He Is Alive:

Xurt'an Suzanne Cook, 2019-11-15 Xurt'an the end of the world showcases the rich storytelling traditions of the northern Lacandon of Naha through a collection of traditional narratives songs and ritual speech Formerly isolated in the dense tropical rainforest of Chiapas Mexico the Lacandon Maya constitute one of the smallest language groups in the world Although their language remains active and alive their traditional culture was abandoned after the death of their religious and civic leader in 1996 Lacking the traditional contexts in which the culture was transmitted the oral traditions are quickly being forgotten This collection includes creation myths that describe the cycle of destruction and renewal of the world the structure of the universe the realms of the gods and their intercessions in the affairs of their mortals and the journey of the souls after death Other traditional stories are non mythic and fictive accounts involving talking animals supernatural beings and malevolent beings that stalk and devour hapless victims In addition to traditional narratives Xurt'an presents many songs that are claimed to have been received from the Lord of Maize magical charms that invoke the forces of the natural world invocations to the gods to heal and protect and work songs of Lacandon women whose contribution to Lacandon culture has been hitherto overlooked by scholars Women's songs offer a rare glimpse into the other half of Lacandon society and the arduous distaff work that sustained the religion The compilation concludes with descriptions of rainbows the Milky Way as the white road of Our Lord and an account of the solstices Transcribed and translated by a foremost linguist of the northern Lacandon language the literary traditions of the Lacandon are finally accessible to English readers The result is a masterful and authoritative collection of oral literature that will both entertain and provoke while vividly testifying to the power of Lacandon Maya aesthetic expression
