Sutera, 2013 Non fiction films about sports have been around for decades yet few scholarly articles have been published on these works In Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries editors Zachary Ingle and David M Sutera have assembled a collection of essays that show how myth and identity national religious ethnic and racial are constructed perpetuated or questioned in documentaries produced in the United States France Australia Germany and Japan Spanning several decades the landmark documentaries discussed in this volume include Hoop Dreams The Endless Summer The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg Olympia and Tokyo Olympiad and address such subjects as baseball football basketball boxing soccer surfing and the Olympics New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television. It heralds a welcome new approach. Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published. Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation. This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century. John Ellis, Professor of Media Arts, Royal Holloway University of London. New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non-fiction film. As engaging as the original, this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries. This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans, tre et avoir, Fahrenheit 9/11, The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah. Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert. A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docusoaps, reality television and formatted documentaries. The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker, Errol Morris, Nick Broomfield, Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller. Gender, identity, queer theory, performance, race and spectatorship. Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary.

Hoop Dreams Fulfilled Tyson Hartnett, 2015-04-14 Hoop Dreams Fulfilled is a detailed first person account of an athlete's failures and struggles on his way to playing professional basketball. Through in-depth experiences, Tyson Hartnett describes his journey playing basketball starting in 4th grade through high school, college and eventually professionally overseas. He profiles his mistakes and failures and his eventual redemption. This isn't just a book about an athlete achieving his goals. It's about the worst things Tyson experienced so younger athletes can learn from him. It's about what happens when an athlete is so focused on their sport that they don't care about anything else in life and the repercussions of that mindset. Hoop Dreams Fulfilled touches on deep, intense sports psychology and the weight and pressure many athletes feel but are afraid to talk about. Tyson recaps his failures in excruciating detail so others can learn from them. Hoop Dreams Fulfilled will appeal to anyone who has had significant challenges in their life yet realized their potential to overcome and master these challenges. It contains universal life lessons which will appeal to people from all areas of life. Who this book is for: Any young athlete who wants to play at the next level of their sport to understand what it takes. Parents to realize what may go on in their child's head through their sports career. Coaches to understand the power of influence they have on their athletes. The general public to get an in-depth first person account of what it takes to be an athlete. What this book discusses: Dedication, Training for Sports, Recruiting, The Political Side of Sports, Relationships, Failure, Depression.

Redemption Sacrifice Trust And much much more An initial review Hoop Dreams Fulfilled proves that you don't truly know someone unless they decide to let you in I thought I knew Tyson but the emotional bravery in his book rocked me Most writers hide their truth in fancy phrases and perfumed prose Hoop Dreams Fulfilled isn't that book I was amazed at the honest look inside his world playing basketball including his thoughts fears motivations and dreams To read sample chapters go to HoopDreamsFulfilled.com
