During an atomic alarm in Barcelona in the year 2025, the thirty-year-old hero takes refuge in a luxurious mansion in the mountains where he is put up along with other guests awaiting the outcome of the conflict. For the following seven days, the residents of the mansion spend their spare time reading and taking walks and above all, telling stories to each other. The narrators, most of whom belong to the generation thirty years older than the hero's, are eight in number and the stories they tell can be taken as autonomous ones, although as the novel advances, it may soon be that when juxtaposed, they do indeed weave a web of intrigue about a family of bankers, a web that gradually involves some of the guests in the mansion.

In the aftermath of the battle, Cumberland gave the order to his redcoats to hunt down the remnants of the rebels and of any supporters of their cause. Minnette Telfer was a high-spirited young woman, beautiful and adventurous, and bored. Despite countless warnings from her rich father about the dangers of this time, Minnette stumbles foolishly along a path that would set in motion a train of events that would put her father and family in danger. Banished to her uncle's in France, a suitable husband and marriage contract was to be found. But Minnette had already fallen in love, not with the capricious count who had become frighteningly besotted with her, but with a rebel.
