Excellence in Problem-oriented Policing ,2000 The Chronocide Mission Lloyd Biggle Jr.,2012-05-29 His name was Vladislav Kuznetsov and he had been a twenty one year old student at Mount Harwell College in Mount Harwell Ohio On a Friday afternoon March 24 2001 he succumbed to a sudden attack of spring fever and cut his classes for a stroll in a public park near the campus Even after fifty years and several hundred centuries he remembered it as vividly as though it had happened an hour before It was a warm fresh day with a promise of spring the first really pleasant day of the year after the usual vagaries of a midwest winter He strolled leisurely through the park thinking with shameless delight of the stuffy classrooms he was avoiding Eventually he seated himself on a patch of greening grass with a convenient tree to lean against and enjoyed the soft breeze and the peaceful surroundings while he absently whittled on a twig he had picked up He felt sleepy Probably he dozed off Then came a tremendous jerk like having a chair pulled from under him at the same instant that a truck hit him and he almost lost consciousness He landed with a painful bump and skidded for a short distance along a very rough wood floor For a moment he sat gazing about him dazedly He had been abruptly translated from his seat on the ground in a pleasant park on a lovely spring day to a seat on a wood floor in a large dim room with a thunderstorm raging outside He had a distinct impression that the two scenes had been linked by an earthquake He tried hard to focus his thoughts staring first at a table where a candle burned brightly and then at an animal tied to one of the table s legs by a short leash It was a hairy pig He raised his eyes to the room's two small water streaked windows and saw nothing beyond but branches swaying in a strong wind
