

LANGUAGE

VERSUS

LITERATURE

Language is an abstract system of symbols and meanings governed by grammatical rules.

Language is both spoken and written.

Language was the first to come into being.

Language studies rules and structure; it is more technical than literature.

Literature refers to written works, especially those considered to be of superior or lasting artistic value.

Literature mostly studies written work.

Literature cannot exist without language.

Literature studies the work and styles of different authors; it is a more aesthetic subject.
