So you're just getting over being sick, and you have an important test. You take out your number-two pencil and another student comes in for help, so a teacher has to leave the room. You then try to block that out when another teacher walks in and says, "excuse me." Then, off in the background, you can hear that your friend is going off with copies. Then, off in the background, you can hear that your friend is going off to eat for lunch. Now you can't concentrate.

test. This is . . . your life.
 Don't try looking forward to take tests in policy rooms.
