Snyder, 2021-09-09 As many of you are preparing to re marry you probably have expectations of what life will be like with your new spouse and new family You re thinking something along the lines of happily ever after perhaps Sorry to burst your bubble but let s take time out for a quick reality check People rarely have a clue what a relationship with a step child will be like It s not because we re stupid It s just that there aren t any guide books for step families We just assume it s OK to play by biological family rules This leads to many false assumptions Today I d like to look at some of the most common and present a more realistic view of what you re likely to experience 1 I get along fine with the children now so our relationship will only improve once I m married to their parent Children view their relationship with you VERY differently once you are married to their parent Things are permanent now Any hopes they may have been holding onto about mom and dad reconciling are dead and you re a part of that death This quite obviously can cause serious resentment 2 The kids are only over every other weekend That shouldn t cause much of a disruption to our home life Just because a child is over every other weekend doesn t mean they can t wreak havoc on your home and life I receive tons of questions from fledgling step parents struggling with what to do to manage what they view as the disruption to their lives when the kids come to visit It s not that they don t like the kids it s just that their usual schedule gets turned topsy turvy 3 My partner loves me so naturally the kids will too Nowhere does it say that just because a child s parent loves you that they have to Many kids have the opinion that they already have 2 parents and they aren t interested in having any more Your goal should be for a civil friendly relationship rather than one full of love If you get love great But don t count on it 4 I m an adult How tough can it be to win a kid over It can be VERY difficult to win over a step child The problem is your attitude It s really a manipulative one Rather than win them over the focus needs to be on being present in their lives and slowly trying to build a relationship with them 5 I won t have to be the bad guy with these kids My spouse will take care of all the discipline While this SHOULD be the way things go it rarely does Most of the time single parents are so happy to have another adult in the house they expect that person to step in and share the responsibility of discipline 6 My new spouse will make sure the kids treat me with respect This is another one that SHOULD happen but unfortunately a lot of parents are still wrestling with a sense of guilt over breaking up the family The guilt continues as the parent feels that the children are being forced into a new and different family A lot of times this guilt plays out by parents not requiring their children to treat the new member of the family that would be you by the way with the respect they deserve You may be asking How can I learn other important steps to being a great step parent Inside this book you will learn all the steps you need to take in order to cope and manage step parenting without soiling your step children and at the same time how to stay sane and productively enjoy being a great step parent The book is filled with comforting actionable steps 8 Strategies for Successful dysfunction There are many issues that form these common threads These issues occur between stepparent and stepchild and biological parent biological child and extended family in blended families I have listed the issues and have offered affordable solutions that are within our grasp These common threads reappear in every aspect of family life including financial matters such as your child's Social Security checks child support checks medical bills and the parents will These issues occur when the power structure changes in a home after a divorce or death in a family Everyone is left in a gigantic power struggle which retires parents prematurely Stepparents and stepchildren feel that they must protect their territory ego and family with secrets isolation intimidation manipulation and stonewalling behavior When stepfamilies are choking parents stepparents and stepchildren do not have to be severely depressed take multiple medications for depression and energy get a divorce or attempt suicide for relief Biological parents and stepparents do not have to be retired prematurely There are better ways to keep everyone functioning in blended families My book will not take away all the opposition you experience in blended families We learn by overcoming opposition not creating opposition This book helps you analyze and carry the opposition to your efforts for your blended family
