Spirituality does not depend upon the reading of Scriptures or upon learned interpretations of Sacred Books or upon fine theological discussions but upon the realization of unchangeable Truth In India a man is called truly spiritual or religious not because he has written some book not because he possesses the gift of oratory and can preach eloquent sermons but because he expresses divine powers through his words and deeds A thoroughly illiterate man can attain to the highest state of spiritual perfection without going to any school or university and without reading any Scripture if he can conquer his animal nature by realizing his true Self and its relation to the universal Spirit or in other words if he can attain to the knowledge of that Truth which dwells within him and which is the same as the Infinite Source of existence intelligence and bliss He who has mastered all the Scriptures philosophies and sciences may be regarded by society as an intellectual giant yet he cannot be equal to that unlettered man who having realized the eternal Truth has become one with it who sees God everywhere and who lives on this earth as an embodiment of Divinity The writer had the good fortune to be acquainted with such a divine man in India His name was R. Makrishna He never went to any school neither had he read any of the Scriptures philosophies or scientific treatises of the world yet he had reached perfection by realizing God through the practice of Yoga These powers begin to manifest in the soul that is awakened to the ultimate Reality of the universe It is then that the sixth sense of direct perception of higher truths develops and frees it from dependence upon the sense powers This sixth sense or spiritual eye is latent in each individual but it opens in a few only among millions and they are known as Yogis With the vast majority it is in a rudimentary state covered by a thick veil When however through the practice of Yoga it unfolds in a man he becomes conscious of the higher invisible realms and of everything that exists on the soul plane Whatever he says harmonizes with the sayings and writings of all the great

Seers of Truth of every age and clime He does not study books he has no need to do so for he knows all that the human intellect can conceive He can grasp the purport of a book without reading its text he also understands how much the human mind can express through words and he is familiar with that which is beyond thoughts and which consequently can never be expressed by words How to be a Yogi Swami Abhedānanda,1902 Vedānta Philosophy: How to Be a Yogi Swami Abhedananda,2020-09-28 True religion is extremely practical it is indeed based entirely upon practice and not upon theory or speculation of any kind for religion begins only where theory ends Its object is to mould the character unfold the divine nature of the soul and make it possible to live on the spiritual plane its ideal being the realization of Absolute Truth and the manifestation of Divinity in the actions of the daily life Spirituality does not depend upon the reading of Scriptures or upon learned interpretations of Sacred Books or upon fine theological discussions but upon the realization of unchangeable Truth In India a man is called truly spiritual or religious not because he has written some book not because he possesses the gift of oratory and can preach eloquent sermons but because he expresses divine powers through his words and deeds A thoroughly illiterate man can attain to the highest state of spiritual perfection without going to any school or university and without reading any Scripture if he can conquer his animal nature by realizing his true Self and its relation to the universal Spirit or in other words if he can attain to the knowledge of that Truth which dwells within him and which is the same as the Infinite Source of existence intelligence and bliss He who has mastered all the Scriptures philosophies and sciences may be regarded by society as an intellectual giant yet he cannot be equal to that unlettered man who having realized the eternal Truth has become one with it who sees God everywhere and who lives on this earth as an embodiment of Divinity The writer had the good fortune to be acquainted with such a divine man in India His name was R makrishna He never went to any school neither had he read any of the Scriptures philosophies or scientific treatises of the world yet he had reached perfection by realizing God through the practice of Yoga Hundreds of men and women came to see him and were spiritually awakened and uplifted by the divine powers which this illiterate man possessed To day he is revered and worshipped by thousands all over India as is Jesus the Christ in Christendom He could expound with extraordinary clearness the subtlest problems of philosophy or of science and answer the most intricate questions of clever theologians in such a masterly way as to dispel all doubts concerning the matter in hand How could he do this without reading books By his wonderful insight into the true nature of things and by that Yoga power which made him directly perceive things which cannot be revealed by the senses His spiritual eyes were open his sight could penetrate through the thick veil of ignorance that hangs before the vision of ordinary mortals and which prevents them from knowing that which exists beyond the range of sense perception How to be a Yogi ,2021 How to Be a Yogi Swami Abhedananda,2014-08-24 Table of Contents PREFACE INTRODUCTORY WHAT IS YOGA HATHA YOGA R JA YOGA KARMA YOGA BHAKTI YOGA JN NA YOGA SCIENCE OF BREATHING WAS CHRIST A YOGI In this book Swami Abhedananda imparts his profound knowledge of the paths of yoga He explains each path and gives the reader practical knowledge of breath work meditative technique and practice for spiritual evolution Thus constantly practicing discrimination and rising above all relativity and phenomenal appearances a Jnana Yogi realizes the Absolute Unchangeable Eternal Truth in this life and ultimately becomes one with it because Jnana Yoga declares that he who knows Brahman becomes Brahman for the same reason that the knower of God can be no other than God himself A Jnana Yogi never forgets that his true Self is Brahman Having attained to this supreme God consciousness he lives in the world like an eternal witness of all mental and physical changes Ever happy and undisturbed he travels from place to place pointing out to mankind the way to absolute freedom and perfection A perfect Jnana Yogi indeed lives as the embodiment of the Absolute Divinity on this earth
