Language Anxiety From Theory And Research To Classroom Implications:

Language Anxiety Elaine Kolker Horwitz, Dolly J. Young, 1991 Finally a comprehensive discussion of language anxiety this collection of papers considers the points of view of teachers and students as well as of theorists and researchers What is language anxiety How does it affect language learners How is it related to other types of anxiety What can teachers and program directors do to minimize language anxiety in their classrooms These and other issues are addressed in this landmark text Back cover Anxiety in Schools Jerrell C. Cassady, 2010 Anxiety in Schools presents current theory and research addressing both context and content specific contributions to anxieties experienced in schools The concept of academic anxiety is a new construct formed through the content within this book and is proposed as a unifying representation for various forms of specialized manifestations of anxiety in school settings With contributions from leaders in their respective fields of academic anxieties the book provides detailed and thorough explorations of the varied and specific orientations toward anxieties in school settings Explicit attention is given to the broader construct of academic anxiety and the contextual influences that can be brought to overcome or mitigate the impact of the many academic anxieties encountered by learners
