative or praise prayer linking prayers and their results to the expectations or intentions of those who engage in them differentiating between an intercession and a wish deciding for yourself what constitutes evidence or proof when discussing the aspects of prayer how our opinion of prayer relates to how we think about the universe and about God Since Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer focuses on the cooperation between science and theology you will discover that in many instances people believe that the power of prayer should be taken seriously This text also shows you how the questions and functions of prayer are shared by everyone despite religious differences or methods of praying Encompassing research and personal experiences Scientific and Pastoral Perspectives on Intercessory Prayer will help you answer questions about religion and its role in the lives of parishioners patients and clergy as well as provide you with evidence to the positive and healing power of prayer
