Eva Coe, Murderess Niles Eggleston, 1997 Probably no murder during the 20th century received more media coverage than did the Coe murder trial The time 1934 The place Oneonta New York Eva Coe Collection James Jr Byard, Donald Grant, Clermont G. Kay Gillespie, 2009-06-15 Executed Women of the 20th and 21st Centuries provides a look into the lives crimes and executions of women during the 20th and 21st centuries Rather than dealing with these women as numbers and statistics this book presents them as human beings Each of these women had lives histories and families The purpose is not to condone their actions but to suggest that those we executed are in fact humans rather than monsters as they are often portrayed Killers Report 26 Disturbing True Crime stories Volume 5. Sarah Bridgett, 2025-01-07 KILLERS REPORT 26 Disturbing True Crime stories Volume 5 The surprising sad and bad news about the earthquake and the deaths it has caused that arrived from Turkey on February 6 2023 caught my attention as I was finishing this book My sympathies to the impacted Family and my readers in Turkey This true crime book is an anthology of disturbing true crime tales that have horrified and awed the audience Each case s narrative is presented honestly and objectively so that readers may choose how they feel about how each case turned out The instances come from many parts of the globe as well as various eras and social backgrounds From the beginning inquiry to the leftover clues every case is thoroughly examined Along with examining probable motivations and suspects it also delves deeply into the psyche of murderers and their victims The Gentle Pathetic Serial Killer Revengeful Mass Murder by a Mother of Three The Waltham Triple Murders The Hungerford Massacre 30 Years On Morphine Murderer Carlyle Harris Dismemberment by Wood Chipper English Spree Killer Barry Williams Serial Killer John Christie s Betrayal of an Innocent Man Mystery Continues in Murder of Family in French Alps The Merciless Murder of the Ding Family The Waterfront s Grim Reaper The Deadly Doctor George Henry Lamson Plus 14 more stories Scroll up to get your copy Death Row Women Mark Gado, 2007-11-30 During the 20th century only six women were legally executed by the State of New York at Sing Sing Prison In each case the condemned faced a process of demonization and public humiliation that was orchestrated by a powerful and unforgiving media When compared to the media treatment of men who went to the electric chair for similar offenses the press coverage of female killers was ferocious and unrelenting Granite woman black eyed Borgia roadhouse tramp sex mad and lousy prostitute are just some of the terms used by newspapers to describe these women Unlike their male counterparts females endured a campaign of expulsion and disgrace before they were put to death Not since the 1950s has New York put another woman to death Gado chronicles the crimes the times and the media attention surrounding these cases The tales of these death row women shed light on the death penalty as it applies to women and the role of the media in both the trials and executions of these convicts In these cases the press affected the prosecutions the judgements and the decisions of authorities along the way Contemporary headlines of the era are revealing in their blatant bias and leave little doubt of their purpose Using family letters prison correspondence photographs court transcripts and last minute pleas for mercy Gado paints a fuller picture of these cases and the times

The Gentle Art of Murder, 1934 Alexander L. Schlosser,1934 The Penalty is Death Marlin Shipman,2002 In 1872 Susan Eberhart was convicted of murder for helping her lover to kill his wife The Atlanta Constitution ran a story about her hanging in Georgia that covered slightly more than four full columns of text In an editorial sermon about her the Constitution said that Miss Eberhart not only committed murder but also committed adultery and violated the sanctity of marriage An 1890 article in the Elko Independent said of Elizabeth Potts who was hanged for murder To her we look for everything that is gentle and kind and tender and we can scarcely conceive her capable of committing the highest crime known to the law Indeed at the time this attitude was also applied to women in general By 1998 the press's and society's attitudes had changed dramatically A columnist from Texas wrote that convicted murderess Karla Faye Tucker should not be spared just because she was a woman The author went on to say that women could be just as violent and aggressive as men the idea that women are defenseless and need men's protection is probably the last vestige of institutionalized sexism that needs to be rubbed out
