Paraphernalia Steven Connor, 2011-06-09 From keys and handkerchiefs to sweets and rubber bands the curious objects we surround ourselves with though often seemingly mundane have a magical quality Their surprising power to disturb soothe seduce or absorb give these quirky objects histories and meanings we rarely ponder Yet we would be lost without them Take bags for example Why do most women carry handbags while men rely on pockets Why do so many houses have bags of bags And why do we let the cat out the bag or give someone the sack What significance do our bags hold for us In this highly imaginative and entertaining book Steven Connor embarks on a historical philosophical and linguistic journey that explores our relationships with the curious things with which we have a forgotten but daily intimacy Staring Rosemarie Garland-Thomson, 2009-04-17 Drawing on examples from art media fashion history and memoir cultural critic Rosemarie Garland Thomson tackles a basic human interaction which has remained curiously unexplored the human stare In the first book of its kind Garland Thomson defines staring explores the factors that motivate it and considers the targets and the effects of the stare While borrowing from psychology and biology to help explain why the impulse to stare is so powerful she also enlarges and complicates these formulations with examples from the realm of imaginative culture Featuring over forty illustrations Staring captures the stimulating combination of symbolic material and emotional factors that make staring so irresistible while endeavoring to shift the usual response to staring shame into an engaged self consideration Elegant and provocative this unique study advances new ways of thinking about visuality and the body that will appeal to readers who are interested in the overlap between the humanities and human behaviors Alienation Rahel Jaeggi, 2014-08-26 The Hegelian Marxist idea of alienation fell out of favor after the postmetaphysical rejection of humanism and essentialist views of human nature In this book Rahel Jaeggi draws on the Hegelian philosophical tradition phenomenological analyses grounded in modern conceptions of agency and recent work in the analytical tradition to reconceive alienation as the absence of a meaningful relationship to oneself and others which manifests in feelings of helplessness and the despondent acceptance of ossified social roles and expectations A revived approach to alienation helps critical social theory engage with phenomena such as meaninglessness isolation and indifference By severing alienation's link to a problematic conception of human essence while retaining its social philosophical content Jaeggi provides resources for a renewed critique of social pathologies a much neglected concern in contemporary liberal political philosophy Her work revisits the arguments of Rousseau Hegel Kierkegaard and Heidegger placing them in dialogue with Thomas Nagel Bernard Williams and Charles Taylor Death of an Art Collector Robert Goldsborough, 2019-05-14 An art hoarder's suspicious death paints a nasty picture for Nero Wolfe No matter how fabulously he's being courted infamously dour art hog Arthur Wordell isn't keen on favoring the new Guggenheim Museum with his extensive collection Even at the urging of his beloved daughter Nadia Then the night after the museum's fete Arthur takes a twenty story plunge from the window of his Times Square office Nadia thinks it's no mere
