Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers The Prince Of Fire Radmila Gorup, Nadezda Obradovic, 2014-08-09 Winner of the 1998 Misha Djordjevic Award for the best book on Serbian culture in English Editors Gorup and Obradovic have collected stories from thirty five outstanding writers in this first English anthology of Serbian fiction in thirty years The anthology representing a great variety of literary styles and themes includes works by established writers with international reputations as well as promising new writers spanning the generation born between 1930 and 1960 These stories may lead to a greater understanding of the current events in the former Yugoslavia From Practice to Praxis: A reflexive turn Susan Groundwater-Smith, 2016-11-10 From Practice to Praxis is an exploration of the development of ethical practice as it applies to the meaning of quality within the tradition of practitioner inquiry and participatory research Chronicling some of her most important works this is a compelling overview of Susan Groundwater Smith's contribution to the evolution of the nexus between thinking and theory as it stands between the academy and the field It traces the steps between instrumental reasoning towards a more liberatory and challenging stance The book selects from a number of publications each representing the genesis of the nascent ideas that have informed Susan's practice as a scholar and researcher Taking a praxis stance draws attention not only to procedural concerns how things are done but also substantive issues that are associated with different forms of dialogue and trustworthiness why things are done In addition to the assemblage of articles and chapters the book is prefaced by a long essay that reveals those features of the writer's self understanding as it is illuminated throughout the selection The work is situated within a professional life history as well as relating to extant writings on theory and practice within a complex cultural and ever changing professional educational environment From Practice to Praxis will appeal to initial teacher education students in both primary and secondary settings as well as post graduate students with an interest in action research participant research with both practitioners in the field and young people Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important. Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre. A wide range of topic entries explore the history, criticism, theory, production, dissemination and reception of the novel. A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world.

Against Expression Craig Dworkin, Kenneth Goldsmith, 2011-01-17 Charles Bernstein has described conceptual poetry pregnant with thought. Against Expression the premier anthology of conceptual writing presents work that is by turns thoughtful, funny, provocative and disturbing. Editors Craig Dworkin and Kenneth Goldsmith chart the trajectory of the conceptual aesthetic from early precursors such as Samuel Beckett and Marcel Duchamp through major avant garde groups of the past century including Dada, Oulipo, Fluxus and language poetry to name just a few. The works of more than a hundred writers from Aasprong to Zykov demonstrate a remarkable variety of new ways of thinking about the nature of texts, information and art using found, appropriated and randomly generated texts to explore the possibilities of non-expressive language.

Book Jacket The Novel: An Alternative History, 1600-1800 Steven Moore, 2013-08-29 Winner of the Christian Gauss Award for excellence in literary scholarship from the Phi Beta Kappa Society. Having excavated the world's earliest novels in his previous book, literary historian Steven Moore explores in this sequel the remarkable flowering of the novel between the years 1600 and 1800 from Don Quixote to America's first big novel, an homage to Cervantes entitled Modern Chivalry. This is the period of such classic novels as Tom Jones, Candide and Dangerous Liaisons, but beyond the dozen or so recognized classics there are hundreds of other interesting novels that appeared then, known only to specialists. Spanish picaresques, French heroic romances, massive Chinese novels, Japanese graphic novels, eccentric English novels and the earliest American novels. These minor novels are not only interesting in their own right but also provide the context needed to appreciate why the major novels were major breakthroughs. The novel experienced an explosive growth spurt during these centuries as novelists experimented with different forms and genres: epistolary novels, romances, Gothic thrillers, novels in verse, parodies, science fiction, episodic road trips and family sagas along with quirky, unclassifiable experiments in fiction that resemble contemporary avant garde works. As in his previous volume, Moore privileges the innovators and outriders, those who kept the novel novel. In the most comprehensive history of this period ever written, Moore examines over 400 novels from around the world in a lively style that is as entertaining as it is informative. Though written for a general audience, The Novel: An Alternative History also provides the scholarly apparatus required by the serious student of the period. This sequel like its predecessor is a zestfully encyclopedic, avidly opinionated and dazzlingly fresh history of the most elastic of literary forms.

These extraordinarily diverse conversations range far beyond his own compositions and even beyond the sphere of music exploring issues of broad cultural interest.

Tea gave birth to paper money the Opium Wars and Hong Kong triggered the Anglo Dutch wars and the American war of independence shaped the economies and military history of T'ng and S'ng China and moulded Chinese art and culture. Whilst black tea dominates the global market today such tea is a recent invention. East Central Europe since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Lavinia Stan, 2024-12-12 This groundbreaking treatment of post communist developments in East Central Europe examines politics economics media religious institutions transitional justice gender inequality and literature highlighting the overt functions latent functions and side effects associated with each sphere. Communism in East Central Europe had cracks from the beginning as uprisings in East Germany in 1953 and Hungary in 1956 demonstrated. But with the establishment of the Independent Trade Union Solidarity in Poland in the Summer of 1980 communism went into steady decline and between 1988 and 1991 crumbled. What followed has been an unsteady transition to various forms of often corrupt pluralism with democracy doing best in the Czech Republic with the exception of the years 2017 2021 and Slovenia and worst in Hungary Albania Serbia and Bosnia Herzegovina. Drawing on the functionalist theory of Robert K Merton the authors examine what policymakers communist and post communist were or are trying to accomplish the intended and unintended results of these policies and the side effects they have produced. This volume will be of interest not only to specialists in East Central Europe but also to graduate and undergraduate students members of the diplomatic corps and general readers
