Bracken, 1991 The Vocation of Evelyn Waugh D. Marcel

DeCoste, 2016-03-09 Arguing against the critical commonplace that Evelyn Waugh's post war fiction represents a decline in his powers as a writer D Marcel DeCoste offers detailed analyses of Waugh's major works from Brideshead Revisited to Unconditional Surrender Rather than representing an ill advised departure from his true calling as an iconoclastic satirist DeCoste suggests these novels form a cohesive artful whole precisely as they explore the extent to which the writer's and the Catholic's vocations can coincide For all their generic and stylistic diversity these novels pursue a new sustained exploration of Waugh's art and faith both As DeCoste shows Waugh offers in his later works an under remarked meditation on the dangers of a too avid devotion to art in the context of modern secularism forging in the second half of his career a literary achievement that both narrates and enacts a contrary and Catholic literary vocation Encyclopedia of Contemporary Christian Fiction Nancy M. Tischler, 2009-09-10 A biographical encyclopedia of American and British Christian themed writers from World War II to the present covering acclaimed literary works and popular evangelical fiction Encyclopedia of Contemporary Christian Fiction From C S Lewis to Left Behind spans the entire breadth of Christian themed British and American writing from World War II to the present well known and less familiar authors, acclaimed literary novels and popular writing in a variety of genres, mysteries, thrillers, romances, works that explore matters of faith, works that challenge orthodoxy and church practices and works wholly written by and for devout evangelicals Encyclopedia of Contemporary Christian Fiction offers 90 alphabetically organized entries covering the field's most important writers. Each entry includes a brief biography, religious and educational background, a survey of major works and themes, and a summary of critical response as well as a bibliography of major works and criticism.
