Europeanisation And The Transformation Of States:

Europeanisation and the Transformation of EU Security Policy Petros Violakis, 2018-05-15 The aim of this study is to examine the extent to which the end of the Cold War led to Europeanisation in the Common Security and Defence Policy CSDP The analysis takes into consideration previous studies on Europeanisation and its impact on the transformation of national security and defence and attempts to account for the development of Europeanisation and related mechanisms These mechanisms which have been described as framing mechanisms and negative integration incorporate all the major relevant factors identified here i e a common Strategic Culture new security identity domestic political decision making industrial base and defence spending decline that contributed to the realisation of the CSDP The relevance of these factors for CSDP Europeanisation is examined through an historical and empirical analysis and the relationship between the CSDP and North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO is also explored This approach facilitates analysis of the debate concerning the emergence of the CSDP and throws light on the political shift that led European Union EU leaders to support the CSDP Another aspect of this study is the empirical examination of the dynamics and limitations of the European defence sector The changes which took place in this sector facilitated the emergence of the CSDP and are therefore analysed in the light of globalisation issues economies of scale economic crises military autonomy new security strategy and Research and Development R D impact This book will be of interest to students of European security EU politics defence studies and International Relations

Europeanisation and Foreign Policy Juha Jokela, 2010-12-14 This book examines the relationship between the European Union EU and its member states by analysing how the process of integration in the field of foreign policy is shaping member states identities Focusing on the mutually constitutive aspects of the relationship between the EU and its member states Jokela argues that we need discourse analytic and comparative tools for analysing foreign policy in the EU context and draws on the contributions of poststructural international relations Providing empirically rich and comparative case studies that explore the impact of europeanization of foreign and security policy on Finnish and British foreign policy discourses as well as these states identities Jokela generates detailed knowledge about the interplay of national and supranational foreign policy discourses Making an important contribution to europeanization studies foreign policy analysis and discourse analysis this book will be of strong interest to students and scholars of European politics comparative politics foreign policy and international relations

Europeanization and Transnational States Bengt Jacobsson, Per Lægreid, Ove K. Pedersen, 2004-03 A comparative analysis of the impact of the European Union on central government administration uses a transformative perspective to examine changes as countries adapt to increased EU integration

Europeanization and New Member States Flavia Jurje, 2013-04-12 This book examines the Europeanization of the polity and politics of a new EU Member State Using social network analysis in a comparative research design it provides a systematic analysis of the effects of Europeanization on the institutions policy processes power constellation and conflict among national elites Providing a detailed case study on Romania in comparative perspective the book analyses the impact of the European Union integration process on decision making in six policy networks to develop a cross sector and cross time comparative analysis It explores mandatory EU requirements in the area of immigration and asylum and the implementation of various EU directives during the negotiation period as well as post integration It also examines soft non mandatory Europeanization in the social sector and investigates a third control case on a domestic reform fiscal decentralization in the education sector where the EU influence is absent Measuring the impact of Europeanization both before and after integration this book has considerable implications for the study of current and future candidate states It will be of interest to students and scholars of EU enlargement Europeanization studies European politics especially Central and Eastern European politics      The Spatialities of Europeanization Alun Jones, Julian Clark, 2024-03-08

Europeanization is increasingly fashionable in the social sciences as a research focus as well as a backdrop for studies of the European Union and its relations with its member states However to date there is little consensus among the scholarly community over what Europeanization is or how it should be analyzed Spatialities of Europeanization is the first work to comprehensively analyze contemporary research across the social sciences and humanities in order to bring together critically informed and previously unconnected contributions on this vital topic The authors identify unexplored communalities between these different research traditions as well as shedding light on its neglected geographical and spatial dimensions which they argue are critical to understanding Europeanization in the 21st century This book reflects a strong conceptual approach which is supported by detailed empirical materials drawn from interviews with policy elites at supranational national and regional levels in the EU who are engaged in short medium and long term EU policy planning and management Offering fascinating empirically grounded insights into why Europe's governance must now become more transparent and accountable to its 500 million citizens this book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of Political Science International and European Studies      European Integration, Processes of Change and the National Experience S. Börner, M. Eigmüller, 2015-06-02

In order to better understand processes of European integration this book offers a new perspective that compares past experiences of change to current transitional moments at the European level It addresses key questions about European society EU integration and social change to reveal the social construction of emergent polities and societies      The State of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe Ramona Coman, Luca Tomini, 2017-10-02 The State of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe brings together scholars specialising in the study of Central and Eastern Europe and provides a comprehensive analysis of some of the major issues in the democratic make up of the EU's new member states The book covers the main dimensions of the state and contributors discuss questions about the development of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe over the past twenty years What is the present state of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe more than twenty years since the end of communist regimes What is the actual functioning of the political institutions of these countries How is political participation structured and what role do political parties play in these democracies What guarantees are provided to limit governmental powers and abuse What is the role of the judicial system and the relationship between justice and politics How can we evaluate the EU's influence regarding democratic consolidation What is the role of the public opinion This book was originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies

The Europeanization of Interest Groups in Malta and Ireland Mario Thomas Vassallo, 2016-04-29 This comparative work examines the political and social context of interest groups in Malta and Ireland two small island states at the periphery of an integrated continent The author explores the impact of the European Union on their civil society's organizations and their gradual transformation at differing speeds and logics of Europeanization

Europeanisation of Public Policy in Southern Europe Canan Balkir, H. Tolga Bolukbasi, Ebru Ertugal, 2015-09-07 Large or small old EU member or new and even EU member state or not political economies across Southern Europe have been increasingly but distinctively Europeanised In political public and scholarly debates on processes of Europeanisation Southern Europe invariably features as the area of concern These concerns have been all the more heightened when the current sovereign debt crisis disproportionately hit this flaky fringe This volume systematically investigates the dynamics of Europeanisation in the Southern Periphery by tracing the domestic constellations of ideas interests and institutions over the course of the 2000s which came to a close with the crisis Bringing together a multidisciplinary team of leading specialists the volume focuses on the political economy of public policy reform in Greece Italy Malta Portugal Spain and Turkey In order to allow for cross case comparisons these original country studies follow a common template framed by what the Editors call the Europeanisation as research programme The volume casts empirical light on the causes of the crisis in these cases as well as the past legacies conditioning their responses to the crisis Its conclusions point to variegated patterns of Europeanisation in different policy areas across Southern Europe This volume will be of interest to students and scholars of European integration European political economy European public policy and comparative politics as well as specialists of Southern Europe This book was published as a special issue of South European Society and Politics

The European Union and the Return of the Nation State Antonina Bakardjieva Engelbrekt, Karin Leijon, Anna Michalski, Lars Oxelheim, 2020-01-22 This book explores the complex and ever changing relationship between the European Union and its member states The recent surge in tension in this relationship has been prompted by the actions of some member state governments as they question fundamental EU values and principles and refuse to implement common decisions seemingly on the basis of narrowly defined national interests Furthermore Brexit forces the EU for the first time to face the prospect of a major member state preparing to leave the Union Are these developments heralding the return of the nation state and if so in what form Is the national revival a lasting phenomenon that will affect the EU for a long time to come or is it a transitory trend This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to answer these questions It brings together scholars from economics law and political science to provide insights into the multifaceted relations between the Union and its member states from different perspectives All chapters are based on up to date research findings succinct assessments of the current state of affairs and ongoing debates about the direction of European integration The book concludes by offering policy recommendations at European and national levels Challenges and Barriers to the European Union Expansion to the Balkan Region Costa, Bruno

Ferreira,2022-01-21 Despite all efforts to create a political union capable of improving European citizens quality of life there are several barriers to the European Union s EU expansion to the Balkan Region The EU enlargement and expansion to the Balkan Region is one of the Union s greatest challenges and political objectives in recent years In the turmoil of economic social and sanitarian crises where is the space to debate the enlargement of the EU Challenges and Barriers to the European Union Expansion to the Balkan Region presents the EU s structure the process of enlargement and the challenges related to the Balkan region This book addresses critical issues and challenges in the EU and the emerging trends for the EU s future Covering topics such as enlargement policy integration NATO and political challenges this book is a valuable resource for post grad students of political science and international affairs faculty of higher education researchers academicians politicians world leaders and policymakers Making the EMU James D. Savage,2004-12-09 The Maastricht Treaty and the Stability Growth Pact demand that EU member states comply with their famous deficit and debt requirements of three and sixty per cent of GDP Yet how can the EU s leaders be certain that these targets are met Is a three per cent deficit in Belgium equivalent to one in Italy or France Making the EMU explores how the Treaty s budgetary surveillance procedure monitors member state budgetary policies harmonizes their budgetary data and effectively determines which member states qualified for member status and are subject to the Pact s sanctions This book provides the first examination of how the EU entrusted the credibility of these critical budgetary figures to a relatively minor European Commission agency and what effect the surveillance procedure has on the making of the EMU and the enforcement of Maastricht The Politics of

Europeanisation Nazlı Kazanoğlu,2021-05-03 With the dramatic changes in the extent to which women and men contribute to unpaid domestic work and paid employment work and family life reconciliation has become more prominent than ever on the European Union agenda This comparative study examines the Europeanisation patterns of work and family life reconciliation policies in a longstanding candidate country Turkey and a founding member state Germany over the last decade with a particular emphasis on intervening domestic actors and factors Combining Europeanisation literature and New Institutionalism theory it draws on document analysis and interviews with EU representatives German and Turkish political elites and representatives of civil society organisations to shed light on the diverging nature of the Europeanisation process in different countries A study of the influence of local actors on the push for stronger convergence among member and candidate states on EU work and family life reconciliation policies The Politics of Europeanisation will appeal to social scientists with interests in social policy gender studies EU politics and the Europeanisation process Europeanization P.

Graziano, M. Vink, 2006-11-28 This cutting edge handbook written by foremost authoritative scholars presents the main theoretical and empirical issues involved in current Europeanization research It evaluates the achievements and shortcomings of the growing literature As an advanced reference book it also sets the parameters for Europeanization research in the coming years      A Global Security Triangle Valeria Bello, Belachew Gebrewold, 2009-10-16 This book considers the interactions between Africa Asia and Europe analysing the short and long term strategies various states have adopted to external relations The urgency attached to the agenda of international terrorism and human and drugs trafficking has forced the European Union into new cooperation with Africa and Asia These inter regional relations have taken on new dimensions in the context of contemporary international politics framed by new security challenges and new competitive forces particularly from Asia This book provides both conceptual and empirical arguments to offer an innovative perspective on the EU as a global actor It demonstrates how these three regions interact politically and economically to address global challenges as well as global opportunities and thus provides an assessment of the multilateralism which the EU clearly stated in its Security Strategy paper Addressing a broad range of topical issues the book features chapters on European Security European Migration Policy African Union and its peace and security policy Terrorism and international security China and its fast growing global role India the biggest democracy in the world and the impact of the Asian economic growth on the global economy Further it compares the different backgrounds forms and priorities of regional integrations A Global Security Triangle will be of interest to all scholars of European politics security studies African and Asian studies and International Relations      States of Democracy Yvonne Galligan, 2015-03-05 The multi layered political system of the European Union offers a unique environment for the study of comparative democracy Its policies seek to give effect to an agreed range of values including that of gender equality This book explores gender equality and democratic politics in Europe It discusses how democratic politics engages with gender equality in the European Union and examines what happens when a core democratic value of the European Union equality between women and men is given policy effect in supra national and domestic level politics It asks how embedded is this value in democratic politics and what degree of gender equality is expressed in this environment The collection brings to light the gendered nature of democratic politics offering a critical gaze on the workings of modern democracy in Europe This book will be of interest to scholars and students of democracy European studies gender and key to courses seeking to incorporate a deeper gender perspective or evaluating democracy and democratic performance in institutions and decision making      The Europeanisation of Contested Statehood George Kyris, 2016-03-09 The Europeanisation of Contested Statehood The EU in northern Cyprus acts as a case study of the impact of the EU on institutions political parties and civil society in contested states self declared states which remain unrecognised in world politics Research drawn from qualitative analysis of official documents public discourse and interviews with various officials and political and social elites within the EU and at a local level provides new insights as to the impact of the EU on northern Cyprus as well as a fresh understanding of the relevance of the EU to contested states in general By doing so the book reflects on what contested statehood means for Europeanisation and lays out a conceptual template for the study of contested states of the wider European periphery such as those in the Caucasus Transnistria Kosovo or the occupied Palestinian territories which continue to represent specific challenges to the international affairs of the EU

Illiberal Trends and Anti-EU Politics in East Central Europe Astrid Lorenz, Lisa H. Anders, 2020-10-27 This open access book provides an in depth look into the background of rule of law problems and the open defiance of EU law in East Central European countries Current illiberal trends and anti EU politics have the potential to undermine mutual trust between member states and fundamentally change the EU It is therefore crucial to understand their domestic causes context conditions specific processes and consequences This volume contributes to empirically informed theory building and includes contributions from researchers from various disciplines and multiple perspectives on illiberal trends and anti EU politics in the region The qualitative case studies comparative works and quantitative analyses provide a comprehensive picture of current societal political and institutional developments in the Czech Republic Hungary Poland and Slovakia Through studying similarities and differences between East Central European and other EU countries the chapters also explore whether there are regional patterns of democracy and EU related problems

Turkey's Road to European Union Membership Susannah Verney, Kostas Ifantis, 2013-09-13 Enlargement to Turkey is arguably the greatest challenge facing the European Union today After the narrowly averted train crash over Cyprus in 2006 the second election victory of the Justice and Development Party in July 2007 opened new prospects for Turkish EU relations But in an EU emphasising a collective identity based on shared civilisational values Turkey's European credentials have been increasingly called into question Amending national identity through political change has become the key to the success or failure of the Turkish integration project This volume examines the EU role in strengthening the domestic pro reform coalition within Turkey the paradox and potential limits of Turkey's europeanising Islamists and the impact of Europeanisation through conditionality including a case study of Turkish policy towards the Cyprus Question Also addressed are the Western stereotypes of Turkish identity influencing the country's EU prospects notably concerning the role of Islam in precipitating acts of political violence and its association with sexual and political violence in the discourse of European opponents of Turkish accession Finally the dynamics of EU accession negotiations are analysed and the potential role of a norm driven rhetorical strategy in promoting Turkish accession as a moral and democratic imperative is discussed

The Europeanization of National Administrations Sevasti Chatzopoulou, 2020-09-04 Drawing on comparative politics and social network analysis this book examines how the domestic institutional and organizational settings as well as the network governance patterns determine variation in administrative responses to EU's Common Agricultural Policy CAP in two European Union EU member states Denmark and Greece These two small member states represent the North and South dimensions of the EU The north south dimension in relation to administrative structures respond differently to EU common policies and to Common Agricultural Policy specifically which has not been studied in the Europeanization literature Even though the study of administrative responses to EU common policies is important as it has been especially noticeable during the current financial crisis Europeanisation studies concentrate on either large Western European states France Germany and UK or small Western Northern states These studies produced detailed knowledge on specific countries and policy areas but they ignored the agricultural policy area and the importance of small Southern member states By comparing a small Southern with a small Northern state since the accession to the EU this book aims to fill this gap in the literature Moreover by linking the findings of the two cases to the member states that joined the EU in the 2004 fifth enlargement and in other policy areas it allows a better understanding of similar responses either adaptation or inertia This book represents an important contribution to the theoretical and empirical literature on Europeanisation and the Common Agricultural Policy CAP It systematically tackles an under studied question does Europeanisation of policies lead to administrative change and convergence among the member states The domestic administration of the EU CAP has remained domestically designed and monitored resulting in divergence among the member states and gaps and imbalances in the performance of EU CAP decisions The CAP is of more general interest because it combines regulatory and market intervention policy instruments The analysis proceeds through in depth comparative historical case studies of Denmark and Greece which uses a sophisticated combination of quantitative and qualitative methodologies The authoritative and informative analysis is structured by a focus on three key domestic factors There is differentiated administration of common policies and while administration succeeds and adapts in one state it does not necessarily do so in others leading to differences in implementation performance This book should provide a stimulus for further research Wyn Grant University of Warwick The last 40 years have been crucial for the European agriculture The Common Agricultural Policy fulfilled its primary objective which led Europeans to shift its objectives and cope with the shortcomings created by the success of the Policy itself manage surpluses and narrow the gap between farmers due to price mechanism as well as adapt the policy following the successive enlargements and follow the developments in the global economy in which we live nowadays Dr Chatzopoulou gives us a very accurate image on how differently actors of the agricultural economy farmers cooperatives and the administrations both in Greece and Denmark behave But also how different is the structure of the sector in these two countries in Denmark almost everything is based upon a consensus where there does not exist a law on cooperatives and where the administration and the sector work together to adapt or to influence the decisions to take at European level On the other hand in Greece farmers struggle to make their voice heard in the absence of professional organizations the cooperatives are bound to work in the framework of a specific and strict law and the administration was not shown very cooperative with the sector These two realities are very well illustrated by the author and many lessons are to be learnt through this study But above all the author gives us a fair idea of how complex is the process of Europeanisation in a Europe Union composed of sovereign member States with different history culture social organization and different legal systems Vaggelis Divaris Former European Commission principal administrator DG Agriculture and Rural Development
