Enoughs Enough And Other Rules Of Life:

Enough's Enough Calvin Trillin, 1992 A sparkling commentary on our national life public and private at the close of the 80s as seen through the eyes of a fresh original provocative inspiring and funny writer People Origins of the Specious Patricia T. O'Conner, Stewart Kellerman, 2010-08-24 Do you cringe when a talking head pronounces niche as NITCH Do you get bent out of shape when your teenager begins a sentence with and Do you think British spellings are more civilised than the American versions If you answered yes to any of those questions you re myth informed In Origins of the Specious word mavens Patricia T O Conner and Stewart Kellerman reveal why some of grammar s best known rules aren t and never were rules at all This playfully witty rigorously researched book sets the record straight about bogus word origins politically correct fictions phony fran ais fake acronyms and more Here are some shockers They was once commonly used for both singular and plural much the way you is today And an eighteenth century female grammarian of all people is largely responsible for the all purpose he From the Queen s English to street slang this eye opening romp will be the toast of grammarphiles and the salvation of grammarphobes Take our word for it How to Tell God from the Devil A. Roy Eckardt, 2018-01-16 How to Tell God From the Devil is the first book to depict the relationship among comedy the Devil and God Drawing from Jewish and Christian theories Eckardt describes comedy as a means to distinguish the divine from the diabolic He presents a thorough critique of efforts throughout history to justify God in the presence of radical evil and suffering How to Tell God From the Devil is a sequel to Eckardt s fascinating earlier study Sitting in the Earth and Laughing Eckardt offers a theological vision of the comic and shows its practical use in differentiating God from the Devil The viewpoint presupposed is a special application of the incongruity theory of humor which sees humor as an attempt to deal with inexplicable occurrences Eckardt shows how humor can make faulty explanations tolerable for examining evil and suffering particularly the notion that God can somehow be excused for the terrible evils extant in the world Eckardt critiques dualistic views that make the Devil and God independent sovereign beings and monistic views that try to reduce evil to non being Eckardt holds God to be ultimately responsible for evil in such ways that the only final resolution of evil if there is such is a form of divine comedy Eckardt employs a variety of historical psychological sociological philosophical and theological sources He discusses and assesses such diverse figures as Martin Luther Reinhold Niebuhr Zen Buddhists Conrad Hyers Nancy A Walker Jon D Levenson and Harvey Cox How to Tell God From The Devil is an exceptional work and will be significant and enjoyable for sociologists theologians philosophers and specialists concerned with the study of humor Life Skills Curriculum: ARISE Books for Teens: Enough's Enough (Instructor's Manual) ARISE Foundation Staff, 2011-07-02 Enough s Enough Teens may not listen to authority figures but they do listen to each other These firsthand stories of the constant fear danger and violence of life inside a gang are a way to reach young people on the cusp of making the life destroying decision to join a gang Also included are interviews with adult and juvenile inmates who talk about their gang experiences posters and discussion questions to use with the stories This book contains 206 pages packed with information to aid any life skills or gang prevention program in saving young lives

The New New Journalism Robert Boynton, 2005-03-08 Forty years after Tom Wolfe Hunter S Thompson and Gay Talese launched the New Journalism movement Robert S Boynton sits down with nineteen practitioners of what he calls the New New Journalism to discuss their methods writings and careers The New New Journalists are first and foremost brilliant reporters who immerse themselves completely in their subjects Jon Krakauer accompanies a mountaineering expedition to Everest Ted Conover works for nearly a year as a prison guard Susan Orlean follows orchid fanciers to reveal an obsessive subculture few knew existed Adrian Nicole LeBlanc spends nearly a decade reporting on a family in the South Bronx And like their muckraking early twentieth century precursors they are drawn to the most pressing issues of the day Alex Kotlowitz Leon Dash and William Finnegan to race and class Ron Rosenbaum to the problem of evil Michael Lewis to boom and bust economies Richard Ben Cramer to the nitty gritty of politics How do they do it In these interviews they reveal the techniques and inspirations behind their acclaimed works from their felt tip pens tape recorders long car rides and assumed identities to their intimate understanding of the way a truly great story unfolds Interviews with Gay Talese Jane Kramer Calvin Trillin Richard Ben Cramer Ted Conover Alex Kotlowitz Richard Preston William Langewiesche Eric Schlosser Leon Dash William Finnegan Jonathan Harr Jon Krakauer Adrian Nicole LeBlanc Michael Lewis Susan Orlean Ron Rosenbaum Lawrence Weschler Lawrence Wright

Ethics in Congress Dennis F. Thompson, 2000-07-26 More members of Congress have been investigated and sanctioned for ethical misconduct in the past decade and a half than in the entire previous history of the institution But individual members are probably less corrupt than they once were Stricter ethics codes and closer scrutiny by the press and public have imposed standards no previous representatives have had to face Dennis Thompson shows how the institution itself is posing new ethical challenges how the complexity of the environment in which members work creates new occasions for corruption and invites more calls for accountability Instead of the individual corruption that has long been the center of attention Thompson focuses on institutional corruption which refers to conduct that under certain conditions is an acceptable part of the job of a representative Members are required to solicit campaign contributions and they are expected to help constituents with their problems with government but some ways of doing these jobs give rise to institutional corruption The author moves the discussion beyond bribery extortion and simple personal gain to delve into implicit understandings ambiguous favors and political advantage Thompson examines many major ethics cases of recent years Among them the case of David Durenberger accused of supplementing his income through book promotions the case of the Keating Five accused of using undue influence with the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on behalf of Lincoln Savings and Loan owner Charles Keating and the case of House Speaker James Wright accused of several offenses Thompson shows why neither the electoral process nor the judicial process is sufficient and argues for stronger ethics committees and the creation of a new quasi independent body to take over some of the enforcement process He offers more than a dozen recommendations for changes in the procedures and practices of ethics in Congress The book features a list of American Literary Journalists, 1945-1995 Arthur Jesse Kaul, 1997 Essays on American literary journalists whose writings appeared from 1945 to 1995 During this period literary journalists and novelists turned journalists produced nonfiction writing of enduring aesthetic cultural and political significance reshaping the contours of contemporary American letters These journalists achieved a notoriety and status in literature winning major journalism and literary prizes

Quite Enough of Calvin Trillin Calvin Trillin, 2011-09-13 For at least forty years Calvin Trillin has committed blatant acts of funniness all over the place in The New Yorker in one man off Broadway shows in his deadline poetry for The Nation in comic novels like Tepper Isn't Going Out in books chronicling his adventures as a happy eater and in the column USA Today called simply the funniest regular column in journalism Now Trillin selects the best of his funny stuff and organizes it into topics like high finance My long term investment strategy has been criticized as being entirely too dependent on Publishers Clearing House Sweepstakes and the literary life The average shelf life of a book is somewhere between milk and yogurt In Quite Enough of Calvin Trillin the author deals with such subjects as the horrors of witnessing a voodoo economics ceremony and the mystery of how his mother managed for thirty years to feed her family nothing but leftovers We have a team of anthropologists in there now looking for the original meal and the true story behind the Shoe Bomber The one terrorist in England with a sense of humor a man known as Khalid the Droll had said to the cell I bet I can get them all to take off their shoes in airports He remembers Sarah Palin with a poem called On a Clear Day I See Vladivostok and John Edwards with one called Yes I Know He's a Mill Worker's Son but There's Hollywood in That Hair In this the definitive collection of his humor Calvin Trillin is prescient insightful and invariably hilarious
