Processability and Language Acquisition in the Asia-Pacific Region Satomi Kawaguchi, Bruno Di Biase, Yumiko Yamaguchi, 2023-02-02 This PALART volume makes an original addition to the Series as it opens a stimulating window on the Asia Pacific region of the world by bringing together a great deal of empirical and theoretical new work in Second Language Acquisition within the Processability Theory PT framework Readers will be pleasantly surprised to be able to access within one publication so much novel and overview information on SLA while maintaining its focus on PT its theoretical developments including its 2005 Pienemann et al and 2015 Bettoni Di Biase extensions and how they relate to PT s foundation work Pienemann 1998 as well as its applications to language learning and teaching in Japanese Chinese Hindi

Malay and English in countries of the Asia Pacific region including Australia This volume demonstrates the vitality and the dynamic nature of PT and its potential as a tool for understanding SLA both theory and practice The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves, Ryo Watanabe, 2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region The Vanishing Languages of the Pacific Rim Osahito Miyaoka, Osamu Sakiyama, Michael E. Krauss, 2007-04-12

Publisher description International Students in the Asia Pacific Peter Kell, Gillian Vogl, 2012-02-27 This book documents the growing mobility of international students in the Asia Pacific International students comprise over 2.7m students and it is estimated by the OECD that this will top 8 million in 2020 The great majority of them are students from the Asian countries who study in the Europe North America and Asia In addition countries such as Singapore Malaysia and Hong Kong are becoming education hubs and are proposing to attract international students Over 42% of international students come from Asia and this is predicted to continue with the strong presence of students from China India Korea and Japan continuing A younger population a growing middle class and shortages of quality education providers in the Asia Pacific region means that this mobility will be a feature of the future This book explores questions around the mobility of international students in the context of the global economy and an increasingly competitive trans national education market It also explores questions about the experience of international students principally from the Asia Pacific region at a time of increased global insecurity and growing hostile reactions to foreigners in the post September 11th era This book emerges from empirical work from several research projects funded by the World Bank and several community projects to support international students The focus is also on the way in which student mobility promotes growing connection within the Asia Pacific as well as other regions and provides the foundations for new notions of global citizenships International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee, Phillip Brown, A. Lin Goodwin, Andy Green, 2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world English Medium Instruction in Higher Education in Asia-Pacific Ben Fenton-Smith, Pamela Humphreys, Ian Walkinshaw, 2017-03-19 This volume draws together the viewpoints and research findings of leading scholars and informed local practitioner researchers throughout Asia Pacific about the issues and challenges of English as a medium of instruction EMI at higher education institutions in that region Specifically it addresses four key themes Macro level EMI policy and practice institutional implications for pedagogy stakeholder perceptions of EMI and challenges of interpersonal interaction in EMI contexts The book is among the first to critically examine the emerging global phenomenon of English as a medium of instruction and the first title to exclusively explore Asia Pacific tertiary contexts It will be of particular interest to policy makers in international education and tertiary educators seeking blueprints for practice as well as scholars and postgraduate students of English as a lingua franca English for academic purposes academic language and learning and language education in Asia Pacific
