Fashion's Big Night Out Kristen Bateman, 2024-03-28 The Met Gala or Met Ball is one of the world's biggest events for celebrity fashion and pop culture. Founded by Eleanor Lambert and organised by Vogue, it began in 1948 as an annual fundraising gala held for the benefit of the Metropolitan Museum of Art's Costume Institute in New York, raising more than 200 million to date. And Anna Wintour is in charge. An irresistible invitation to this annual stunning spectacle. Fashion's Big Night Out is the perfect gift for celebrity and fashion fans alike. Just as important as the costume exhibition is the star-studded red carpet and the depth of global interest this generates. Alongside the costumes, couture story and social celebrity context, the book showcases all the extravagant and risk-taking fashion and celebrity moments that have graced this fabulous red carpet in the 21st century.

Cultures of Yusin Youngju Ryu, 2018-10-30 Cultures of Yusin examines the turbulent and yet deeply formative years of Park Chung Hee's rule in South Korea, focusing on the so-called Yusin era (1972-79). Beginning with the constitutional change that granted dictatorial powers to the president and ending with his assassination, Yusin was a period of extreme political repression coupled with widespread mobilization of the citizenry towards the statist gospel of modernization and development. While much has been written about the political and economic contours of this period, the rich complexity of its cultural production remains obscure. This edited volume brings together a wide range of scholars to explore literature, film, television, performance, music, and architecture, as well as practices of urban and financial planning, consumption, and homeownership. Examining the plural forms of culture's relationship to state power, the authors illuminate the decade of the 1970s in South Korea and offer an essential framework for understanding contemporary Korean society.

North Korea through the Looking Glass Kongdan Oh,Ralph C. Hassig,2004-05-13 Fifty five years after its founding at the dawn of the cold war North Korea remains a land of illusions Isolated and anachronistic the country and its culture seem to be dominated exclusively by the official ideology of Juche which emphasizes national self reliance independence and worship of the supreme leader General Kim Jong Il Yet this socialist utopian ideal is pursued with the calculations of international power politics Kim has transformed North Korea into a militarized state whose nuclear weapons ballistic missiles and continued threat to South Korea have raised alarm worldwide This paradoxical combination of cultural isolation and military first policy has left the North Korean people woefully deprived of the opportunity to advance socially and politically The socialist economy guided by political principles and bereft of international support has collapsed Thousands perhaps millions have died of starvation Foreign trade has declined and the country s gross domestic product has recorded negative growth every year for a decade Yet rather than initiate the sort of market reforms that were implemented by other communist governments North Korean leaders have reverted to the economic policies of the 1950s mass mobilization concentration on heavy industry and increased ideological indoctrination Although members of the political elite in Pyongyang are acutely aware of their nation s domestic and foreign problems they are plagued by fear and policy paralysis North Korea Through the Looking Glass sheds new light on this remote and peculiar country Drawing on more than ten years of research including interviews with two dozen North Koreans who made the painful decision to defect from their homeland Kongdan Oh and Ralph C Hassig explore what the leadership and the masses believe about their current predicament Through dual themes of persistence and illusion they explore North Korea s stubborn adherence to policies that have The
