

CHARACTERISTICS OF POSTCOLONIAL LITERATURE

- Postcolonial writers describe native people, places and practices to counteract the inaccurate, generalised stereotypes created by the colonisers.
- Postcolonial writers chose to write in the language of the coloniser; however, most of them deliberately remould the language to reflect the rhythms of indigenous languages. They also invent new words, syntax and styles.
- Postcolonial writers also reshape and rework colonial art forms by incorporating indigenous styles, structures and themes such as oral poetry and dramatic performance.

Language Of Postcolonial Literatures:

The Language of Postcolonial Literatures Ismail S. Talib, 2002 Exploring literatures from a range of countries this book provides a comprehensive introduction to some of the central features of language in a wide variety of postcolonial texts

Language and Translation in Postcolonial Literatures Simona Bertacco, 2013-12-17 This collection gathers together a stellar group of contributors offering innovative perspectives on the issues of language and translation in postcolonial studies In a world where bi and multilingualism have become quite normal this volume identifies a gap in the critical apparatus in postcolonial studies in order to read cultural texts emerging out of multilingual contexts The role of translation and an awareness of the multilingual spaces in which many postcolonial texts are written are fundamental issues with which postcolonial studies needs to engage in a far more concerted fashion The essays in this book by contributors from Australia New Zealand Zimbabwe Cyprus Malaysia Quebec Ireland France Scotland the US and Italy outline a pragmatics of language and translation of value to scholars with an interest in the changing forms of literature and culture in our times Essay topics include multilingual textual politics the benefits of multilingual education in postcolonial countries the language of gender and sexuality in postcolonial literatures translational cities postcolonial calligraphy globalization and the new digital ecology

Language in Post Colonial Worlds. An Intellectual and Cultural Decolonization Ahmed Musa, 2021-05-18 Academic Paper from the year 2021 in the subject African Studies Linguistics grade 95 language English abstract This paper deals with the questions of language intellectual and cultural decolonization in post colonial worlds The concern with cultural decolonization hails from different academic spheres and as well as different geographical settings that either experienced European colonialism like in Africa Asia or from geographies with masses who were subjected to a forceful removal and enslavement and subsequently ferried from their indigenous homelands to Europe or America To decolonize culture in this context primarily means to liberate language identity and the intellectual constellation of the colonized communities from the colonial experience that some many believe to have suppressed and subjugated their cultural identities

Postcolonial Literatures in English Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2019-04-27 The term postcolonial literatures in English designates English language literatures from Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania as well as the literatures of diasporic communities who have moved from those regions to the global north This volume introduces the central themes of postcolonial literary studies and delineates how these themes are reflected and elaborated in exemplary literary works by postcolonial authors from around the world It also offers succinct definitions of key terms like Orientalism hybridity Indigeneity or writing back

Paradoxes of Postcolonial Culture Sandra Ponzanesi, 2012-02-01 This innovative contribution to understanding the promise and contradictions of contemporary postcolonial culture applies a wide array of theoretical tools to a large body of literature The author compares the work of established Indian writers including Bharati Mukherjee Meena Alexander Sara Suleri and Sunetra Gupta to new writings by such Afro Italian immigrant women as Ermina dell Oro Maria Abbeb Viarengo Ribka Sibhatu and Sirad Hassan Sandra Ponzanesi's analysis highlights a set of dissymmetrical relationships that are set in the context of different imperial linguistic and market policies By dealing with issues of representation linked to postcolonial literary genres to gender and ethnicity questions and to new cartographies of diaspora this book imbues the postcolonial debate with a new lan Postcolonial Literature Pramod K. Nayar,2008

Postcolonial Literature Dave Gunning,2013-09-05 Introduces an array of fiction and poetry examining how writers from Africa Australasia the Caribbean Canada Ireland and South Asia have engaged with the challenges that beset postcolonial societies Discusses many of the most studied works of postcolonial literature from Disgrace through Things Fall Apart to White Teeth Postcolonial Literatures in Context Julie Mullaney,2010-02-11 Postcolonial Literatures in Context is a clear accessible and concise introduction to postcolonial literatures in English and English translation and their wider contexts It begins by introducing key issues involved in the study of postcolonial literature including old and new diasporas postcolonial nationalisms indigenous identities and politics and globalization Close readings of commonly studied texts from and about Africa Australia Canada Palestine and South Asian diasporas highlight critical questions and ways of reading postcolonial texts A chapter on afterlives and adaptations explores a range of wider cultural texts including film non fiction and art The final section introduces key critical interpretations from different perspectives including diaspora theory feminism indigeneity and the postcolony Review Reading and Research sections give suggestions for further reading discussion and research Introducing texts contexts and criticism this is a lively and up to date resource for anyone studying postcolonial literatures Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel Peter W. Vakunta,2011

Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel A New Literary Canon discusses the question of indigenization in the African Francophone novel Analyzing the prose narratives of Nazi Boni Ahmadou Kourouma and Patrice Nganang this book contends that African literature written in European languages is primarily a creative translation process Recourse to European languages as a medium of expressing African imagination worldview and cultures in fictional writing poses problems of intelligibility Developed to express and reflect Western worldviews and sensibilities European languages are employed by African writers to convey messages that seem to be at variance with European imagination These writers find themselves writing in languages they wish to subvert through the technique of literary indigenization The significance of this study resides in its raising awareness to the hurdles that literary creativity in a polyglossic context may present to readers and translators This book provides answers to intriguing questions centering on the problematic of translation in contemporary African literature It is a contribution to current research aimed at unraveling the conundrum surrounding the language question in African Europhone fiction particularly the cultural functions of translation in literature Potential translation problems have to be addressed in order to make African literature written in European languages intelligible to global readership With the advent of globalization transcultural communication has become an activity of enormous importance to the international community It is a subject of great interest to translators linguists language instructors and literary theorists      Verbal-Visual Configurations in Postcolonial Literature Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-04-23 Examining a range of contemporary Anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision It argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of representation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange      Camfranglais: The Making of a New Language in Cameroonian Literature Vakunta, Peter Wuteh, 2014-07-17 This study raises awareness to the emergence of a new genre in world literature hybridized literature It rejects the assumption according to which literatures written in less commonly taught languages should be subsumed into one universally accessible global idiom Instead Vakunta challenges literary scholars and readers of literature to regard untranslatability as the key to cross cultural engagement The book's multiple approaches and innumerable sources generate complex interdisciplinary connections and provide an excellent introduction to a complex literary phenomenon alien to literati resident outside the officially bilingual multicultural and multilingual Republic of Cameroon      Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature Gina Wisker, 2006-11-14 Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature provides an overview of the main themes issues and critical perspectives that have had the greatest effect on postcolonial literatures Discussing historical cultural and contextual background it contains selected work of some of the major writers from this period      The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Literature Richard Eldridge, 2009-03-27 The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Literature contains twenty three newly commissioned essays by major philosophers and literary scholars that investigate literature as a form of attention to human life Various forms of attention are considered under the headings of Genres from Ancient Epic to the Novel and Contemporary Experimental Writing Periods from Realism and Romanticism to Postcolonialism Devices and Powers Imagination Plot Character Style and Emotion and Contexts and Uses in relation to inquiry morality and politics In each case the effort is to track and evaluate how specific modes and works of imaginative literature answer to important needs of human subjects for orientation the articulation of interest in life and the working through of emotion within situations that are both sociohistorical and human Hence these essays show how and why literature matters in manifold ways in and for human cultural life and they show how philosophers and imaginative literary writers have continually both engaged with and criticized each other      Rebel Tongues: Dialects, Slang, and Fusion Languages in Global Literature Dr. Soham Chaudhary, Dr. Oliva Roy, 2024-12-30 Rebel Tongues explores how dialects slang and hybrid languages shape identity resist oppression and bridge cultural divides in global literature Drawing on works by authors like Chinua Achebe and Salman Rushdie this book reveals how linguistic diversity challenges norms empowers marginalized voices and transforms literary narratives A powerful examination of language as both a cultural tool and a form of resistance

Poetry, Print, and the Making of Postcolonial Literature Nathan Suhr-Sytsma, 2017-07-10 Poetry Print and the Making of Postcolonial Literature reveals an intriguing history of relationships among poets and editors from Ireland and Nigeria as well as Britain and the Caribbean during the mid twentieth century era of decolonization The book explores what such leading anglophone poets as Seamus Heaney Christopher Okigbo and Derek Walcott had in common peripheral origins and a desire to address transnational publics without expatriating themselves The book reconstructs how they gained the imprimatur of both local and London based cultural institutions It shows furthermore how political crises challenged them to reconsider their poetry s publics Making substantial use of unpublished archival material Nathan Suhr Sytsma examines poems in print often the pages on which they first appeared in order to chart the transformation of the anglophone literary world He argues that these poets achievements cannot be extricated from the transnational networks through which their poems circulated and which they in turn remade

The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2011-09-14 In the age of globalization the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in World Literature including gender politics and ethics a global perspective on the politics of World Literature The forty eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field

English Literature and the Other Languages Ton Hoenselaars, Marius Buning, 1999 The thirty essays in this book trace how the tangentiality of English and other modes of language affects the production of English literature and investigate how questions of linguistic code can be made accessible to literary analysis

Post-colonial Literatures in English Dennis Walder, 1999      Postcolonial Studies Oriana Palusci, 2006      Being and Becoming African as a Permanent Work in Progress B. Nyamnjoh, U. Nwosu, 2021-06-09 This book is a timely addition to debates and explorations on the epistemological relevance of African proverbs especially with growing calls for the decolonisation of African curricula The editors and contributors have chosen to reflect on the diverse ways of being and becoming African as a permanent work in progress by drawing inspiration from Chinua Achebe s harnessing of the effectualness of oratory especially his use of proverbs in his works The book recognises and celebrates the fact that Achebe's proverbial Igbo imaginations of being and becoming African are compelling because they are instructive about the lives stories struggles and aspirations of the rainbow of people that make up Africa as a veritable global arena of productive circulations entanglements and compositeness of being The contributions foray into how claims to and practices of being and becoming African are steeped in histories of mobilities and a myriad of encounters shaped by and inspiring of the competing and complementary logics of personhood and power that Africans have sought and seek to capture in their repertoires of proverbs The task of documenting African proverbs and rendering them accessible in the form of a common hard currency with fascinating epistemological possibilities remains a challenge yearning for financial scholarly social and political attention The book is an important contribution to John Mbiti's clarion call for an active and sustained interest in African proverbs
