Killer's Dozen Richard A. Lupoff, 2010-03-01 From the Introduction by Ed Gorman If there's one thing Dick Lupoff understands with perverse glee it's the sorry state of the human condition. In this collection you'll find a wide variety of humans whose conditions leave much to be desired. A pit bull owner who's just as nasty as his dog. A thief who believes his father-in-law was a real Nazi. A dead-end boxer who has come back in a boxing movie. A detective named Caligula Foxx who might be Nero Wolfe in drag. A crooked corporal whose payoff is death. Not only are the storylines original, the writing is indelibly stamped with Dick's vision and voice. Dick's writing talents really can't be defined by the usual means. Yes, he writes science fiction. Yes, he writes fantasy. Yes, he writes mystery. But what he really writes are Lupoffs. Long, short, hilarious, whimsical, dark, mysterious, they're all Lupoffs. Richard A. Lupoff is the author of many books including the popular Lindsey and Plum mysteries. The next of these, The Emerald Cat Killer, will be published by St. Martin's Press in October 2010. His most recent collection of mysteries is Quintet: The Cases of Chase and Delacroix, published by Crippen Landru.

Sound of Secrets Darlene Gardner, An original publication. Is he reaching out from the grave to ask her to solve the mystery of his death? A romantic mystery with ghostly overtones. Cara Donnelly is sure she's never visited the sleepy Florida town of Secret Sound. So why does the very name ring a haunting bell? Why does so much of the scenery look familiar? Most importantly, why does she see a little boy get hit by a car thirty years after the fact? Cara wants to get out of town fast after experiencing the strange vision despite the connection she feels to police chief Gray DeBerg. Her panic attacks are escalating along with her nightmares about an attacking eagle. The townspeople, including Gray, resent Cara for dredging up the painful past. But after Cara learns the boy was kidnapped shortly before the event and his kidnapper never found, she feels the boy is reaching out from the grave to beg her to solve the mystery of his death. If she runs from him and Gray, she fears she'll also be running from herself.
