Language, Charisma, and Creativity Thomas J. Csordas,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997

Language, Charisma, and Creativity T. Csordas, 2012-06-14 Thomas Csordas s eloquent analysis of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal part of the contemporary cultural and media phenomenon known as conservative Christianity embraces one of the primary charges of anthropology as a discipline to stimulate critical reflection by making the exotic seem familiar and the familiar appear strange In contrast to the portrayal of the distant cultural other in ethnographic studies of tribal societies this book shows that people who might be regarded by some as religious eccentrics are quite comprehensible in terms of contemporary culture while at the same time people who might be anyone s neighbors in fact inhabit a profoundly distinct world of experience This new work makes an original important contribution to anthropology sociology studies of religion and ritual cultural phenomenology linguistic semiotic and rhetorical studies the multidisciplinary study of social movements and American Studies The Anthropology of Religious Charisma C. Lindholm, 2013-12-18 According to Max Weber charisma is opposed to bureaucratic order This collection reveals the limits of that formula The contributors show how charisma is a part of cultural frameworks while retaining its ecstatic character among American and Italian Catholics Syrian Sufis Taiwanese Buddhists Hassidic Jews and Amazonian shamans among others Catholicism and the Human Condition Jane Anderson, 2016-05-20 Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition gives an anthropological account of a progressive religious movement in the Roman Catholic Church that is attempting to reconcile religious conviction and reason and ergo modify the human condition Investigation is given to a representative group of this movement Innovative Catholics who are endeavouring to maintain the momentum for change which began in the 1960s and 1970s They now find themselves caught between traditional notions of religion and a secularised society while trying to reconcile these polarising forces to find a pathway forward While ethnographic fieldwork for this research was conducted in Australia this movement is to be found across the Western world The research is framed by the question posed by J rgen Habermas who asks whether the democratic constitutional state is able to renew itself and recognises a benefit in learning from religion Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger subsequently Pope Benedict XVI responds by asserting the need for a common ethical basis and limits on reason This latter position however remains problematic for Innovative Catholics who are conscious of history and culture The research explores how Innovative Catholics who in taking the middle position inform this dialectic on secularization through their ideas and practices about the human condition Anthropology and Alterity Bernhard Leistle, 2016-12-08 Alterity or otherness is a central notion in cultural anthropology and philosophy as well as in other disciplines While anthropology with its aim of understanding cultural difference tends to take otherness as a fact there have been vigorous attempts in contemporary philosophy particularly in phenomenology to answer the fundamental question What is the Other This book brings the two approaches to otherness the hermeneutical pragmatics of anthropology and the radical reflection of philosophy together with the goal of enriching one through the other The philosophy of the German phenomenologist Bernhard Waldenfels up to now little known to anthropologists has a central position in this undertaking Waldenfels s concept of a responsivity to the Other offers to cultural anthropology the possibility of a philosophical engagement with the Other that does not contradict the project of making sense of concrete empirical others The book illustrates the fertility of this new approach to alterity through a broad spectrum of themes ranging from reflections on theory formation via discussions of race and human animal relations to personal meditations on experiences of alterity

Building Noah's Ark for Migrants, Refugees, and Religious Communities Jin-Heon Jung, 2015-06-03 Building Noah's Ark for Migrants Refugees and Religious Communities examines religion within the framework of refugee studies as a public good with the spiritual and material use of religion shedding new light on the agency of refugees in reconstructing their lives and positioning themselves in hostile environments Crossing the Water and Keeping the Faith Terry Rey, Alex Stepick, 2013-08-19 Beginning in the late 1970s and early 1980s significant numbers of Haitian immigrants began to arrive and settle in Miami Overcoming some of the most foreboding obstacles ever to face immigrants in America they have diversified socioeconomically Together they have made South Florida home to the largest population of native born Haitians and diasporic Haitians outside of the Caribbean and one of the most significant Caribbean immigrant communities in the world Religion has played a central role in making all of this happen Crossing the Water and Keeping the Faith is a historical and ethnographic study of Haitian religion in immigrant communities based on fieldwork in both Miami and Haiti as well as extensive archival research Where many studies of Haitian religion limit themselves to one faith Rey and Stepick explore Catholicism Protestantism and Vodou in conversation with one another suggesting that despite the differences between these practices the three faiths ultimately create a sense of unity fulfillment and self worth in Haitian communities This meticulously researched and vibrantly written book contributes to the growing body of literature on religion among new immigrants Terry Rey is Associate Professor of Religion at Temple University He is the coeditor with Alex Stepick and Sarah Mahler of Churches and Charity in the Immigrant City Religion Immigration and Civic Engagement in Miami Alex Stepick is Professor of Sociology at Portland State University and Professor of Global and Sociocultural Studies at Florida International University He is coauthor with Alejandro Portes of City on the Edge The Transformation of Miami In the North American Religions series Testimony in the Spirit Mark J. Cartledge, 2016-04-01 This book explores the ordinary beliefs and practices of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians in relation to the Holy Spirit It does this by means of a congregational study of a classical Pentecostal church in the UK using participant observation focus groups and documentary and media analysis This approach develops a framework in which the narratives of informants can be interpreted Focusing on specific areas of interest such as worship conversion healing and witness each contribution from respondents is situated within the context of the congregation and interpreted by means of the broader Christian tradition This book makes a unique contribution to scholarship by offering a rich and varied picture of contemporary Christians in the Pentecostal and Charismatic traditions enabling a greater understanding to be appreciated for both academic and ecclesial audiences

Singing the Congregation Monique M. Ingalls, 2018-09-17 Contemporary worship music shapes the way evangelical Christians understand worship itself Author Monique M Ingalls argues that participatory worship music performances have brought into being new religious social constellations or modes of congregating Through exploration of five of these modes concert conference church public and networked congregations Singing the Congregation reinvigorates the analytic categories of congregation and congregational music Drawing from theoretical models in ethnomusicology and congregational studies Singing the Congregation reconceives the congregation as a fluid contingent social constellation that is actively performed into being through communal practice in this case the musically structured participatory activity known as worship Congregational music making is thereby recast as a practice capable of weaving together a religious community both inside and outside local institutional churches Congregational music making is not only a means of expressing local concerns and constituting the local religious community it is also a powerful way to identify with far flung individuals institutions and networks that comprise this global religious community The interactions among the congregations reveal widespread conflicts over religious authority carrying far ranging implications for how evangelicals position themselves relative to other groups in North America and beyond Spiritual Healing Sarah Coakley, 2020-10-15 Spiritual healing has been a cornerstone of Christian belief from its beginnings although there are various interpretations of what exactly it is and how it happens To address these questions the contributors to this volume come together to examine spiritual healing from a number of disciplinary perspectives How can such healing be explained through a scientific or medical lens What do biblical and historical instantiations of it tell us today And how are we to think of it as anthropologists philosophers or theologians Finally what does all this mean for those seeking spiritual healing for themselves or pastors walking alongside the afflicted Deftly edited by theologian Sarah Coakley Spiritual Healing offers a composite narrative that investigates the many intermingled factors at work in this intriguing phenomenon The result is a human story as much as it is a theological one Evervday Sacred Hillary satisfying discerning believers and skeptics alike in its rigorous pursuit of truth and meaning Kaell,2017-11-07 Over the last decade there has been ongoing discussion about the place of religion in Qu b cois society particularly following the proposed Charter of Quebec Values in 2013 The essays in Everyday Sacred emerged from this active and often tense period of debate Revitalizing an awareness of how people encounter create and employ religion in everyday life contributors to this volume explore communities networks of beliefs traditions and relationships Through broad comparisons beyond the Quebec context contributors look at African Pentecostal congregations an Iraqi Jewish community in Montreal a rural Catholic parish on the Saint Lawrence River and Tewehikan drumming in Wemotaci They also examine wayside crosses places of pilgrimage and devotion debates on the regulation of the hijab and the place of Montreal Spiritualists and transhumanists in the religious landscape Seeking a holistic definition of Qu b cois religion Everyday Sacred considers religious and secular identity pluralism the bodily and material aspects of religion the impact of gender on community and the public sphere and the rise of hybridity sociality and new technologies in transnational and online networks in order to uncover the transmission of practices and beliefs from one generation to another Disrupting familiar dichotomies between Catholicism and other religions founders and immigrants new religious movements and traditional institutions Everyday Sacred marks the beginning of a sustained conversation on contemporary religion in Quebec both inside and outside of the province Contributors include Emma Anderson University of Ottawa Randall Balmer Dartmouth College H l ne Charron Universit Laval Elysia Guzik University of Toronto Laurent J r me Universit du Qu bec Montr al Norma B Joseph Concordia University Cory Andrew Labrecque Universit Laval Deirdre Meintel Universit de Montr al G raldine Mossi re Universit de Montr al Fr d ric Parent Universit de Qu bec Montr al Meena Sharify Funk Wilfrid Laurier Sociology of Religion William A. Transnational Transcendence Thomas J. Csordas,2023-09-01 This innovative collection examines the transnational movements effects and transformations of religion in the contemporary world offering a fresh perspective on the interrelation between globalization and religion Transnational Transcendence challenges some widely accepted ideas about this relationship in particular that globalization can be understood solely as an economic phenomenon and that its religious manifestations are secondary. The book points out that religion s role remains understudied and undertheorized as an element in debates about globalization and it raises questions about how and why certain forms of religious practice and intersubjectivity succeed as they cross national and cultural boundaries Framed by Thomas I Csordas s introduction this timely volume both urges further development of a theory of religion and globalization and constitutes an important step toward that theory This innovative collection examines the transnational movements effects and transformations of religion in the contemporary world offering a fresh perspective on the interrelation between globalization and religion Transnational Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements, 2020-04-28 In Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements Arguments from the Margins Rocha Hutchinson and Openshaw argue that Australia has made and still makes important contributions to how Pentecostal and charismatic Christianities have developed worldwide This edited volume fills a critical gap in two important scholarly literatures. The first is the Australian literature on religion in which the absence of the charismatic and Pentecostal element tends to reinforce now widely debunked notions of Australia as lacking the religious tendencies of old Europe The second is the emerging transnational literature on Pentecostal and Charismatic movements This book enriches our understanding not only of how these movements spread worldwide but also how they are indigenised and grow new shoots in very diverse contexts Routledge Handbook of Religions in Asia Bryan Turner, Oscar Salemink, 2014-09-25 The Routledge Handbook of Religions in Asia provides a contemporary and comprehensive overview of religion in contemporary Asia Compiled and introduced by Bryan S Turner and Oscar Salemink the Handbook contains specially written chapters by experts in their respective fields The wide ranging introduction discusses issues surrounding Orientalism and the historical development of the discipline of Religious Studies It conveys how there have been many centuries of interaction between different religious traditions in Asia and discusses the problem of world religions and the range of concepts such as high and low traditions folk and formal religions popular and orthodox developments Individual chapters are presented in the following five sections Asian Origins religious formations Missions States and Religious Competition Reform Movements and Modernity Popular Religions Religion and Globalization social dimensions Striking a balance between offering basic information about religious cultures in Asia and addressing the complexity of employing a western terminology in societies with radically different traditions this advanced level reference work will be essential reading for students researchers and scholars of Asian Religions Sociology Anthropology Asian Studies and Religious Studies
