How Does It Feel To Be Old:

How Does it Feel to be Old? Norma Farber, 1981 Illustrations of the past and present highlight a seventy year old woman's response to children's questions about growing old a response in verse that is charged with affection sensitivity and courage Identity, Old(er) Age and Migrancy Laura Machat-From, 2017-05-16 Identity research in relation to ethnicity and migration has tended to focus on younger people whilst identity research in relation to ageing and older age has not focused on migrants This inadvertent mutual neglect has led to a lack of identity research that examines the identity categories of older age and migrancy together a lacuna that this dissertation aims to redress This dissertation departs from a social constructionist understanding of identity as situationally accomplished in the interplay between how one defines oneself internally and how others define one externally The questions raised by this perspective and addressed in this dissertation are When in what situations and in relation to whom do older age and migrancy respectively seem to become meaningful for identification How do the identity categories of older age and migrancy seem to be negotiated The empirical material consists of in depth interviews with 24 older migrants 13 men 11 women aged between 55 and 79 who have been living in Sweden for 18 to 61 years Interviewees come from 12 different countries that vary in perceived cultural distance from Sweden The findings suggest that identifications with older age and migrancy seem to be dynamic and flexible rather than necessarily permanently meaningful thus gaining meaning in specific situations and in relation to particular Others External definitions furthermore do not always seem to match with internal ones Regardless of how older age and migrancy are constructed they seem to be negotiable This dissertation thus contributes to identity research by studying older age and migrancy together and furthermore sheds light onto how the social constructionist lens allows us to see variability where stability otherwise would be presumed Identitetsforskning rörande etnicitet och migration har huvudsakligen fokuserat på yngre medan identitetsforskning kring äldre och äldre inte har fokuserat på utrikesfödda Som en konsekvens därav har identitetsforskningen inte studerat hur äldre och invandrarskap tillsammans en lucka som denna avhandling avser att fylla Avhandlingen utgår ifrån en socialkonstruktivistisk förståelse av identitet som situationsbunden och formad genom samspelet mellan hur man definierar sig själv internt och hur andra definierar en externt För gorna som väljs genom detta perspektiv och som avhandlingen fokuserar på rör vi i vilka situationer och i förhållande till vem verkar äldre respektive invandrarskap bli betydelsefulla för identifikationer Hur verkar identitetskategorierna äldre och invandrarskap förhandlas Det empiriska materialet består av djupintervjuer med 24 utrikesfödda äldre 13 män 11 kvinnor i åldrarna mellan 55 och 79 som har bott i Sverige mellan 18 och 61 år Intervjupersonerna kommer från 12 olika länder med olika upplevt kulturellt avstånd från Sverige Resultaten tyder på att identifikationer med äldre och invandrarskap är dynamiska och flexibla snarare än enbart permanent meningsfulla och fördrömd betydelse i vissa situationer och i förhållande till särskilda andra Externa definitioner verkar inte alltid stämma överens med interna definitioner Oavsett hur äldre och invandrarskap r konstruerade s framst r de som f rhandlingsbara Avhandlingen bidrar d rmed till identitetsforskningen genom att studera h g re lder och invandrarskap tillsammans och belyser dessutom hur det socialkonstruktionistiska perspektivet till ter oss att se variation och f r nderlighet d r stabilitet annars f ruts tts Essentials of Psychology Saul Kassin, Gregory J.
