Southern Pharmaceutical Journal, 1920 Huntin' with Gus Larry A. Clifford Sr., 2017-03-07 Huntin with Gus by Larry A Clifford Sr Told as a collection of childhood stories Huntin with Gus reflects on the lessons learned through one boy's journey to manhood Hunting fishing and nature experiences result in morals and life lessons learned and all of these lead the young man closer to appreciating his relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Additionally, he begins to see the true meaning of life to find and establish a working relationship with the Lord and the things that are most important on this Earth. The novel recounts the dreams, beliefs, and goals of a small town boy as he finds himself in situations that test his understanding of the world around him. Although some of them are quite humorous like the tale of an almost hunting accident, each holds a truth that conveys an understanding and maturation that comes with age. With southern wit and recipes sprinkled in for good measure, Huntin' with Gus warms the heart and the soul. The Great Brain John D. Many people have been helped by this valuable book first published five years ago, which addresses those of us who desperately want to change but can't stop behaving in ways that hurt us and those we love. The authors assure us that we can change these hurtful patterns. Drs. Stoop and Masteller believe you can. The Human Touch Michael Frayn, 2008-01-22 What do we really know? What are we in relation to the world around us? Here the acclaimed playwright and novelist takes on the great questions of his career and of our lives. Humankind, scientists agree, is an insignificant speck in the impersonal vastness of the universe. But what would that universe be like if we were not here to say something about it? Would there be numbers if there were no one to count them? Would the universe even be vast without the fact of our smallness to give it scale? With wit, charm, and brilliance, this epic work of philosophy sets out to make sense of our place in the scheme of things. Our contact with the world around us, Michael Frayn shows, is always fleeting and indeterminate, yet we have nevertheless had to fashion a comprehensible universe in which action is possible. But how do we distinguish our subjective experience from what is objectively true and knowable? Surveying the spectrum of philosophical concerns from the existence of space and time to relativity and language, Frayn attempts to resolve what he calls the oldest mystery: the world is what we make of it. In which case, though, what are we? All of Frayn's novels and plays have grappled with these essential questions; in this book, he confronts them head-on. Tag, Toss & Run Paul Boardway Tukey, Victoria Rowell, 2012-01-01 Presents the rules for forty classic lawn games, including ghost in the graveyard, flag football, red rover, and double ball. Street Games Richard M. Abrams, 2012-11-29 RICHARD M. ABRAMS, a retired U.C. Berkeley professor of modern U.S. history, recreates the many games, some of them now all but extinct, played in the city streets daily by boys and girls during the turbulent era of the Great Depression, the Second World War, and the increasingly prosperous post-war environment.

Abrams was born in Brooklyn in 1932 when cramped urban living quarters were commonplace and limited income constricted access to organized sports venues and equipment. His was an outdoor generation forced to depend on inventive use of scarce resources. From many conversations over the years with his children, colleagues, friends, and students, he came to realize how few people today have any idea of the kinds of recreation that filled daily life for young city people in the years of his own youth. Street Games is a combination of Abrams's reminiscences of the games he played and his placement of those activities in the social history of the period, often highlighting its contrast with the world we know today. The work is compelling, informative, and fast-paced in its description of a mostly lost piece of history. It is also fascinating for its speculations about such things as the hidden meaning of "It" in games of tag, the small regard for safety, helmets, face masks, seat belts, and the complex character of racism and ethnic tensions in those times. One reader of the manuscript remarked, "I have not read in many years anything that gave me so much pure, sustained pleasure."

RICHARD M. ABRAMS was educated in the public schools of Brooklyn. He earned his BA, MA, and Ph.D. degrees at Columbia University. He began his teaching career at Columbia in 1957. He moved to the University of California in Berkeley in 1961, where he taught until retiring in 2007. He is married to Marcia Ash Abrams, and they have three children and four grandchildren. He has been a visiting professor of history in London, Moscow, Beijing, and Innsbruck, and has lectured widely in Europe and Asia. His other books include Conservatism in a Progressive Era, The Burdens of Progress, and most recently America Transformed.
