Kibing The Rain:

We're Safe When We're Alone Nghiem Tran, 2023-10-03 Son is real Son was saved from a life he cannot remember Son is a human in a mythical world of ghosts This is what Father tells him Son has lived his entire life inside the mansion He is a good child He reads practices piano studies and watches ghosts tend the farmland through a window in the attic When Father decides it is time for Son to venture outside Son's desire to please Father overpowers his fear and he must contend with questions he never wanted to face What are the relentlessly grinning ghosts hiding Has a ghost taken control of Father What answers or horrors lie in the forest And who will stop the mysterious encroaching shadows Nghiem Tran's debut inverts the haunted house tale shaping it into a moving exploration of loss coming of age in a collapsing world and the battle between isolation and assimilation
