Kill As Directed:

Kill As Directed Brenda Jackson, Penguin Books Staff, Ronald L McDonald, 1973-11-06 American Law Reports Annotated ,1922 Public Documents of Massachusetts Massachusetts, 1896 Kill Box Alex Adams, 2024-12-17 Drone warfare represents one of the most pressing moral and political problems of contemporary military ethics Since the beginning of the American drone program in the late twentieth century drone technologies have been used to conduct remote extrajudicial assassinations to violate national sovereignty and to conduct intrusive surveillance in contravention of international human rights norms among other controversial uses Today military drones are used by dozens of military forces As such these technologies pose urgent questions which problematize well established ways of thinking about central aspects of the ethics of warfare such as justice sovereignty battlefield trauma the political and physical limits of conflict and perhaps most prominently of all the legitimacy of military violence Though some of these concerns are well worn their central role in and reconfiguration by drone warfare means that they deserve serious reconsideration Kill Box investigates this urgent conceptual territory through readings of the popular cultural productions that have emerged as a part of these debates and reveals the ways in which narrative texts have been an integral part of the framing of these political and philosophical conversations Examining well known single issue drone texts such as Eye in the Sky Good Kill and The Drone Eats with Me alongside lesser known texts such as pulp novels genre sci fi and Netflix thrillers this new book shows us the surprisingly versatile and elastic ways in which drone discourse continues to be co constituted by narrative entertainment Reported Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of the State of New Mexico New Mexico. Supreme Court, 1922 Ohio Legal News Jay Ford Laning, 1897 Strip Show Katherine Liepe-Levinson, 2003-09-01 This book offers an account of an unprecedented North American study of contemporary female and male strip shows It particularly focuses on the contradictory sex roles cultural positions and performance practices of straight strip shows during their second heyday in the early 1990s Katherine Liepe Levinson s research took her to over seventy different strip bars clubs theatres and sex emporiums ranging from elaborate lap dancing and couch dancing gentlemen s clubs in New York Houston and San Francisco to Peoria s onetime duplex cabaret where women strip for men downstairs and men for women upstairs to the nightclubs of Montreal where female and male performers displayed the Full Monty Liepe Levinson s intriguing comprehensive study concentrates on the cultural and theatrical elements of the strip shows themselves including the geographic locations and interior designs of the clubs the choreography and costumes of the dancers and the all important participation of the audience She draws upon a variety of methodologies as well as interviews with performers to explore how the strip show s cultural and theatrical aspects simultaneously uphold and break traditional sex roles Her findings readily complicate several of the most prominent and prevalent theories about sexual representation gender and desire The Pacific Reporter ,1921 Annual Report of the Board of Cattle Commissioners of the Commonwealth of

Perturbatory narration is a heuristic concept applicable both quantitatively and qualitatively to a specific type of complex narratives for which narratology has not yet found an appropriate classification This new term refers to complex narrative strategies that produce intentionally disturbing effects such as surprise confusion doubt or disappointment effects that interrupt or suspend immersion in the aesthetic reception process The initial task however is to indicate what narrative conventions are in fact questioned transgressed or given new life by perturbatory narration The key to our modeling lies in its combination of individual procedures of narrative strategies hitherto regarded as unrelated Their interplay has not yet attracted scholarly attention The essays in this volume present a wide range of contemporary films from Canada the USA Mexico Argentina Spain France and Germany The perturbatory narration concept enables to typify and systematize moments of disruption in fictional texts combining narrative processes of deception paradox and or empuzzlement and to analyse these perturbing narrative strategies in very different filmic texts Drink Like a
