At a Theater or Drive-in Near You Randall Clark, 2013-12-17 Millions of Americans have been thrilled scared titillated and shocked by exploitation movies low budget films with many scenes of sex violence and other potentially lurid elements The term derives from the fact that promoters of such films exploit the contents in advertising that plays up the sexual or violent aspects of the films This is the first comprehensive study of the American exploitation film to be published It discusses five distinct genres the teen movie the sexploitation film the martial arts movie the blaxploitation film and the lawbreaker picture Contained within these genres are many popular American film types including beach movies biker pictures and women s prison movies The study provides a history and sociopolitical analysis of each genre focusing on significant films in those genres It also discusses the economics of exploitation films and their place in the motion picture industry the development of drive in theaters the significance of the teenage audience and the effect of the videocassette Finally the book applies major film and cultural theories to establish an aesthetic for evaluating the exploitation film and to explore the relationship between film and audience

New York Magazine, 1982-03-15 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

How He-Man Mastered the Universe Brian C. Baer, 2017-03-21 Elaborate cinematic universes and sophisticated marketing tie ins are commonplace in entertainment today It's easy to forget that the transmedia trend began in 1982 with a barbarian action figure He Man and the other characters in Mattel's popular Masters of the Universe toy line quickly found their way into comic books video games multiple television series and a Hollywood film The original animated series 1983-1985 was the first based on an action figure and the cult classic Masters of the Universe 1987 was the first toy inspired live action feature film But it wasn't easy He Man faced adversaries more dangerous than Skeletor entertainment lawyers Hollywood executives even the Reagan administration The heroes and villains of Eternia did more than shape the childhoods of the toy buying public they formed the modern entertainment landscape

The Asian Influence on Hollywood Action Films Barna William Donovan, 2014-09-17 Filmmakers of the Pacific Rim have been delivering punches and flying kicks to the Hollywood movie industry for years This book explores the ways in which the storytelling and cinematic techniques of Asian popular culture have migrated from grainy low budget martial arts movies to box office blockbusters such as The Magnificent Seven Star Wars The Matrix and Transformers While special effects gained prominence the raw and gritty power of live combat emerged as an audience favorite spawning Asian stars Bruce Lee and Jackie Chan and martial arts trained stars Chuck Norris and Steven Seagal As well as capturing the sheer onscreen adrenaline rush that characterizes the films discussed this work explores the impact of violent cinematic entertainment and why it is often misunderstood

Making Sense of People and Place in Linguistic Landscapes Amiana Peck, Christopher Stroud, Quentin Williams, 2018-10-18 This volume offers comprehensive analyses of how we live continuously in a multiplicity and simultaneity of places It explores what it means to be in place the variety of ways in which meanings of place are made and how relationships to others are mediated through the linguistic and material semiotics of place Drawing on examples of linguistic landscapes LL over the world such as gentrified landscapes in Johannesburg and Brunswick Mozambican memorializations volatile train graffiti in Stockholm Brazilian protest marches Guadeloupian Creole signs microscapes of souvenirs in Guinea Bissau and old landscapes of apartheid in South Africa in contemporary time this book explores how we are what we are through how we are emplaced Across these examples world leading contributors explore how LLs contribute to the re imagining of different selves in the living past living the past in the present alternative presents and imagined futures It focuses particularly on how the LL in all of these mediations is read through emotionality and affect creating senses of belonging precarity and hope across a simultaneous multiplicity of worlds The volume offers a reframing of linguistics landscape research in a geohumanities framework emphasizing negotiations of self in place in LL studies building upon a rich body of LL research With over 40 illustrations it covers various methodological and epistemological issues such as the need for extended temporal engagement with landscapes a mobile approach to landscapes and how bodies engage with texts

Performative Inter-Actions in African Theatre 3 Kene Igweonu, Osita Okagbue, 2014-01-02 This book is part of a three volume book set published under the general title of Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre Each of the three books in the set has a unique subtitle that works to better focus its content and differentiates it from the other two volumes The contributors backgrounds and global spread adequately reflect the international focus of the three books that make up the collection The contributions in their various ways demonstrate the many advances and ingenious solutions adopted by African theatre practitioners in tackling some of the challenges arising from the adverse colonial experience as well as the one sided advance of globalisation The contributions attest to the thriving nature of African theatre and performance which in the face of these challenges has managed to retain its distinctiveness while at the same time acknowledging contesting and appropriating influences from elsewhere into an aesthetic that is identifiably African Consequently the three books are presented as a comprehensive exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance both on the continent and diaspora Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre 3 Making Space Rethinking Drama and Theatre in Africa offers essays that seek to re conceptualise notions of drama and theatre in Africa and therefore redefine our understanding of the practice role and place they occupy in a constantly evolving African socio cultural contexts Contributions in Making Space Rethinking Drama and Theatre in Africa range from essays that explore notions of space in performance to those that challenge the perceived orthodoxy of conventional forms and approaches to theatre

These Fists Break Bricks (Revised and Expanded Edition) Grady Hendrix, Chris Poggiali, 2025-07-08 From New York Times bestselling author Grady Hendrix and film historian Chris Poggiali comes the full story of how kung fu movies came to and conquered America in this revised and expanded edition When a Hollywood studio released Five Fingers of Death to thrill seeking Times Square moviegoers in 1973 only a handful of Black and Asian audience members knew the difference between an Iron Fist and an Eagle s Claw That changed overnight as Five Fingers kicked off a kung fu craze that would earn millions at the box office send TV ratings soaring influence the birth of hip hop reshape the style of action we see in movies today and introduce America to some of the biggest Asian stars to ever hit motion picture screens These Fists Break Bricks offers a lavishly illustrated exploration of how these high kicking brick breaking movies came to America and raised hell until greed infomercials and racist fearmongering shut them down For the first time the full and wild story is told including how CIA agents secretly funded karate movies and how The New York Times fabricated a fear campaign about Black karate gangs as well as the history of Black martial arts in America and the onslaught of Bruce Lee imitators after his death With a foreword by RZA of the Wu Tang Clan and brand new material on superstars like Jackie Chan Michelle Yeoh and Donnie Yen plus spotlights on unsung performers film poster artists and money laundering film distributors this revised and expanded edition is a master class in kung fu cinema history
