Language Of The Hand 19:

The Book of a Hundred Hands Cole Swensen, 2005-04 The hand is second only to language in defining the human being and its constant presence makes it a ready reminder of our humanity with all its privileges and obligations In this dazzling collection Cole Swensen explores the hand from any angle approachable by language and art Her hope to exhaust the hand as subject matter her joy the fact that she couldn't These short poems reveal the hand from a hundred different perspectives Incorporating sign language drawing manuals paintings from the 14th to the 20th century shadow puppets imagined histories positions the hand as a boatless sail and professions the hand as window in which the panes infinitesimal Cole Swensen's fine hand is that which augments our understanding and appreciation of this freak wing this wheel that comforts none yet remains a fruit the size and shape of the heart

The Languages of COVID-19 Piotr

Blumczynski, Steven Wilson, 2022-11-30 This collection advocates languages based translational research to be part of the partnerships and collaborations required to make sense of and respond to COVID 19 as one of the major global challenges of our time Bringing together scholars and practitioners from a wide range of disciplines this volume is bound by a common thread stressing the importance of linguistic sensitivity inter cultural knowledge and translational mediation in the frontline response to COVID 19 Featuring contributors from around the world and reflecting on the language used to frame COVID 19 in diverse cultural contexts of the Global North and Global South the book proposes that paying attention to the transmission of ideas ideologies narratives and history through processes of translation results in a broadening of social cultural and medical understandings of COVID 19 Spanning nearly 20 signed and spoken languages the volume argues that only in going beyond an Anglophone perspective can we better understand the cultural social and political facets of the pandemic and in turn produce a comprehensive efficient global response to disease management This book will be of interest to scholars in translation and interpreting studies modern languages applied linguistics cultural studies Deaf Studies intercultural communication and medical humanities
