How My Mind Has Changed:

How My Mind Has Changed David Heim, 2012-11-06 Collects reflections by thirteen Christian theologians on their journeys of faith and on the questions that have shaped their writing and scholarship The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry, 2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text the Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminars seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity How Karl Barth Changed My Mind Donald K. McKim, 1998-05-22 How My Mind Has Changed David Heim, 2012-11-06 In this book which continues a renowned series of essays published in the Christian Century thirteen prominent Christian theologians speak in unusually personal voices of their journeys of faith and of the questions that have shaped their writing and scholarship Reflecting a variety of theological positions and approaches these essays feature decisive encounters with prayer scriptural tradition struggles for justice and religious and cultural diversity Some of these changes of mind include a change in denominational allegiance others reflect a shift in method or emphasis prompted by experiences inside or outside the church Some of the essays display a long term theological project that unfolds or deepens in changing circumstances All display the renewed vitality of theology in the postmodern context Contributors include Paul Griffiths Sarah Coakley Mark Noll Nicholas Wolterstorff Carol Zaleski Kathryn Tanner Scott Cairns Robert Jenson Emilie Townes Peter Ochs David Ford Douglas John Hall and Max Stackhouse How I Changed My Mind about Women in Leadership Alan F. Johnson, 2010 Well known evangelical leaders from a broad range of denominational affiliations and ethnic diversity share their surprising journeys from a restrictive view about women in leadership to an open inclusive view that recognizes a full shared partnership of leadership in the home and in the ministries of the church based on gifts not gender Charles River Robert Allan Hill, 2015-02-20 This collection of theological essays spiritual meditations public prayers and biblical interpretations provides a focus day by day for contemplation and reflection By intention they are offered in media res in the midst of the cacophony and chaos of life and particularly of academic life These pages are markings along the journey on the trail and thus perhaps signposts for others coming along the same way To some degree the collection responds to similar recent publication of 200 word daily selections from the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer The assembly of materials revisits a favorite form of an earlier

Dean of Marsh Chapel Howard Thurman Thurman easily and regularly captured thought and feeling in an assortment of forms prayer sermon hymn poem litany sermon and worried very little about repetitions or the jostling inherent in formal variety Charles River follows after these and similar works and is offered as a daily resource for those receiving and offering the divine grace of freedom acceptance forgiveness pardon and love Examining Billy Graham's Theology of Evangelism Thomas P. Johnston,2003-03-12 Examining Billy Graham s Theology of Evangelism was written to advance an unbiased understanding of Billy Graham s theology and practice Theological examination of Graham s sermons revealed four distinct eras in his theology and practice The Early Early Graham pre 1949 The Early Graham 1949 1955 The Middle Graham 1955 1965 The Later Graham 1965 present In each of these eras Graham portrayed a discernible and distinct approach to defining evangelism theological nomenclature and cooperative strategy No literature on Billy Graham discusses in combination this evolution in Graham s theology and practice You are invited to take a fresh look at the teaching and practice of this man who has touched millions of lives through the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ The Christian Century and the Rise of the Protestant Mainline Elesha J. Coffman,2013-04-04 The Christian Century and the Rise of the Protestant Mainline offers the first full length critical study of The Christian Century widely regarded as the most influential religious magazine in America for most of the twentieth century and hailed by Time as Protestantism s most vigorous voice Elesha Coffman narrates the previously untold story of the magazine exploring its chronic financial struggles evolving editorial positions and often fractious relations among writers editors and readers as well as the central role it played in the rise of mainline Protestantism Coffman situates this narrative within larger trends in American religion and society Under the editorship of Charles Clayton Morrison from 1908 1947 the magazine spoke out about many of the most pressing social and political issues of the time from child labor and women s suffrage to war racism and the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II It published such luminaries as Jane Addams Reinhold Niebuhr and Martin Luther King Jr and jostled with the Nation the New Republic and Commonweal as it sought to enlarge its readership and solidify its position as the voice of liberal Protestantism But by the 1950s internal strife between liberals and neo orthodox and the rising challenge of Billy Graham s evangelicalism would shatter the illusion of Protestant consensus The coalition of highly educated theologically and politically liberal Protestants associated with the magazine made a strong case for their own status as shepherds of the American soul but failed to attract a popular following that matched their intellectual and cultural clout Elegantly written and persuasively argued The Christian Century and the Rise of the Protestant Mainline takes readers inside one of the most important religious magazines of the modern era Singing and Dancing for God Chingwala Musopole,2022-07-22 No sooner had northern Malawians started to become Christians in the late 19th century than they began to compose hymns Rather than attempting rational discourse or literary production their first instinct was to sing and dance their faith In this book Augustine Musopole offers us the first comprehensive analysis of the theology found in the hymns a ground breaking contribution to our understanding of African Christianity Emmanuel Levinas' Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology Alain Mayama, 2010 Emmanuel Levinas Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology analyzes Levinas work in relation to two important liberation theologians Gustavo Guti rrez and Jon Sobrino whose scholarship like his needs to be brought into greater contemporary debate about the subject s encounter with the other More specifically this book argues that for Levinas Guti rrez and Sobrino commitment to the neighbor is the necessary context for understanding God They posit the human other as the possibility of the subject s subjectivity To be human is to act with love toward one s neighbor Thus the author articulates the possibility of reading Levinas philosophy as a revalidation of one of the truths of Christianity the concern for the humanity of every human person as expressed in Christian theology in general and liberation theology in particular In order to show the relevance of Levinas philosophy for Christian theology in general the author discusses three Christian scholars Enrique Dussel Jean Luc Marion and Michael Purcell Although they challenge some aspects of Levinas philosophy they nevertheless see its significance for Christian theological anthropology The discussion concludes by proposing Levinas philosophy and liberation theology s turn to the neighbor as significant for addressing contemporary socio political and ethnic conflicts in sub Saharan Africa Change Your Words, Change Your Life Joyce Meyer, 2012-09-11 1 New York Times bestselling author Joyce Meyer discusses the importance of words in Change Your Words Change Your Life Words are a big deal They are containers for power and we have to decide what kind of power we want our words to carry I believe that our words can increase or decrease our level of joy They can affect the answers to our prayers and have a positive or negative effect on our future One might say that our words are a movie screen that reveals what we have been thinking and the attitudes we have Building on the premises of her bestselling books Power Thoughts and Living Beyond Your Feelings Joyce examines how we use words the vehicles that convey our thoughts and emotions and provides a series of guidelines for cultivating talk that is constructive healthy healing and used for good results Topics include The Impact of Words How to Tame Your Tongue How to be Happy When to talk and when not to talk Speaking Faith and Not Fear The Corrosion of Complaints Do you really have to give your opinion The importance of keeping your word The power of speaking God s word How to have a smart mouth In A Dictionary of God s Word at the end of the book Joyce provides dozens of scripture verses arranged by topic and recommends that we read them aloud to strengthen our vocabulary of healing words The Weimar Moment Leonard V. Kaplan, Rudy Koshar, 2012-01-26 The Weimar Moment s evocative assault on closure and political reaction its offering of democracy against the politics of narrow self interest cloaked in nationalist appeals to Volk and community or as would be the case in Nazi Germany race cannot but appeal to us today This appeal its historical grounding and content its complexities and tensions its variegated expressions across the networks of power and thought is the essential context of the present volume whose basic premise is unhappiness with Hegel s remark that we learn no more from history than we cannot learn from it The challenge of the papers in this volume is to provide the material to confront the present effectively drawing from what we can and do understand Economy, Difference, Empire Gary J. Dorrien, 2010

Sourcing the major traditions of progressive Christian social ethics social gospel liberalism Niebuhrian realism and liberation theology Gary Dorrien argues for the social ethical necessity of social justice politics In carefully reasoned essays he focuses on three subjects the ethics and politics of economic justice racial and gender justice and antimilitarism making a constructive case for economic democracy along with a liberationist understanding of racial and gender justice and an anti imperial form of liberal internationalism In Dorrien s view the three major discourse traditions of progressive Christian social ethics share a fundamental commitment to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice His reflections on these topics feature innovative analyses of major figures such as Walter Rauschenbusch Reinhold Niebuhr James Burnham Norman Thomas and Michael Harrington and an extensive engagement with contemporary intellectuals such as Rosemary R Ruether Katie Cannon Gregory Baum and Cornel West Dorrien also weaves his personal experiences into his narrative especially his involvement in social justice movements He includes a special chapter on the 2008 presidential campaign and the historic candidacy of Barack Obama Karl Barth's Critically Realistic Dialectical Theology Bruce L. McCormack, 1997

McCormack is master of this voluminous material He is scrupulously at home in the intricate dramatic background of Swiss socialist politics The result is a masterly study often as compelling as its theme George Steiner Times Literary Supplement This meticulous and definitive study supersedes most previous interpretations Colin Gunton Theological Book Review it should quickly attain classic status It is an exceptionally fine and erudite piece of work The results of this painstaking attention to detail are truly ground breaking This is a major intellectual achievement an interpretative act of great courage and Barth studies will never look the same Graham Ward Expository Times This book is a new major intellectual biography of perhaps the most influential theologian of the twentieth century Karl Barth It offers the first full scale revision of the well known theologian Hans Urs Balthasar s seminal interpretation of Barth which was first published in 1951 Drawing on a wealth of material much of it unpublished during Barth s lifetime as well as a thorough acquaintance with the best of recent German scholarship Professor McCormack demonstrates that the fundamental decision which would control the whole of Barth s development the turn to a new critically realistic form of theological objectivism was already made during the years in which Barth was at work on his first commentary on Romans Professor McCormack further argues that the most significant subsequent decisions both material and methodological were made in Barth s Gottingen Dogmatics of 1924 5 and not later in the 1931 book on Anselm as has often been alleged Finally he seeks to show that von Balthasar s description of a turn from dialectic to analogy which provided the foundation for the neo orthodox reading of Barth in the English speaking world fails to take seriously enough the extent to which dialectic remained a constitutive feature of Barth s outlook in the Church Dogmatics This unique and important work provides not simply a fresh interpretation of Barth s development but also a new paradigm for understanding the whole of Barth s theology Writings in the Social Philosophy and Ethics /

Breakfast with Barth Donald K. McKim,2019-03-22 Breakfast with Barth Daily Devotions provides extracts from the writings of theologian Karl Barth The short devotion that follows explains the meaning of Barth s quotation in light of his overall writings It also explores the meanings of Barth s thought for contemporary Christian living The goal is to introduce readers to Barth s theology so it can be readily understood and also to see ways Barth s theological insights expressed in the initial quotation can shape our beliefs and help us live the life of Christian faith in today s world

Anselm Revisited Robert D. Shofner,1974 Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen,2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life s contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort

Karl Barth and Liberation Theology Paul Dafydd Jones,Kaitlyn Dugan,2022-12-15 This volume puts Barth and liberation theologies in critical and constructive conversation With incisive essays from a range of noted scholars it forges new connections between Barth s expansive corpus and the multifaceted world of Christian liberation theology It shows how Barth and liberation theologians can help us to make sense of and perhaps even to respond to some of the most pressing issues of our day race and racism in the United States changing understandings of sex gender and sexuality the ongoing degradation of the ecosphere the relationship between faith theological reflection and the arts the challenge of decolonizing Christian thought and ecclesial and political life in the Global South

The Path of the Buddha Renuka Singh,2004 So compelling is the story of Prince Siddharta Gautama that it loses none of its sheen with a retelling Impelled by a desire to deal with the sorrows of human existence he renounces the world when barely ninety nine and find Buddhism Varied and meaningful this book provides a rare glimpse into Buddhism
