Evaluation Of Swedish Development Cooperation With Zambia Report Sasda

Michael Brown

Evaluation Of Swedish Development Cooperation With Zambia Report Sasda:

Evaluation of Swedish Development Cooperation with Zambia, 1994 Foreign Aid, Debt, and Growth in Zambia Per-Åke Andersson, Arne Bigsten, Håkan Persson, 2000 A study which discusses the structural problems in Zambia and the policies of adjustment that have been tried It also analyses the impact of various strategies with regard to external resource transfers The results show that the scope for growth is highly dependent on the tightness of the external resource constraint and that debt service tends to dominate the policy making

The Aid Relationship in Zambia Oliver S. Saasa, Jerker Carlsson, 1996 Does aid work This book examines this issue But rather than trying to establish how effective aid has been the focus is shifted towards one of the key determinants of effectiveness the aid relationship The study looks at the relationship between Zambia and its donors and discusses the likely impact of aid in a country where poverty has become rampant and the international debt has reached unmanageable proportions

Programme Aid and Development Geske Dijkstra, Howard White, 2013-09-05 This important contribution to the literature on development economics analyses the effectiveness of programme aid i e aid that is not given in the form of projects Using real world examples from countries such as Nicaragua Tanzania and Vietnam this book deals with one of the core issues in development economics today

Aid to Africa Carol Lancaster, 1999-04-15 5 The United States

Aid and Poverty Reduction in Zambia Oliver S. Saasa, Jerker Carlsson, 2002 Zambia a once prosperous African country now has 73 per cent of its people below the poverty line and by the early 1990s the country was included on the list of the least developed countries Despite significant aid volumes and structural reforms the country is getting deeper and deeper into poverty What is the missing link between aid and positive change Is the problem mainly that the volume of aid is not sufficient and as is often heard more of it would make a difference Has the sluggish social and economic progress in Zambia been appropriately diagnosed and correct remedies and strategies prescribed This book attempts to address these and related questions

The Samaritan's Dilemma Clark C. Gibson, Krister Andersson, Elinor Ostrom, Sujai Shivakumar, 2005-09-08 What s wrong with foreign aid Many policymakers aid practitioners and scholars have called into question its ability to increase economic growth alleviate poverty or promote social development At the macro level only tenuous links between development aid and improved living conditions have been found At the micro level only a few programs outlast donor support and even fewer appear to achieve lasting improvements The authors of this book argue that much of aid s failure is related to the institutions that structure its delivery These institutions govern the complex relationships between the main actors in the aid delivery system and often generate a series of perverse incentives that promote inefficient and unsustainable outcomes In their analysis the authors apply the theoretical insights of the new institutional economics to several settings First they investigate the institutions of Sida the Swedish aid agency to analyze how that aid agency s institutions can produce incentives inimical to desired outcomes contrary to the desires of its own staff Second the authors use cases from India a country with low aid dependence and Zambia a country with high aid dependence to explore how institutions on the ground in recipient countries also mediate the effectiveness of aid Throughout the book the authors offer suggestions about how to improve aid s effectiveness These suggestions include how to structure evaluations in order to improve outcomes how to employ agency staff to gain from their on the ground experience and how to engage stakeholders as owners in the design resource mobilization learning and evaluation processes of development assistance programs Promoting Development by Proxy Roger C. Riddell,Anthony Bebbington,Lennart Peck,1995 Bibliographie der Staats-und Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1995 Crisis, Adjustment and Growth in Uganda Arne Bigsten,Steve Kayizzi-Mugerwa,1999-06-23 Uganda in the 1970s and early 1980s was one of Africa s more tragic economic stories Emerging from civil war it had to embark on reform in the early to mid 1980s from a position of severe political weakness In the study the effects of economic policy at the aggregate level are discussed in detail but snapshot empirical analyses of responses at the household level both urban and rural are also presented Uganda was for many years considered to be Africa s worst case its recent recovery thus provides hope for similar countries in the region

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström,1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 Bibliographie der Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1995 The Political Economy of Reform Failure Mats Lundahl,2007-04-11 Economists have moved in recent years beyond analyzing the manner in which the macroeconomies of different countries function and prescribing appropriate policies for dealing with domestic and external imbalances Increasingly they have sought to understand the complex interaction between political and economic phenomena This book considers issues of economic reform in a broad range of settings developed countries transition countries developing countries Using country specific cases such as Uzbekistan Burma and Haiti it focuses on those territories which have encountered problems reforming allowing the reader to gain an accurate understanding of the factors that inhibit the success of economic reform the different context in which economic reform is attempted and the different challenges that individual countries face An international team of contributors including Bo S dersten Deepak Lal and Ron Findlay have been brought together to analyze these topical issues making this an informative and thought provoking book of interest to those involved in the field of development studies Poverty, Policy & Aid Bob Baulch,1996 Perspectives on European Development Cooperation Olav Stokke, Paul Hoebink, 2012-10-12 Events of the past twenty years including the Cold War and the War on Terror have meant that the environments of international development co operation have changed extensively with dramatic consequences for development policies and North South relations in general Perspectives on European Development Cooperation takes stock of such changes describing and analyzing the new European development agenda including the role of the European Union Essays by prominent authorities in the field examine the development policies of individual donor countries and focus on the principles and objectives governing aid strategies and the performances of these policies This book will be of interest to students of development studies and those involved in determining development policy

The Macroeconomics of Aid Howard White, 1994 Bibliographic Guide to Government Publications New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1996

International Monetary and Financial Issues for the 1990s , 1992 Discussion Fora , 2008 Foreign Aid in Africa Jerker Carlsson, Gloria Somolekae, Nicolas Van de Walle, 1997 This volume reports on the findings of an international research project on aid effectiveness in Africa
