Killers Thieves Tramps And Sinners:

Line of Fire Edward Butts, 2009-08-03 Across Canada peace officers put their lives on the line every day From John Fisk in 1804 the first known Canadian policeman killed in the line of duty to the four RCMP officers shot to death in Mayerthorpe Alberta in 2005 renowned true crime writer Edward Butts takes a hard hitting compassionate probing look at some of the stories involving the hundreds of Canadian law enforcement officers who have found themselves in harm s way Some like the four RCMP officers who perished in the Northwest Territories on the Lost Patrol of 1910 died in horrible accidents while performing their duties Others such as the Mounties involved in the manhunts for Almighty Voice and the Mad Trapper of Rat River found themselves in extremely dangerous violent situations One thing is certain about all of these peace officers they displayed amazing courage and never hesitated to make the ultimate sacrifice for their fellow citizens Households of Faith Nancy Christie, 2002 Annotation An examination of the intersection of religious and familial discourse over the course of two centuries Households of Faith examines a variety of religious traditions with a particular focus on the way in which religious communities define gender identities The authors explore the boundaries drawn in religious discourse between the private and public offering a revisionist perspective on the theoretical framework of separate spheres By analysing gender relations within the matrix of the family they explore both the conflicts and interdependency of gender roles City of Order Michael Boudreau, 2012-05-15 Interwar Halifax was a city in flux a place where citizens debated adopting new ideas and technologies but agreed on one thing modernity was corrupting public morality and unleashing untold social problems on their fair city To create a bulwark against further social dislocation citizens policy makers and officials modernized the city s machinery of order courts prisons and the police force and placed greater emphasis on crime control These tough on crime measures Boudreau argues did not resolve problems but rather singled out ethnic minorities working class men and female and juvenile offenders as problem figures in the eternal quest for order Acadiensis ,1989
