Researching Chinese Language Education Mark Shiu-kee Shum,Peter Mickan,2018-09-13 The culmination of more than a decade of research this compelling volume offers a fresh approach for applying functional linguistics to assess student performance to inform the teaching and learning of Chinese and to design curriculum and teaching materials Documenting authentic systemic functional linguistics SFL studies in researching and teaching Chinese as a first or second language this research is set in the multilingual settings of Hong Kong and Australia. The experiences of SFL and genre teaching in English have been well demonstrated as valid, viable and practical in different contexts; however, this volume covers the relatively new domain of research into the applications of SFL to the teaching of Chinese. Using SFL as the research framework, the authors cover three major areas in Chinese language education: effective pedagogies, curriculum and material design, and text analysis. Covering major local curriculum reforms and the rapid growth of International Baccalaureate programmes worldwide, this book will be of interest to linguists, language teachers and teacher educators, and those involved in the teaching and learning of Chinese around the world.

Chinese Language Education and Second Language Chinese Acquisition Jing Jin, Sihui Ke, 2025-01-14 This edited volume presents the latest scholarly endeavors to synergize Chinese linguistics with Chinese language education and L2 Chinese acquisition, a direction of inquiry that has emerged as a rapidly developing area and attracted both teaching practitioners and linguists' interests in recent years. The studies presented in the volume approach a diversity of issues ranging over linguistics informed Chinese language education in the contexts of Hong Kong, mainland China and overseas countries' language pedagogies along various linguistic approaches. L2 Chinese development of different linguistic properties, bilingualism and multilingualism among adult and school learners as well as linguistically grounded Chinese language learning and teaching via digital means. The volume offers to deepen the reader's understanding of the existing theories on Chinese language education and L2 Chinese acquisition and the linguistic theories regarding the nature, component modules and development of the human language faculty. It also offers new pedagogical inspiration based on cutting edge empirical research for Chinese language teaching in different educational settings. Of interest to scholars in the fields of Chinese language teaching and learning, second language acquisition or applied linguistics, this volume contributes to the emerging field of educational applications of linguistics and presents an overarching framework that bridges a long lasting division between language teaching practice and linguistic research.

Crossing Boundaries in Researching, Understanding, and Improving Language Education Dongbo Zhang, Ryan T. Miller, 2023-02-08 This volume brings together original papers from language education scholars from around the world to explore, exemplify and discuss the multiplicity of boundary crossing in language education. It emphasizes the potential of boundary crossing for expansive learning and aims to generate new insights through boundary crossing into the complexity of language education and approaches to innovative practices. This volume also underscores the important role of expert boundary crossers. In particular, it aims to honor G. Richard Tucker, Paul Mellon University Professor Emeritus of Applied Linguistics at Carnegie Mellon University, celebrating his distinguished scholarship on language education and paying tribute to the inspiration and mentorship he has given to the contributors of this volume to cross boundaries academically and professionally. This volume is organized into four sections, namely language learning and development, teachers and instructional processes, program innovation implementation and evaluation, and language in education policy and planning. These sections or themes which are necessarily cross cutting also represent the major areas of scholarship where Prof Tucker has made distinguished contributions for over half a century     Chinese Language Education in the United States Jiening Ruan,Jie Zhang,Cynthia B.
