Eva Zeisel:

Eva Zeisel Lucie Young, Marisa Bartolucci, Eva Zeisel, 2003-04 Continuing to put great classic and contemporary design within everyone's grasp Chronicle Books proudly delivers the next four installments of the popular Compact Design Portfolio. Written by top design critics these books cover modern masters whose work ranges from the cozily domestic to the aggressively avant garde. Eva Zeisel whose elegantly democratic housewares span a 70 year career. Ingo Maurer who raises lamp and lighting design to a high art form. Gaetano Pesce whose rejection of traditional good taste brought about revolutionary furniture design and George Nelson the impresario behind the Marshmallow sofa and other Herman Miller classics. Following the introductory essay a visual gallery exhibits selections of the designers' best work in photographs and sketches. Presented in an irresistible small format this series encapsulates the life work and influence of the great designers of our time.

Eva Zeisel Pat Kirkham, 2013-10-15 Eva Zeisel was one of the twentieth century's most influential ceramicists and designers of modern housewares. Émigré Cultures in Design and Architecture Alison J. Clarke, Elana Shapira, 2017-11-02 This new volume addresses the lasting contribution made by Central European migr designers to twentieth century American design and architecture. The contributors examine how oppositional stances in debates concerning consumption and modernism's social agendas taken by designers such as Felix Augenfeld Joseph Binder Josef Frank Paul T Frankl Frederick Kiesler Richard Neutra and R M Schindler in Europe prefigured their later adoption or rejection by American culture They argue that migrants and refugees from fascist Europe such as Gyrgy Kepes Paul L szl Victor Papanek Bernard Rudofsky Xanti Schawinsky and Eva Zeisel drew on the particular experiences of their home countries and networks of migrant and exiled designers in the United States to develop a humanist progressive and socially inclusive design culture which continues to influence design practice today

The Invention of Design Maggie Gram, 2025-06-03 A critical history of the idea of design and its utopian promise Design has penetrated every dimension of contemporary society from classrooms to statehouses to corporate boardrooms It's seen as a kind of mega power one that can solve all our problems and elevate our experiences to make a more beautiful more functional world But there's a backstory here In The Invention of Design designer and historian Maggie Gram investigates how over the twentieth century our economic hopes fears and fantasies shaped the idea of design then repeatedly redefined it Nearly a century ago resistance to New Deal era government intervention helped transform design from an idea about aesthetics into one about function And at century's end the dot com crash brought us design thinking the idea that design methodology can solve any problem small or large To this day design captures imaginations as a tool for fixing market society's broken parts from within supposedly enabling us to thrive within capitalism's sometimes violent constraints A captivating critical history The Invention of Design shows how design became the hero of many of our most hopeful stories dreams fantasies utopias about how we might better live in a modern world

Jewish Migration and the Archive James Jordan, Lisa Leff, Joachim Schlör, 2017-10-02 Migration is and has always been a disruptive experience Freedom from oppression and hope for a better life are counter balanced by feelings of loss loss of family members of a home of personal belongings Memories of the migration process itself often fade quickly away in view of the new challenges that await immigrants in their new homelands This volume asks and shows how migration memories have been kept stored forgotten and indeed retrieved in many different archives in official institutions in heritage centres as well as in personal and family collections Based on a variety of examples and conceptual approaches from artistic approaches to the family archive via smell and memory as archives to a cultural history of the suitcase this volume offers a new and original way to write Jewish history and the history of Jewish migration in the context of personal and public memory The documents reflect the transitory character of the migration experience and they tell stories of longing and belonging This book was originally published as a special issue of Jewish Culture and History

book presents the first detailed biography of George Placzek an outstanding physicist a participant in the Manhattan Project who stood at the very inception of nuclear physics and the subsequent development of the nuclear bomb in the course of the WWII In the 1930s George Placzek was known as an adventurous person with a sharp sense of humor a tireless generator of novel physics ideas which he generously shared with his colleagues Born in Brno now Czech Republic into a wealthy Jewish family he lost all his relatives to Holocaust casting a tragic shadow on his life Placzek s scientific career began in the late 1920s when the quantum revolution was almost over but nuclear physics was still at its infancy He established personal and scientific relations with the creators of quantum mechanics such as Heisenberg in Leipzig and Niels Bohr in Copenhagen In Rome he worked with Fermi and in Copenhagen he became a part of Bohr s nuclear physics team which dominated nuclear theory at that time The scope of Placzek s pilgrimage around world physics centers in the 1930s was unique among his colleagues In January 1939 George Placzek managed to emigrate from Europe to the US and became a part of the British Mission within the Manhattan Project His physical insights were instrumental in advancing from the basic discoveries on nuclear chain reactions to the Trinity experiment Hiroshima and Nagasaki This book is a unique compilation of a large number of previously unknown and unpublished documents from private and university archives police reports etc Placzek s correspondence with the leadership of the Hebrew University in 1934 the 1937 NKVD interrogation files of Konrad Weisselberg recollections of Ella Andriess as well as the Zurich Police report of 1956 detailing the circumstances of Placzek s death in a Zurich hotel are illuminating as they shed light on poorly known pages of his life Dwell ,2001-02 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Serious Play Monica Obniski,Darrin Alfred,2018-01-01 A lively exploration of eclecticism playfulness and whimsy in American postwar design including architecture graphic design and product design This spirited volume shows how postwar designers embraced whimsy and eclecticism in their work exploring playfulness as an essential construct of modernity Following World War II Americans began accumulating more and more goods spurring a transformation in the field of interior decoration Storage walls became ubiquitous often serving as a home s centerpiece Designers such as Alexander Girard encouraged homeowners to populate their new shelving units with folk art as well as unconventional and modern objects to produce innovative and unexpected juxtapositions within modern architectural settings Playfulness can be seen in the colorful child sized furniture by Charles and Ray Eames who also produced toys And in the postwar corporate world the concept of play is manifested in the influential advertising work of Paul Rand Set against the backdrop of a society that was experiencing rapid change and high anxiety Serious Play takes a revelatory look at how many of the country s leading designers connected with their audience through wit and imagination The Socialite Who Killed a Nazi with Her Bare

Hands and 143 Other Fascinating People Who Died This Past Year William McDonald, 2012-10-30 Returning for its second year but reimagined in a new impulse format with a new title new cover new mission and new sensibility here is The Socialite Who Killed a Nazi with Her Bare Hands a pithier quirkier collection of the 164 best page turning obituaries from The New York Times Written by top journalists each story is a gem of a bio a full life in miniature There s the famous Steve Jobs including the story of how he was reunited with a sister he never knew the novelist Mona Simpson And the almost famous Ruth Stone a poet who worked in relative obscurity until she won the National Book Award at the age of 87 The behind the scenes like Arch West inventor of the Dorito who pulled America s snacks out of the 1950s doldrums and created a 5 billion a year product and the out there like self styled anarchist and maverick artist and real estate mogul and museum director Bob Cassilly who died at the controls of his bulldozer while building Cementland in St Louis And because of the chronological organization of the book the stories one next to the other make for an addictive as salted peanuts book Mark O Hatfield the celebrated antiwar Republican senator from Oregon next to Nancy Wake of the title the impoverished New Zealander who grew up to become a high society hostess and heroine of the French Resistance the socialite who did indeed kill a Nazi with her bare hands
