The Reality Effect Joel Black, 2013-08-21 It used to be only movies were on film now the whole world is The most intimate and most banal moments of our lives are constantly recorded for public consumption In The Reality Effect Joel Black argues that the desire to make visible every aspect of our lives is an impulse derived from cinema one that has made life both more graphic and less real He approaches film as a documentary medium that has obscured if not obliterated the line between reality and fiction To illustrate this effect Black traces the uncanny interplay between movies and real life events through a series of comparative analyses from Lolita and the murder of JonBenét Ramsey to Wag the Dog and the Clinton scandal to Crash and Princess Diana's violent death

Writers Patrick M. O'Neil, 2004 This nicely illustrated reference for junior high and high school students offers 20 page profiles of 93 of the world's most influential writers of the twentieth century Arranged alphabetically each profile provides facts about the writer's life and works as well as a commentary on his or her significance discussion of political and social events that occurred during his or her lifetime a reader's guide to major works and events beliefs or traditions that inspired the writer's works Indirect Pedagogy Herner Saeverot, 2013-02-11 While existential issues perhaps concern people the most today's education is not as preoccupied with such issues Instead education is becoming more uniform and streamlined more and more one sidedly directed towards what is useful The purpose of this book is to focus on education's existential dimension Such a focus requires at least three things Firstly we need to justify why it is necessary to reconnect with existentialism in education Secondly we need to undergo an examination of the quality of existential education so that we can have a basis as to what kind of educational interests teachers should have Thirdly we need to gain knowledge about how teachers may teach in light of existential matters However to teach in light of existence is highly paradoxical in that existence cannot be forced on someone but is rather a subjective matter Teaching which is non ironical or too direct can thus be very problematic concerning existential issues The reason being that there is no objective truth in terms of existence There is only a matter of subjective or existential truth which is only true for the single individual Therefore the book suggests that the approach teachers take must be discrete and indirect so as to create room for students to take responsibility for their subjective truth Such an indirect pedagogy is not a programme but rather a form of existential education The overall aim of the book is by way of introducing and developing the concept of indirect pedagogy to extend and reinvent the language of teaching The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 26/27 Jerome A. Winer, 2013-06-17 Volume 26 27 begins with publication of The Annual's first prize essay Samuel Abrams's How Child and Adult Analysis Inform and Misinform One Another This is followed by a series of papers originally prepared for a symposium honoring John E Gedo These papers span the clinical topics of obsessiveness sublimation dreams and self analysis and analyzability and also delve into applied psychoanalysis and art history with two studies of Vincent van Gogh and another of Alberto Giacometti These papers not only convey the impressive range of Gedo's own interests but embody the high scholarly and clinical standards that Gedo has long held both for himself and for the field in general Section III offers original contributions to clinical analysis in the form of the consideration of the role of affective engagement in the analyst's usability thoughtful assessment of the perils of parental projection in child analytic work and comparison of a failed and successful supervision in the same psychoanalytic case Section IV examines psychoanalysis and the arts with two further studies of van Gogh an analytic reading of Nabokov's Lolita and more general examinations of psychoanalysis in relation to dramatic art and film analysis The volume closes with two provocative scholarly essays bearing on the roots of psychoanalysis the correspondence between Mabel Dodge and her analysts Smith Ely Jelliffe and A A Brill as a vehicle for reviewing the issue of extra and postanalytic contact between analyst and patient and an examination of Freud Lacan and the uneasy relationships among literature psychoanalysis and the female subject Volume 26 27 offers readers a rich harvest of contemporary insights about psychoanalysis including its history and evolution its continuing clinical refinement and its scholarly applications outside the consulting room Walking on Lava The Dark Mountain Project, 2017 The Dark Mountain Project began with a manifesto published in 2009 by two English writers Dougald Hine and Paul Kingsnorth who felt that literature was not responding honestly to the crises of our time In a world in which the climate is being altered by human activities in which global ecosystems are being destroyed by the advance of industrial civilisation and in which the dominant economic and cultural assumptions of the West are visibly crumbling Dark Mountain asked where are the writers and the artists Dark Mountain's call for writers thinkers and artists willing to face the depth of the mess we are in has made it a gathering point for a growing international network Rooted in place time and nature their work finds a home in the pages of the Dark Mountain books with two new volumes published every year Walking on Lava brings together the best of the first ten volumes along with the original manifesto This collection of essays fiction poetry interviews and artwork introduces The Dark Mountain Project's groundbreaking work to a wider audience in search of the hope beyond hope the paths which lead to the unknown world ahead of us A Woman of Thirty Marjorie Allen Seiffert, Elijah Hay, 1919 Major Characters in American Fiction Jack Salzman, Pamela Wilkinson, 2014-09-23 Major Characters in American Fiction is the perfect companion for everyone who loves literature students book group members and serious readers at every level Developed at Columbia University's Center for American Culture Studies Major Characters in American Fiction offers in depth essays on the lives of more than 1 500 characters figures as varied in ethnicity class sexual orientation age and experience as we are Inhabiting fictional works written from 1790 to 1991 the characters are presented in biographical essays that tell each one's life story They are drawn from novels and short stories that represent every era genre and style of American fiction writing Natty Bumppo of The Leatherstocking Tales Celie of The Color Purple and everyone in between Marketing Literature and Posthumous Legacies Yuri Leving, Frederick H. White, 2013-09-12 Literature is not only about aesthetics but also almost equally about economics The successful marketing of an author and his literary works is more dependent on the activities of cultural merchants than on the particular words and phrases found in the author's prose Marketing Literature and Posthumous Legacies focuses on the creation of symbolic capital for the literary legacies of Leonid Andreev and Vladimir Nabokov that was eventually exchanged by cultural merchants for financial and ideological profit Yuri Leving and Frederick H White discuss the ways in which certain cultural merchants created symbolic meaning for these two authors through a process of collusion consecration and the marketing of tangible and intangible products that lead to some sort of transaction The promotion and maintenance of posthumous legacies involves an intricate network of personal interests that drive the preservation of literary reputations
