Dinaric Perspectives on TIMSS 2019 Barbara Japelj Pavešić, Paulína Koršňáková, Sabine Meinck, 2021-11-10 This open access book brings together national experts from across the Dinaric region to rigorously review IEA's Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study TIMSS 2019 grade four data to develop a multidimensional and culturally sensitive perspective on their TIMSS 2019 primary level results. The Dinaric region named after the Dinaric Alps is located in South eastern Europe and stretches through Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia, Montenegro, Kosovo, Albania and North Macedonia. IEA's TIMSS has been an invaluable resource for monitoring international trends in mathematics and science achievement at grades four and eight since 1995. The TIMSS 2019 administration of the test to grade four students provided a unique opportunity for analysis within shared regional settings and enabled the construction of this first report based on international study results from the region prepared by the National Research Coordinators in collaboration with IEA. This designation is without prejudice to positions on status and is in line with UNSCR 1244/1999 and the ICJ Opinion on the Kosovo declaration of independence.

Childhood, Learning & Everyday Life in Three Asia-Pacific Cities I-Fang Lee, Sue Saltmarsh, Nicola Yelland, 2023-04-17 This book introduces findings from an international cross cultural and interdisciplinary study of children's everyday experiences of growing up and going to school in the context of the three global cities of Hong Kong, Singapore and Melbourne. It takes the premise that children's learning and orientations to educational success are shaped by everyday cultural practices at home and at school by policy contexts that both produce and respond to educational and cultural norms and by individual and familial desires and aspirations. Drawing on research conducted with primary school aged children in Year 4, the book considers how day to day routines such as going to school engaging in extra curricular activities outside of school and spending time at home with family intersect with the broader milieus of education policy ideals in a changing and interconnected world Through a combination of visual methodologies surveys ethnographic observations in schools classrooms and cityscapes re enactments of everyday activities with children at home and sociological education policy analysis this book shows both the richness of children s everyday lives and learning in global cities as well as exploring questions that pose challenges to educational and social norms

The Bourgeois Franco Moretti, 2013-06-04 The bourgeois Not so long ago this notion seemed indispensable to social analysis these days one might go years without hearing it mentioned Capitalism is more powerful than ever but its human embodiment seems to have vanished I am a member of the bourgeois class feel myself to be such and have been brought up on its opinions and ideals wrote Max Weber in 1895 Who could repeat these words today Bourgeois opinions and ideals what are they Thus begins Franco Moretti s study of the bourgeois in modern European literature a major new analysis of the once dominant culture and its literary decline and fall Moretti s gallery of individual portraits is entwined with the analysis of specific keywords useful and earnest efficiency influence comfort roba and of the formal mutations of the medium of prose From the working master of the opening chapter through the seriousness of nineteenth century novels the conservative hegemony of Victorian Britain the national malformations of the Southern and Eastern periphery and the radical self critique of Ibsen s twelve play cycle the book charts the vicissitudes of bourgeois culture exploring the causes for its historical weakness and for its current irrelevance
